Introduction

God of all creation,
you have gathered us together, to fulfil your purposes,
and to advance your Kingdom of love, justice and peace,
in our neighbourhoods and across our land.
We come to worship with obedient hearts,
we let go of those thoughts, wishes, words and actions that can cut us off from a full relationship with God.
We open our hearts and our minds to the Holy Spirit,
to guide us and to renew our love for you.
In the name of Jesus accept our praise.

O Lord, open our lips

And our mouths shall proclaim your praise.

Hymn

397 – Come ye thankful people come

Presentation of Gifts

Let us bring forward our gifts and the symbols of the harvest:
Gifts which God has created and his sun and rain have nurtured:
wheat, fruit and vegetables, flowers and our offerings made from them.

Harvest Thanksgiving Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God,
We offer you our heartfelt thanks, for your fatherly goodness, care and provision, in giving us the fruits of the earth in their seasons.
Give us grace and wisdom to use your gifts rightly, to your glory, for ourselves and for our families, and for helping others in need,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Reading

Praise God for cherished autumn days,
with fields of glowing amber, and of burnished browns.
For harvest-time, when leaves fall whispering gently to the frosty ground.

Give thanks for nature's generosity.
Gifts of honey and of bread, for wheat and corn, and orchards filled with purple plums and apples turning bronze and scarlet red.

Each sunflower now in autumn dress
no longer wears the frills of cheery summer gold,
but scarves of wrinkled taffeta
around their precious heavy laden loads.

The beauty of this palette of delight
dispels the gloom of summer's slow and timely death.
And so, with ever grateful hearts,
we wake up to October's chilly breath.

Elizabeth Mason

Confession

Let us confess our forgetfulness of the needs of the poor, and repent of the ways in which we waste the resources of the world.

God, our Father,
we are sorry for the times
when we have used your gifts carelessly and acted ungratefully.
We enjoy the fruits of the harvest,
but sometimes forget that you have given them to us.
We belong to a people who are full and satisfied,
but frequently ignore the cry of the hungry.
We are too often thoughtless and do not care enough for the world you have made.
Please forgive us for taking your blessings for granted.
Help us to be generous and loving to all who need our help.
Amen.

May the Father of all mercies
cleans us from our sins
and restore us in his image
to the praise and glory of his Name,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Bible Reading and Address

Mark 4.30-32

Hymn

401 – We plough the fields and scatter

Reading

Autumn mists creep across the fields
To labouring hands giving up their yields
Of maize and corn, potatoes, wheat
And all other crops good to eat
The fruit that decked the leafy bough
Are gathered in the harvest now

Of bounty now of land and sea
We come O Lord to give thanks to thee
You promised a time for sowing seed
A time of harvest to supply our need
To nourish the body you let us know
We would reap what we did sow

Give we thanks Lord, to you our praise
For the bountiful harvest that you did raise
For we know Lord in faith we planted
But for this yield it was you who granted
So mighty God all that's left to do
Is to give you the glory with a Harvest thank you

Colin Moffett

The Creed

We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named.

We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love.

We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us, with power from on high.

We believe in one God:
Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Hymn

1. O God, when your land was crushed and destroyed, you promised a time when there would be joy —
when none would be thirsty and all would have bread and life would be bursting from land once thought dead.
2. O Lord, we cry out: Bring life to your lands;
then mountains will shout and trees clap their hands.
Instead of the thorn and the dry land will be great hillsides of trees from the heights to the sea.
3. We pray for your earth, for seedlings that grow, for trees that bear fruit, their roots deep below.
We pray for the farmers, for sunshine and rain —
that lands once called barren may blossom again.
4. Lord, give us the faith to keep serving you — to plant and restore, to heal and renew.
For faith, like a mustard seed, bears a surprise:
so tiny indeed, it soon reaches the skies.

Prayers

Let us pray to God,
the Lord of the harvest,
that he will bring to fruition
all that he desires for his creation:

Lord of creation, the fields have ripened and been harvested, we pray for your Church to be equipped and ready to share the good news of your Kingdom throughout the world

Lord of the harvest
in your mercy hear us.

You have created the universe by your eternal Word, and have blessed humankind by giving us dominion over the earth;
we pray for the world, that its resources may be valued and shared and that we may live in reverence for creation and live in harmony with one another.

Lord of the harvest
in your mercy hear us.

Your Son has promised us that the Holy Spirit will lead us into all truth;
we pray for the community in which you have set us,
for one another and for ourselves,
that we may show the fruit of the Spirit
by the way we lead our lives in love, joy and peace.

Lord of the harvest

in your mercy hear us.

You have given your people a rich land,
we pray for those who have no share in its wealth and prosperity,
who live in constant need, fear or who suffer in anyway,
especially the victims of war and persecution, that they too will receive their share of the world's resources and be able live in peace.

In a moment of silence let us bring before God
those we know who need our prayers.

Lord of the harvest

in your mercy hear us.

