Dear Friends,

I wrote my first letter for Good News in September 2008 shortly after I had been ordained Deacon. As we have such a large band of willing contributors, my turn comes up probably less than once a year, so it's likely that this will be my last letter to you.

Endings are never easy and when I do finally leave the Oakham Team it will be a huge wrench. It's been such a privilege to serve in this group of parishes and I can honestly say that I've been immensely happy here. To a large degree that's down to all of you and I'm hugely grateful to you for the warmth of the welcome you gave me when I arrived as curate, for your enduring patience and for your continued love & support over the years. I also owe a huge debt of gratitude to Lee for accepting me onto the Team and being such an excellent role model & support. I've also been so fortunate to have been able to work with the other members of our ministry team. We've had our ups & downs but to witness the way in which Lee has handled the difficulties we've faced has been exemplary and something I'll never forget.

Many of you already know that the reason for our move is so that we can be nearer to our family in Sheffield and see more of our grandson who is growing up fast and gives us so much joy. I can hardly believe that by the time you read this he'll have had his first birthday. I'm also greatly looking forward to finding out what God has in store for me when we arrive in our new community. One thing I learnt very quickly when I began my ministry here was that God never asks us to do anything without providing us with the resources to do it so I go to Sheffield confident that he would never let me - or you - down.

Although leaving all of you will be very emotional, it feels completely right and Mike and I know that the time has come for us to move on. There's much for us to look forward to as we begin this new phase of our lives but I'll always treasure the memory of the time that I've spent here. We don't yet know when this move will actually happen - I could well still be here after Easter - but I do want to say a huge thank you to all of you for making my time here so rewarding and fulfilling.

Yours with love and gratitude,

Hildred

LENT 2016 The Psalms Prayers for today's church

An ecumenical course in five sessions written by Bishop Stephen Cottrell, comprising course booklet, CD and transcript; ideal for Lent, yet not Lent-specific.

The ancient poems we call Psalms are over 2000 years old. They were written in very different times from our own when humans could travel at the speed of a camel - not at the speed of sound. But these songs have stood the test of time for they address many of the problems we still face: violence, injustice, anger - and bewilderment. Why do the wicked prosper? Where is God when we suffer? In this 5-session course, Bishop Stephen Cottrell - a prolific and popular author - reflects on the psalms in general (and five psalms in particular). He invites us to join him as he does so.

Five Sessions:

Session 1	Psalm 100	Know that the Lord is God
Session 2	Psalm 130	Out of the depths have I cried
Session 3	Psalm 13	How long, O Lord?
Session 4	Psalm 23	You spread a table before me
Session 5	Psalm 127	Unless the Lord builds the house

The participants on the course CD are:

Dominican Friar Fr Timothy Radcliffe

Revd John Bell of the Iona Community

Revd Prebendary Rose-Hudson Wilkin, Chaplain to the Speaker of the House of Commons

Revd Dr Jane Leach, the Principal of Wesley House

If you are interested in joining a Lent Course group, please sign up on the sheet in your church as soon as possible and take a leaflet about the course. The courses will begin on the week beginning Monday 15 February

Dear All

Phoebe's Story

May I share with you a moment of sheer joy and elation that I experienced yesterday? Invited to my very good friend's big birthday, a very noisy celebration including a Murder Mystery play by my friend's amateur dramatic colleagues, I had been noticing a little girl making herself known to the party between acts. Eventually she came to our table and busied herself trying on my friend's very glam necklace! She then introduced herself to me – "I'm Phoebe. What's your name?" Phoebe is six and lacking her two front teeth (cost her Mum and Dad £5 a tooth! What happened to sixpences?)

On request I showed her my necklace – it's a small cross set in a circle held in a square of gold and something I wear nearly all the time. "My grand girls call it Granny's window" I began and Phoebe countered – "It's a window to Jesus; see His cross in the middle there". I agreed! And went on to explain the circle "Jesus is in the circle, the centre of the world" and the square "the four corners of the universe".

"Yes, I see" she replied and "I believe in Jesus, you know. And I believe in God".

"So who told you about Jesus?" She pondered. So I prompted "Do you go to Sunday school?" "No!" "Do you go to Church?" "I went once with Mummy and Daddy when I was just six, but Mummy and Daddy don't like Church. They don't believe in Jesus, but I do."

"So, do you learn about Jesus at your school?" "Oh NO!! We don't talk about Jesus there! I just know. I'm a Christian, you know!"

"So am I" (my response seemed so feeble so I added) "Know that God is looking after you, and He is looking after your Mummy and Daddy though they maybe don't see that yet". "Yes, I do know that. Bye!" and Phoebe moved on to the next table!

How simple can Faith be? How sure a foundation have we built for ourselves? Through my encounter with Phoebe, I was reminded of the child-like response we are all asked to hold. As I share this moment with you, may we all be strengthened and upheld by our faith as we greet a New Year, in full assurance of God's presence with us, through his Son, Jesus Christ.

