8:00am Holy Communion*

10:30am Family Communion

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. All that I am, all that I do,
all that I'll ever have I offer now to you.
Take and sanctify these gifts for your honour, Lord.
Knowing that I love and serve you is enough reward.
All that I am, all that I do,
all that I'll ever have I offer now to you.

2. All that I dream, all that I pray,
All that I'll ever make I give to you today.
Take and sanctify these gifts for your honour, Lord.
Knowing that I love and serve you is enough reward.
All that I am, all that I do,
all that I'll ever have I offer now to you.

Words: Sebastian Temple (1928-1997)

Music: All that I am, Sebastian Temple, arr John Ballantine

© 1967 OCP Publications

(Hymns of Glory, Songs of Praise – 505)

Collect

Heavenly Father,
whose blessed Son was revealed to destroy the works of the devil
and to make us the children of God and heirs of eternal life:
grant that we, having this hope,
may purify ourselves even as he is pure;
that when he shall appear in power and great glory
we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom;
where he is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Zephaniah 1.7,12-18*

Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is at hand; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests. At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the people who rest complacently on their dregs, those who say in their hearts, 'The LORD will not do good, nor will he do harm.' Their wealth shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses, they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them. The great day of the LORD is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter, the warrior cries aloud there. That day will be a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements. I will bring such distress upon people that they shall walk like the blind; because they have sinned against the LORD, their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them on the day of the LORD's wrath; in the fire of his passion the whole earth shall be consumed; for a full, a terrible end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth.

Second Reading – 1 Thessalonians 5.1-11

Concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, 'There is peace and security,' then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labour pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

Gradual Hymn***

|--|---|
| 1. Lord, make us servants of your peace:where there is hate, may we sow love;where there is hurt, may we forgive;where there is strife, may we make one. | 3. Jesus, our Lord, may we not seekto be consoled, but to console,nor look to understanding hearts,but look for hearts to understand. |
| 2. Where all is doubt, may we sow faith;where all is gloom, may we sow hope;where all is night, may we sow light;where all is tears, may we sow joy.     | 4. May we not look for love's return,but seek to love unselfishly,for in our giving we receive,and in forgiving are forgiven.         |

5. Dying we live, and are reborn through death's dark night to endless day;
Lord, make us servants of your peace
to wake at last in heaven's light.

Gospel – Matthew 25.14-30

Jesus said to his disciples, ‘The kingdom of heaven is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, “Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.” His master said to him, “Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.” And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, “Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.” His master said to him, “Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.” Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, “Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.” But his master replied, “You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

Offertory Hymn*

1. O God, we yearn for safety; we long to be secure.
Yet faithful, loving service is what you value more.
You give us what is needed; you love, forgive and save.
Then, sending us to serve you, you call us to be brave.
2. You give to some ten talents—to others, two or three;
to some you give one blessing to manage faithfully.
For you, O Lord, are loving and don't demand success;
you daily call your people to lives of faithfulness.
3. You give your church the gospel-- good news for us to share.
You give us great compassion for neighbours everywhere.
You give us skills to serve you and loving work to do.
We're blest to be a blessing, and called to risk for you.
4. O God, it seems much safer to live from day to day, protecting what you lend us and hiding it away.
Yet all these gifts can't flourish when hidden in the ground;
when we are brave to share them your blessings will abound.

Communion Hymns*

1. I will offer up my life in spirit and truth, pouring out the oil of love as my worship to you.
In surrender I must give my every part;
Lord, receive the sacrifice of a broken heart.

*Jesus, what can I give, what can I bring to so faithful a friend, to so loving a King?
Saviour, what can be said, what can be sung
as a praise of your name for the things you have done?
O my words could not tell, not even in part,
of the debt of love that is owed by this thankful heart.*
2. You deserve my every breath for you've paid the great cost;
giving up your life to death, even death on a cross.
You took all my shame away, there defeated my sin, opened up the gates of heav'n, and have beckoned me in.