We remember those who have died,
whom we entrust to your eternal love
in the hope of resurrection to new life.

Lord of the harvest

in your mercy hear us.

We offer ourselves to your service,
asking that by the Spirit at work in us others may receive a rich harvest of love and joy and peace.

Lord of the harvest

in your mercy hear us.

God of grace, as you are ever at work in your creation,
so fulfil your wise and loving purpose in us
and in all for whom we have prayed,
that with them and in all that you have made,
your glory may be revealed
and the whole earth give praise to you,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Gathering our prayers and praises into one,
as our Saviour taught us,
so we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Hymn

264 – You shall go out with joy

Prayer and Blessing

May God our creator,
who clothes the lilies and feeds the birds of the air,
bestow on us his care.

God the Father, who created the world,
give us grace to be wise stewards of his creation.

Amen.

God the Son, who redeemed the world,
inspire us to go out as labourers into his harvest.

Amen.

God the Holy Spirit, whose breath fills the whole of creation, help us to bear his fruits of love, joy and peace.

Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.

So on 3rd October Ray Hill of Burley will bring his new half hour film of three Burley ladies (who you may well know) telling of their memories of WWI. I will also put on a slideshow some photos I have of Friends outings. Come along, be entertained, meet friends and donate to the Air Ambulance. Beryl Kirtland – 01572 724103.

Changes in the Team

Revd Audrey Atkinson

We are pleased to announce that Revd Audrey Atkinson has had her appointment as Chaplain at Full Sutton Prison confirmed and she will be leaving the Team. We congratulate her on this appointment and wish her well. Her last Sunday will be 19 October and there will be leaving service at 4pm at Langham Parish Church.

Mrs Robin Robson

We are pleased that the Bishop has licensed Robin Robson as a Reader in the Team. Robin has been a Reader for 18 years, the last 12 of which she served in the Lyddington Benefice. It will be good to have Robin's experience to call upon, especially her considerable gifts in Children's Work

Thank You

Rachel Lott and family would like to thank all the ladies who baked such delicious cakes, and everyone who made Roger's Celebration so beautiful and uplifting. Thank you for all your letters and cards, and words of comfort and love. God bless you.

Bats in Braunston

Bats have been a problem in Braunston Church for the last 20 or 30 years, but the problem was increased seven-fold when a large colony from a nearby chimney which collapsed last year decided to move into the church. Sue Willetts wrote to our MP, Sir Alan Duncan, who visited the church last week, and has promised to take up the cause. The issue was reported in the Leicester Mercury this week – to see the article online go to bit.ly/braunstonbats.

Langham Posada Crib Sets

The list is being prepared in early October this year, ready for the Posadas to start their journeys on Advent Sunday, November 30th. As usual, if you've had a Posada before, you will be on the 2014 list. Please contact Susan Holford on 01572 723532 or susan.j.holford@gmail.com if you wish to have the Posada for the first time. Many families see having the Nativity Crib set overnight as part of their Christmas routine. As there has been so much in the news about vulnerable children, this is a way of giving support to the Toybox charity which helps homeless and vulnerable children in South America. There will be envelopes for donations in the bags that contain the cribs, and these envelopes can be brought to church on Christmas Eve.

Sheep knitters needed

Every year the Oakham travelling nativity sets leave a sheep behind in each house, and we urgently need more knitters to replenish the supply ready for Advent this year – please contact Viv Ufton for a pattern if you can help on 01572 720237.

For Rutland – In Rutland

'For Rutland-In Rutland' (FRiR) is an organisation raising funds in the community to provide advice on Cancer, Dementia and other long term illnesses. FRiR was launched at the Rutland County Show in June, as the President's Charity for 2014 and is the chosen charity for this year's Mayor of Oakham, Cllr. Jayne Woodcock.

The first priority is to raise money for the Rutland Wellbeing Partnership based at the Citizens' Advice Bureau in Oakham High Street. It offers an advice and information service to meet the needs of those in our community who suffer, or are caring for those suffering from Cancer, Dementia and other long term illnesses.

The service offers tailored, individual help and support with financial, welfare, transport and hospital car parking charges. For Rutland-In Rutland will fund the Rutland Wellbeing Partnership from October this year, until then, the Karen Ball Fund will provide the necessary resources.

More details will be available soon on the website – www.forrutlandinrutland.org.uk.

Pianist needed

A pianist is needed for Pram & Toddler Services on alternate Monday afternoons from 2-3pm during term time. Please contact Jenni Duffy on jenni@oakhamteam.org.uk or 01572 720064 if you can help.

Rutland Foodbank for Harvest

Offerings of produce at next week's Harvest Festival at Oakham will be donated to the Rutland Foodbank, and we would ask that you consider donating something from this list of items: long-life fruit juice, UHT milk, small packets of granulated sugar, tinned veg, tinned meat pies, toiletries (toilet paper, shampoo, toothpaste, soap etc).
