

Good News From The Oakham Group

60p

June 2012.

God of time and eternity
whose Son reigns as servant not master;
we give you thanks and praise
that you have blessed this Nation,
the Realms and Territories
with ELIZABETH,
our beloved and glorious Queen.
In this year of Jubilee,
grant her your gifts of love and joy and peace
as she continues in faithful obedience to you, her Lord and God
and in devoted service to her lands and peoples,
and those of the Commonwealth,
now and all the days of her life;
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Dear Friends

May 18, 2012

It's now the day after Ascension Day; John and I had elected to go to the evening service at St John and St Anne's Chapel, and I have to admit that I was preoccupied with what to write about in this letter to the magazine...till I walked into the Chapel, and remembered the first time I had entered it after its reconsecration in 1983 (THAT long ago?). I had been invited, along with many others, to attend as the Queen and Prince Philip made their visitation.

The Queen was escorted into the Chapel by Rev Alan Horsley – I was in the second row about 5 in from the main door. I shall never forget the look that came over Her Majesty as she entered the small Chapel. She paused for several seconds, and audibly gasped. She then moved along the front row of dignitaries, shaking hands – and looking everyone in the eye, yes, everyone (even me on the second row). A tiny lady, but she has an amazing presence, and seems to have the ability to embrace all in her path, just with a glance. I can't remember what I wore, but her outfit was bright emerald green, not a crease in sight; the Duke of Edinburgh wore his usual shabby beige mackintosh...

What memories do you have? I am old enough to remember the King's death; our front curtains were closed for a week at least. Then the Coronation – my Dad replaced our 9" television with a 15", especially for the day (he worked for GEC so had all the latest gismos).

Last night, reports were on the television about the Queen's Jubilee visit to Manchester and surrounding areas (not been there since 1956), but the love and joy of the people who turned out to greet her was very obvious. Not only does she embrace us, but she also seems to have the quality to bring out the best in us.

Much will have been written about her 60 years on the throne – the changes, the ups and downs for our society, and for her and her family. But as we wait now for the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, just as the disciples waited back in Jerusalem after the Ascension of our Lord, Jesus Christ, can I ask you to use this prayer, written at the Queen's direction by the Chapter of St Paul's Cathedral, now and in the months to come:

God of time and eternity, whose Son reigns as servant, not master; we give you thanks and praise that you have blessed this Nation, the Realms and Territories with ELIZABETH, our beloved and glorious Queen. In this year of Jubilee, grant her your gifts of love and joy and peace as she continues in faithful obedience to you, her Lord and God and in devoted service to her lands and peoples, and those of the Commonwealth, now and all the days of her life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

And may the Holy Spirit be with us all as we celebrate, wherever we may be and in whatever way (we shall be on the beach in Cornwall with the grandchildren – bunting and flags and special hats already purchased). God bless Elizabeth our Queen, and long may she reign!

MOTHERS' UNION NEWS

The idea of devoting our May meeting to "The Olympics and Christians in Sport" made for a most stimulating, absorbing and amusing afternoon. As arranged by Kate Goodwin, we were delighted to welcome children from Burley Road School who had been appointed Olympic Ambassadors. They explained in a power-point presentation (and once again thanks to Kevin for his technical expertise) the current significance of the rings which represent the Olympic virtues of Respect, Excellence and Friendship, and the Paralympic virtues of Determination, Equality, Inspiration and Courage. The pupils have been incorporating these virtues into the ethos of school life and certainly they were a credit to this ideal. This was followed by reading and interpretations citing sporting metaphors in the Bible from Beryl Wilson and Viv Ufton. Pamela and Gordon then delivered short biographical details of some famous sportsmen who were committed Christians. Various Olympic-related memories and anecdotes were then shared by members.

No occasion chaired by Gordon would be complete without a Quiz and this time he had naturally contrived one based on the Olympics and Christians in Sport. This led to much amusement – and a lamentable display of sporting ignorance on the part of some! – however, Helen Bush and Derek Ufton both shone forth, and after a nail-biting tiebreak the "Gold" medal (made of chocolate!) was awarded to Helen, who graciously acknowledged the enormously lucky chance which enabled her to answer the last question quickly! Thanks to the hard work by Pamela, Gordon and Committee Members we enjoyed another excellent and well-attended meeting. Again we stress that we are always pleased to welcome non-members.

