Welcome and Opening Sentence

The heavens declare the glory of God
The skies display the work of his hands

God of light and God of night, creator of seed and mountain, raindrop and fountain,
we bring our offering of praise.
God of right and God of might,
lover of child and childless,
rich and homeless,
we bring our offering of praise.

Do you not know? Have you not heard?
The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth

Isaiah 40:28

By faith
I gaze up to the heavens
and know
within its vastness
that this is your creation planned and effected within eternity.

By faith
I pluck an ear of corn
and know
within its symmetry
lies the chemistry of life
the potential of creation within my hand.

By faith
I listen for your voice
and know
the whisper that I hear breathed a world into existence yet listens to the prayer within my soul.

By faith
I strive to do your will
and know
the door that I approach may lead me to shadows
where my roll is to become your light.

By faith
I cling to your word
and know
the strength that I receive has its source within the love that is at the centre of all things.

Hymn

1. For the fruits of all creation,
 thanks be to God;
for the gifts to every nation,
 thanks be to God;
for the ploughing, sowing, reaping, silent growth while we are sleeping, future needs in earth's safe keeping,
 thanks be to God.

2. In the just reward of labour,
 God's will is done;
in the help we give our neighbour,
 God's will is done;
in our world-wide task of caring for the hungry and despairing, in the harvests we are sharing,
 God's will is done.

3. For the harvests of his Spirit,
 thanks be to God;
for the good we all inherit,
 thanks be to God;
for the wonders that astound us,
for the truths that still confound us,
most of all, that love has found us,
 thanks be to God.

Confession

Let us confess our forgetfulness of the needs of the poor, and repent of the ways in which we waste the resources of the world.

Creator God,
forgive our moments of ingratitude,
the spiritual blindness, that prevents us from appreciating the wonder that is this world;
the endless cycle of nature,
of life and death and rebirth.
Forgive us for taking without giving, reaping without sowing.

Open our eyes to see,
our lips to praise,
our hands to share.
May our feet tread lightly on the path we tread,
and our footsteps be worthy of following,
for they lead to you.
Amen.

Absolution

May the God of love
bring us back to himself,
forgive us our sins,
and assure us of his eternal love
in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Collect

O eternal God,
who crownest the year with thy goodness and dost give us the fruits of the earth in their season:
give us grace that we may use them to thy glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being;
through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Hymn

1. We thank you, Lord, for gifts of your creation, from field and farm, the fruitfulness in season;
the farmers till the fields to bring forth autumn yields from sowing seed in the brown soil in springtime.
2. We thank you, Lord, for all who tend creation, for foresters who plant and fell the woodlands;
for gardeners everywhere,
who work with special care to bring about the fruitfulness and colour.

3. We thank you, Lord, for oceans, lakes and rivers, for fishermen who brave the stormy waters;
 in rough or calm they trawl to bring food for us all;
we pray that they will always come home safely.

4. We thank you, Lord, for on this lovely island the beauty of the mountains, dales and valleys;
 where birds sing happily their daytime melodies
across our peaceful landscape in each season.

*Words: Ruth Burdett
Music: Kevin Slingsby*

First Reading – Deuteronomy 8:7-18

For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. You shall eat your fill and bless the Lord your God for the good land that he has given you. Take care that you do not forget the Lord your God, by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today. When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks have multiplied, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock, and fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you, and in the end to do you good. Do not say to yourself, “My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.” But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.

Sermon

Hymn

Give thanks with a grateful heart.
Give thanks to the Holy One.
Give thanks because he's given
Jesus Christ, his Son.
Give thanks with a grateful heart.
Give thanks to the Holy One.
Give thanks because he's given
Jesus Christ, his Son.

And now let the weak say, 'I am strong',
let the poor say, 'I am rich',
because of what the Lord has done for us.
And now let the weak say, 'I am strong',
let the poor say, 'I am rich',
because of what the Lord has done for us.

Second Reading – 2 Corinthians 9:6-15

The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written, "He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures forever." He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others, while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

Sermon

Creed

Let us declare our faith in God.

I believe in God the Father, who created heaven and earth;
source of wisdom and of power bringing light and life to birth.
I believe in God the Saviour, Son of man and Lord most high;
crucified to be redeemer,
raised to life that death may die.

I believe in God the Spirit, wind of heaven and flame of fire;
pledge of all that we inherit,
sent to comfort and inspire.
Honour, glory, might and merit
be to God, and God alone; Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one in three and three in one.

Music: Ode to joy, Ludwig van Beethoven

Intercessions

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Peace

The harvest of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.
The peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

Hymn

1. We plough the fields, and scatter the good seed on the land, but it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand:
he sends the snow in winter,
the warmth to swell the grain,
the breezes, and the sunshine,
and soft, refreshing rain.

*All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above;
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord,
for all his love.*

2. He only is the maker of all things near and far;
he paints the wayside flower,
he lights the evening star;
the winds and waves obey him,
by him the birds are fed;
much more to us, his children,
he gives our daily bread.

3. We thank thee then, O Father, for all things bright and good,
the seed-time and the harvest,
our life, our health, our food.
Accept the gifts we offer
for all thy love imparts, and, what thou most dearest, our humble, thankful hearts.

Words: Wir pflügen und wir streuen, Matthias Claudius (1740-1815), tr Jane Montgomery Campbell (1817-1878)

Music: Wir Pflügen, melody by Johann Abraham Peter Schütz (1747-1800), harmonised by John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

The Bringing Forward of Symbols of the Harvest

Let us bring forward symbols of the harvest, gifts that God has created and his sun and rain have nurtured.

Thanks be to God.

Bring forward the harvest of the cornfields,
the oats and the wheat,
the rye and the barley.

Thanks be to God.

Bring forward the harvest of roots,
the swedes and mangolds,
turnips and sugar beet.

Thanks be to God.

Bring forward the harvest of seeds for next year's crops, for clover, for hay and for corn.

Thanks be to God.

Bring forward the harvest of vegetables, peas, potatoes, beans and hops.

Thanks be to God.

Bring forward the harvest of pears and apples, berries and herbs.

Thanks be to God.

Bring forward the harvest of flowers,
the finest blooms from our gardens and our fields.

Thanks be to God.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow, praise him, all creatures here below, praise him above, ye heavenly host, praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

Blessing

God the Father,
who created the world,
give you grace to be wise stewards of his creation.
Amen.

God the Son,
who redeemed the world,
inspire you to go out as labourers into his harvest.
Amen.

God the Holy Spirit,
whose breath fills the whole of creation, help you to bear his fruits of love, joy and peace.
Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.
Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.