Braunston News

We have missed Julie during Christmas and this year and with love and prayers look forward to her presence with us. We also give thanks to those who have led our worship during this time.

Lent Course.

Lent is early this year bringing with it an opportunity to meet together and think about our faith and what it means to us in a structured context over five Monday evening meetings. Details are on the poster in this issue. To join the group please ring Alan and Gail on 755570 or put your name on the list in church. Even if you can't make all of the sessions, coming to one or two of them is a very worthwhile experience.

Supporting Wateraid.

It is always good to focus on the needs of others and for many years we have collected over the Lent period and including Easter Sunday to support Wateraid. It is difficult for us realise problems caused by the lack of clean water but our support through coins collected in the little red bucket, during Lent does make an impact. Why not join in the contribution of coins over the period and enable us to reach a very useful target. Past years have produced £200 your support could help exceed that. Thank you for that support.

David.

Mothering Sunday

Within our families we celebrate with ,or remember with thanks, the role our mothers have played in our lives. What better way to start Sunday March 6th is there than coming as a family to breakfast in the Village Hall? Breakfast is available from 9.30am and everybody is welcome. To make sure all goes well it is important to know how many will want to celebrate together so please ring in. The poster gives you a choice of three numbers. See you there!

Journey to Jesus 2015

Despite the uncertainty of the weather on Christmas Eve – including a shower at 2pm, - we were able to perform Journey to Jesus around parts of the village. The so called ‘warm air from the Azores’ seemed to have cooled somewhat on its way to Braunston so everyone was glad of the ‘seasonal’ refreshments in the Village Hall afterwards. A very big thank you to all who took part, and those who helped to make this year’s Travelling Nativity a very special way to begin our celebration of Christmas, not forgetting of course the large crowd who came to be part of it

BROOKE NEWS

The busy festive season has come and gone and was hopefully enjoyed by all but as there was no December Good News we still have to record that Sunday 8th November 2015 was our Remembrance Sunday Service when we remembered with pride the three young men of Brooke who lost their lives during WWI, Pte Stanley H Burfield, aged 30yrs, killed in action on 13th October 1915 in Alexandria, Drv Herbert Molyneux, aged 32yrs, killed in action on 22nd July 1917 in Belgium and Pte Joseph Royce, aged 23yrs, missing and presumed dead on 27th September 1915 in France.

Later that month at the 8am service on Sunday 22nd November 2015 we were reminded that this last Sunday before Advent, is commonly known as 'Stir-up Sunday'; though it is not about baking, cooking or the stirring of Christmas puddings but has been known by that name from at least before the 19th century and probably a lot longer since it comes from the collect of the day in the Book of Common Prayer published in 1549 beginning 'Stir up we beseech thee, O Lord.' This piece of text must have had an effect on the cooks, servants and wives of the congregation and on hearing these words they were reminded that it was time to get the ingredients of the puddings and mincemeat put together and stirred up so that they had time to mature before Christmas.

Once more, Brooke is indebted to Sheila and Derek Harrington for hosting the annual Brooke Christmas Coffee Morning which took place at their home on Thursday 3rd December 2015. This damp, grey day was brightened by their coffee, melt in the mouth mince pies and roaring log fire, all of which enticed Brooke's parishioners, friends and neighbours to call in, sit and chat together and spend some money. There was a varied selection of goods for sale along with cakes, jams, candles, Brooke Christmas cards and a raffle all returning a good profit for church funds. Thank you to all who helped donated goods and came for coffee.

On an unusually warm day for the time of the year St Peter was being adorned with a Christmas tree and twinkling lights ready for Brooke's annual Candlelight Carol Service the next day on Sunday 20th December. John Beadman and his team of bell ringers called lots of happy carollers to the 6pm service led by Revd Dominic Coad. A full congregation enjoyed singing seven favourite carols with the organ played by Connie Beadman and readings performed by Mary Brooks, Terry Greer, Sue Tyers, Robert Eayres, Georgina Beadman, Richard Langton and Joan Cooper. Afterwards Derek Harrington's delicious mulled wine and mince pies produced by the ladies of Brooke were served to round off the evening's enjoyment. Once again thank you to those who helped prepare or who performed in this lovely traditional service and to all those who attended it.

A good congregation attended our 8am BCP service on Christmas Day morning and were treated to the sight of St Peter bedecked not only with a Christmas tree and twinkling lights but now every window sill resplendent with Christmas greenery and flowers. After the service Christmas greetings were exchanged amongst the congregation before heading home to enjoy the day with family and friends. Reminder, next PCC meeting 23rd February 2016, 6 Tay Close, Oakham at 7.30pm.