Words & Music: Matt Redman

(The Source – 265)

1. In a world where people walk in darkness,
let us turn our faces to the light,
to the light of God revealed in Jesus,
to the daystar scattering our night.

*For the light is stronger than the darkness
and the day will overcome the night,
though the shadows linger all around us,
let us turn our faces to the light.*

2. In a world where suffering of the helpless casts a shadow all along the way,
let us bear the cross of Christ with gladness
and proclaim the dawning of the day.

3. Let us light a candle in the darkness,
in the face of death a sign of life;
as a sign of hope where all seemed hopeless,
as a sign of peace in place of strife.

Post Communion Prayer

Gracious Lord,
in this holy sacrament
you give substance to our hope:
bring us at the last
to that fullness of life for which we long;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. In Christ alone my hope is found,
he is my light, my strength, my song;
this Cornerstone, this solid Ground,
firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
when fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
My Comforter, my All in All,
here in the love of Christ I stand.

2. In Christ alone! – who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe!
This gift of love and righteousness,
scorned by the ones he came to save:
till on the cross as Jesus died,
the love of God was glorified;
for every sin on him was laid:
here in the death of Christ I live.

3. There in the ground his body lay,
light of the world by darkness slain:
Then bursting forth in glorious day
up from the grave he rose again!
And as he stands in victory
sin's curse has lost its grip on me,
for I am his and he is mine –
bought with the precious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death,
this is the power of Christ in me;
from life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man,
can ever pluck me from his hand;
till he returns or calls me home,
here in the power of Christ I'll stand.

Revd Dr Dominic Coad on 01572 770024

Foodbank Christmas Hampers

Sponsor a Hamper for £15. Rutland Foodbank will be giving Christmas Hampers to those who will struggle to buy the extra food items that make Christmas a treat. For this project we are asking for donations of cash, rather than food. £15 will sponsor one hamper. If you can help, please give your donation to Revd Dominic Coad – please make cheques payable to Rutland Foodbank.

General Synod

The General Synod of the Church of England meets in London on Monday and Tuesday this week, and the Archbishops of Canterbury and York would like to encourage people throughout the dioceses and parishes to pray for its work and life – see the prayer card on page 15.

Charity Stall for MSF

The Charity Stall on the 25th October raised £287. The sale of remaining cakes, chutneys and pickles from the Butter Cross Stall was sold at the RC church last Sunday which raised £18 and total was £305 with still a little more money to come. Thank you very much to those who helped in person and to those who brought and bought. MSF have acknowledged our donation, and more details will be included when space permits. The money includes a personal donation of a £100 cheque.

All Saints Tide Lunch

The Harbour Bar and Restaurant filled to capacity did us proud again. Thank you for your generosity in raising £185 (gift aided) at the Coffee morning and a further £57.80 on the day in donations to Derbyshire, Leicestershire and Rutland Air Ambulance. Beryl Kirtland.

Oasis

Oasis, the Friday coffee morning, has sent a donation of £105 to School in a Bag, to purchase 7 school bags fully equipped with educational needs, water bottle and multipurpose food box with Spork. These bags are sent worldwide to children with nothing.

Whissendine Fishes Club

The Fishes Group for children of all ages meets on Sunday mornings at Whissendine during the I I am service (except Family Services). We had a successful start on 19 October, so please let any families know who might be interested.

Fairtrade for Christmas

I now have copies of the new catalogue with all the usual lovely selection of cards, gifts and foods on offer. I will be taking orders up to the end of November. If you would like to place an order please either speak to me after a Sunday morning service at Oakham or ring me on 722729. In previous years you have been very generous supporting the work of Traidcraft at this time of year - please help to make this year a good one too! Thank you. Denise.

General Synod Prayer Card

Almighty God,
you have given your Holy Spirit to the Church
to lead us into all truth;
bless with the Spirit's grace and presence
the members of the General Synod;
keep them steadfast in faith and united in love,
that they may manifest your glory
and prepare the way of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.