Continued ...

The Wave of Prayer runs from 16th – 20th June and we hope to incorporate it into our Corporate Communion on 20th June, so do come and support it.

Our next meeting will be the Joint Outing with the Friends of Oakham Church, which has become such a well-loved feature of our programme. This will be on Friday, 22nd June, visiting the town of Warwick and the Priory Church with the opportunity of attending Evensong. Full details are on the sheet in church.

Easter Chicks The final number sold was 277 – 200 more than we had originally anticipated! This was a magnificent effort especially by organiser Viv Ufton, but also by the team of knitters, the “sales personnel” and those who purchased. This has given a welcome addition to our funds, enabling us to increase our charitable giving for this year. Many thanks to all.

Finally, we hope you have all been logging on to the two websites given in last month’s news. They were: www.parentport.org.uk for comments, questions or complaints in support of the Bye Buy Childhood campaign, and c4m.org.uk to sign the petition in support of retaining the present institution of marriage.

The Dean of Peterborough writes
Daft old brush provides role model
"When Peter heard it was the Lord, he put on some clothes...and jumped into the sea." (John 21:7)

What a daft old brush! Most of us would surely remove our clothes before diving in, not put them back on! But that's Peter for you – impetuously enthusiastic, not particularly renowned for engaging brain before opening mouth or leaping into action.

He was, as one of my colleagues would say, "more ready to be generous than right"; which perhaps explains why some find him to be among the more loveable of the apostles, together with his willingness to learn and his capacity for bouncing back after being knocked down.

It has been said of clergy that in the early years of an appointment they are scrutinized and for the remainder of their incumbency they are criticized; but when they leave or retire they are idolized and, finally, canonized.

This has been the case for most if not all the Archbishops of Canterbury in recent generations, whose lot is to be truly appreciated only when they've gone. It does little credit to the way we sometimes conduct our debates and readily malign our chief pastors that Rowan Williams observed that his successor will need "the constitution of an ox and the skin of rhinoceros."

In this month of June, we celebrate the Feast of our Diocesan and Cathedral Patron, Saint Peter. As we do so, let us pray that Archbishop Rowan's successor will have not only bovine strength and a rhinoceric hide; but more especially a Petrine heart – even if such enthusiasm, willingness to make mistakes but equal readiness to learn and bounce back, make him seem a bit of a daft brush in the eyes of this world.

And let us also pray that we too might be prepared more often to be generous rather than always claiming to be right.

Happy

Petertide!

Yours in Christ,

Charles Taylor

Bishop says put children first

Church schools are one of the most important things that the church does, Bishop Donald told 100 or so people gathered to bid farewell to Diocesan Director of Education Dr Stephen Partridge, who is retired at the end of April.

Bishop Donald reminded the audience that "church isn't the place for grown-ups where children are sometimes allowed to attend. Church is for everyone. "Put the children first," he urged, "and approach God in a simple childlike way, and then we'll get everything else right."

Turning to the children gathered from four local schools, he reminded them that they are precious to God. "Jesus loves you and wants you to know and love him," he said.

The service of thanksgiving and farewell in St Andrew's Church Kettering was led by Archdeacon Christine who is also chair of the Diocesan Board of Education. Bishop Donald thanked her for her leadership of the Board and they each wore specially-made stoles decorated with the badges of all 104 church schools in the diocese.

Archdeacon Christine paid tribute to Stephen Partridge's work, enthusiasm and attention to detail. She quoted a letter from former Diocesan Mission Enabler Tim Sledge who said, "Stephen is a one off, a one-man whirling dynamo of creative ideas and energy."

Children from St Mary's and St Andrew's primary schools in Kettering sang He's got the whole world

in his hands and children from All Saints

Primary School in Northampton sang

Rutter's The Lord bless you and keep you. Students from Bishop Stopford

School led the opening acclamations. A farewell commendation was led by

Tim Short (Board of Education), Joan Gibson (Head of Oakham Primary School) and Gill Nunn, a governor of Culworth Primary School.

Stephen was presented with a visitors book for his B&B in France from Board Chair Hilary Spenceley, a cheque by the Archdeacon (below), and flowers for his wife Ivana. He paid tribute to the hard work and support of his former and current staff, and of schools and governors.