NEW YEAR

Then whatever may happen our bliss to alloy,
Let's cheerfully make it but heighten our joy;
The dark cloud of sorrow contentment will clear,
And brighten the dawn of a Happy New Year. (From a Victorian card)

EGLETON NEWS

St. Edmund's Church welcomed a large gathering of residents and parishioners from earlier days, come to compose a rapturous congregation giving voice to the much loved, traditional Service of Lessons and Carols. They were gathered in a church decorated expansively, as delightfully as parishioners' fund of gifts and graces could accomplish! Huge appreciation was forthcoming of this talented worthy achievement!

Canon Julie was impressed, as much as her Egleton flock, as she presided over this unique celebration in the Parish calendar. One and all in a crowded church continued, in proper festival spirit, with a delicious sampling of mince pies and mulled wine – or other festive fare!

Christmas Day's own celebration of our Lord's Nativity attracted another assembly from Egleton's households, happily augmented by extended family folk "home for Christmas" as well as by worshippers drawn from sister parishes of our own Benefice. One and all proved eager to "come and adore Him, Christ the Lord!"

St. Edmund's parish and people extend cordial, seasonal greetings to friends, fellow pilgrims throughout Rutland and, indeed, wherever our Egleton's name and heritage are known and remembered, with pride and gratitude!

Not least, we hope that Canon Julie will soon enjoy a recovery and happy restoration from every disabling effect which has curtailed her ministrations whilst the Old Year gave way to the New; and by way of a fervent resolution for The NEW

"Christ be the source of all our deeds,
the Life our living shares;
the fount which flows from worlds above
to never-failing springs of love;
the ground of all our prayers.

Christ be the vision of our lives,
Of all we think and are;
To shine upon our spirits' sight
As light of everlasting light;
The bright and morning star."

[Bp. Timothy Dudley Smith]

HAMBLETON NEWS

On Saturday, 21st November the Baptism took place of Jasper Frederick and Louie Lancelot the twin sons of Nathan and Chloe Ticehurst. The Service was taken by Rev Canon Julie Hutchinson and was attended by a large congregation including many children.

On Sunday, 6th December the Baptism took place of Ollie Ronald Michael the son of Jon-Paul and Lorraine Dolby. Once again, the Service was taken by Rev Canon Julie Hutchinson and was attended by a large congregation.

Hambleton Hall Hotel decorated St Andrew's Church beautifully in readiness for their Christmas Musical Concert on Tuesday, 1st December. The extremely talented Reverie Choir made a very welcome return to the Church. They are a group of around 14 young singers who have been handpicked from the UK's top choral institutions. The Choir performed a combination of Carols and Christmas music; both ancient and modern.

St Andrew's Carol Service and Christingle on Sunday, 13th December was attended by 58 villagers with their families and friends. Julia Naylor, Susie Gibbeson, Jill Nelson and Joshua and Toby Coulson all did Readings. A Collection for the Children's Society raised £303. Mulled wine and mince pies were served in the Church after the Christingle.

St Andrew's Christmas Eve Service and Holy Communion was taken by Canon Lee Francis-Dehqani at 9pm and was also well attended.

Thank you to all who helped on Wednesday, 6th January to remove the giant Christmas Tree, take down the decorations and clean the Church.

Mrs Louise Everett

LANGHAM NEWS

Christmas seems to be a long time in preparation, but once over it all disappears far too quickly. The crib with the wise men in place remind us it is never really over. Our Christmas Concert was well attended and, much to our delight, was recorded by Rutland Radio and broadcast both on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day. The Laudamus choir sang, the children's brass band played and there were various poems and readings as well. The Crib and Midnight Services also were well attended by parishioners and visitors alike. Our Carol Service took place in a packed Baptist church, followed by a warm and friendly tea.

Sadly Julie, our Vicar, is unwell and was unable to be with us over Christmas. Her husband, also a Team Reader, has fulfilled a number of commitments. We wish her a full and rapid recovery.

There are two new initiatives in Langham. "Tea @ 3", organised by the WI in the Baptist Church, takes place on the third Saturday in each month. At least twenty came to the one in December. We sang songs and carols, followed by a sumptuous tea. It was a very happy occasion and is open to all, particularly those who may be more or less housebound, alone, and those who help look after them.

The second is the "Langham Lunches" which now take place on Tuesdays at 12.30 p.m. at the Wheatsheaf. A simple 2 course lunch for £7.50. The first one proved immediately popular. Mike, the owner, hopes it will continue to be.

The Langham choir, part of the Laudamus choir is already practising for the Ash Wednesday, Holy Week and Easter Services. (Anyone interested in singing with us please ring me on 770234). The Easter Dawn Service is to be at Langham Church.

The long awaited and very much needed storage shed has at long last received DAC approval and will be erected in the very near future.

Easter Flowers at Oakham

This year, we are changing the way we collect donations towards the cost of the Easter flowers, including the customary Lilies.

Contributions may be placed in an envelope marked "Easter Flowers/Lilies" and put in the alms box on the South door. This will enable anyone who wishes to contribute for flowers in memory of a loved one to do so.

For your guidance, the cost of the Lilies is approximately £2.00 each.