Cathedral confirmation for Cheryl and son

For bishop's secretary Cheryl Craggs and her son Luke (14), the Easter Eve Confirmation service at Peterborough Cathedral this year was unforgettable.

Not only were they both amongst the 38 candidates for Confirmation, but both her "bosses" were there too. Bishop John anointed the candidates and Bishop Donald Confirmed them.

Cheryl started working for the bishops in September 2010 and it wasn't long before she asked Bishop Donald about Confirmation. With his gentle encouragement she started going to the evening classes led by Jonathan Baker and Jenny Opperman at the Cathedral.

She was joined by Luke and both of them found the teaching and Bible study sessions thought provoking and challenging. "There was no pressure and we both felt able to take part in the discussions," said Cheryl, who had the advantage of being able to ask her bishop's office colleagues about anything she didn't understand.

Daughter Rebecca (12) and husband Les were among their supporters at the service, which began dramatically when a fire was ignited at the west door, from which numerous candles were lit in the darkened Cathedral.

EGLETON NEWS

David Thompson has completed his years of office as Churchwarden, with the ready appreciation of St. Edmund's people's to bless him on his way.

As David handed his baton to Sue Bolton, he was gaining a mark of distinction in the annals of the Parish, ancient and modern: Sue becomes the First Lady to hold the Parish's eminent office. She, too, is assured of Egleton's acclamation and benediction as she assumes her distinctive role.

Egleton's historic Village Shelter has been splendidly refurbished: it now takes on a handsome, new lease of life as it stands, with elegance, beside the Churchyard Gate. In that spot, for years on end, the Shelter has acquired countless merit marks, as a point to "rest and be thankful" for hundreds of walkers, thousands of cyclists, most of whom, inevitably, have come our way whilst en route to encircle the whole of Rutland Water.

Having taken their ease – and their picnic! – a good many people have come through the Gate to sample the charms of St. Edmund's, the sanctuary and the churchyard alike, before moving on – with thankful heart! All are welcome pilgrims, to Shelter and Church alike!

The Parish Meeting had become well aware of the Shelter's dire need of expert attention and so, in its most recent session the Meeting was delighted to accept an offer from Paul Hipwell of Orchard Close to undertake all the necessary repairs – at cost price of the materials!

Paul, ably assisted by his brother, has fulfilled all his promised, expert services to the Parish: such craftsmanship and earnest endeavour has provided Egleton with an eye catching, enhancing Village feature by which the whole Parish – Church and all – has strong reason for a revitalised pride. Those many folk who make use of its amenity are likely to linger longer in our midst.

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK is in progress as this Report is compiled and while this season exhorts and bestirs our compassion, it echoes these lines from Timothy Dudley-Smith:

RENEW OUR LOVE, O LORD,
AND TOUCH OUR HEARTS TO FEEL AND CARE
THAT WE WHO SEEM TO HAVE SO MUCH
SO LITTLE SEEM TO SHARE.
FOR THOSE WHO HAVE NO PRAYERS TO SAY,
WHO IN DESPAIR ARE DUMB,
TEACH US TO LIVE AS WELL AS PRAY
"O LORD, YOUR KINGDOM COME!"

HAMBLETON NEWS

On the first Saturday of the month, a team of Bell Ringers from Melbourne, Derbyshire visited St Andrew's Church.

On the 7th May, Bank Holiday Monday, the village hosted its annual Open Gardens. Five beautiful village gardens were very kindly opened by their owners; Stone Cottage, The Retreat, Laurel Cottage, Old School House and Orchard House. A most successful "Home Produce Stall" sold a vast selection of exquisitely wrapped home-made cakes and biscuits which were generously donated by members of the village. There was also an Art Exhibition in St Andrew's Church, a Tombola and Bric-a-Brac and Garden Stalls. The Village Hall received many compliments on the very high standard of catering which had all been donated by members of the village. Even though the rain began at midday, 330 people attended the event and £3,960 was raised for the Church Roof and Village Hall funds.

On Sunday, 13th May, Lucy Coco Cosima Brown daughter of Sam and Robert Brown who live at the Old Hall, Hambleton was baptised by Rev Audrey Atkinson at St Andrew's Church.

On Sunday, 27th May, Amelia Jessica Cade daughter of Carla and Adam Cade was baptised by Rev Audrey Atkinson at St Andrew's Church.

The Church and Roof Repair Appeal was launched at Sunday 27th May 9am Service.
