8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. Christ is the King! O friends rejoice; brothers and sisters, with one voice tell all the world he is your choice.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

2. O magnify the Lord, and raise anthems of joy and holy praise for Christ's brave saints of ancient days.

3. They with a faith for ever new followed the King, and round him drew thousands of faithful hearts and true.

4. O Christian women, Christian men, all the world over, seek again
the Way disciples followed then.

5. Christ through all ages is the same:
place the same hope in his great name,
with the same faith his word proclaim.

6. Let love's unconquerable might your scattered companies unite in service to the Lord of light.

7. So shall God's will on earth be done, new lamps be lit, new tasks begun,
and the whole church at last be one.

Words: George Kennedy Allen Bell (1883-1958)

Music: Vulpius (Gelobt Sei Gott), Melodt from Melchior Vulpius's Gesangbuch, 1609 (Ancient & Modern – 486)

Collect

Eternal Father,
whose Son Jesus Christ ascended to the throne of heaven that he might rule over all things as Lord and King:
keep the Church in the unity of the Spirit and in the bond of peace, and bring the whole created order to worship at his feet;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Ezekiel 34.11-16,20-24

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD. I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice. Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. Because you pushed with flank and shoulder, and butted at all the weak animals with your horns until you scattered them far and wide, I will save my flock, and they shall no longer be ravaged; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken.

Second Reading – Ephesians 1.15-23*

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Gradual Hymn*

1. 'The kingdom is upon you!'
the voice of Jesus cries, fulfilling with its message
the wisdom of the wise;
it lightens with fresh insight
the striving human mind, creating new dimensions of faith for all to find.

2. 'God's kingdom is upon you!'
the message sounds today,
it summons every pilgrim
to take the questing way,
with eyes intent on Jesus,
our leader and our friend,
who trod faith's road before us,
and trod it to the end.

3. The kingdom is upon us!
Stirred by the Spirit's breath,
we glory in its freedom
from emptiness and death;
we celebrate its purpose,
its mission and its goal,
alive with the conviction that Christ can make us whole.

Gospel – Matthew 25.31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will put the sheep at his right hand and the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, "Come, you that are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothing, I was sick and you took care of me, I was in prison and you visited me." Then the righteous will answer him, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry and gave you food, or thirsty and gave you something to drink? And when was it that we saw you a stranger and welcomed you, or naked and gave you clothing? And when was it that we saw you sick or in prison and visited you?" And the king will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me." Then he will say to those at his left hand, "You that are accursed, depart from me into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not give me clothing, sick and in prison and you did not visit me." Then they also will answer, "Lord, when was it that we saw you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not take care of you?" Then he will answer them, "Truly I tell you, just as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me." And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life.'

Offertory Hymn*

1. At the name of Jesus every knee shall bow,
every tongue confess him
King of glory now:
'tis the Father's pleasure
we should call him Lord, who from the beginning
was the mighty Word.

2. At his voice creation sprang at once to sight,
all the angel faces,
all the hosts of light,
thrones and dominations,
stars upon their way,
all the heavenly orders,
in their great array.

3. Humbled for a season, to receive a name
from the lips of sinners unto whom he came,
faithfully he bore it
spotless to the last,
brought it back victorious,
when from death he passed:

7. Surely, this Lord Jesus shall return again,
with his Father's glory,
with his angel train;
for all wreaths of empire
meet upon his brow,
and our hearts confess him
King of glory now.

4. Bore it up triumphant with its human light,
through all ranks of creatures,
to the central height,
to the throne of Godhead,
to the Father's breast;
filled it with the glory,
of that perfect rest.

5. Name him, Christians, name Him, with love strong as death,
but with awe and wonder
and with bated breath:
he is God the Saviour,
he is Christ the Lord,
ever to be worshipped,
trusted and adored.

6. In your hearts enthrone him;
there let him subdue
all that is not holy,
all that is not true:
crown Him as your Captain
in temptation's hour;
let his will enfold you
in its light and power.

*Words: Caroline Maria Noel (1817-1877)
Music: Camberwell, John Michael Brierley (b 1932)
(Ancient & Modern – 593)*

Communion Anthem*

Christ is our Cornerstone, on him alone we build.
The stone which the builders rejected has become the Cornerstone. Alleluia!

Words: 7th or 8th century Latin, ta John Chandler (1806-1876)
Music: David Thorne (b 1950)

Communion Hymn*

1. The King of love my shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never;
I nothing lack if I am his
and he is mine for ever.
2. Where streams of living water flow my ransomed soul he leadeth, and where the verdant pastures grow with food celestial feedeth.
3. Perverse and foolish oft I strayed, but yet in love he sought me,
and on his shoulder gently laid,
and home rejoicing brought me.
4. In death's dark vale I fear no ill with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
thy rod and staff my comfort still,
thy cross before to guide me.
5. Thou spread'st a table in my sight;
thy unction grace bestoweth;
and O what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth!
6. And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never:
good Shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house for ever.

Words: based on Psalm 23, Henry William Baker (1821-1877)
Music: Dominus Regit Me, John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876) (Ancient & Modern – 794)

Post Communion Prayer

Stir up, O Lord,
the wills of your faithful people;
that they, plenteously bringing forth the fruit of good works,
may by you be plenteously rewarded;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. The head that once was crowned with thorns is crowned with glory now:
a royal diadem adorns
the mighty Victor's brow.
2. The highest place that heaven affords is his, is his by right,
the King of kings, and Lord of lords,
and heaven's eternal Light;
3. The joy all of all who dwell above, the joy of all below,
to whom he manifests his love,
and grants his name to know.
4. To them the cross, with all its shame, with all its grace, is given;
their name, an everlasting name,
their joy, the joy of heaven.

5. They suffer with their Lord below, they reign with him above;
their profit and their joy to know the mystery of his love.

6. The cross he bore is life and health, though shame and death to him;
his people's hope, his people's wealth,
their everlasting theme.

Words: Thomas Kelly (1768-1855)
Music: St Magnus, melody by Jeremiah Clarke (c1673-1707) in Playford's The Divine Companion 1709, harmonised by William Henry Monk (1823-1889)
(Ancient & Modern – 232)

Oakham Stewardship Renewal Report – November 2014

Firstly can I say thank you, on your behalf, to John King, Peter Hill and Gordon Woods for all their hard working during this campaign. And then, thank you to all the congregation for the way you have responded. Over 60% of people who have responded so far have increased their giving. (Two thirds of those approached have responded. If you haven't let us have your response - please do!)

The result is that planned giving will have improved our annual income, after allowing for the tax refund, by £16,000 a year. That's an increase of 15%, very much in line with the last 2 campaigns. The good news is – that should just about enable us to break even in 2015, despite rising costs. (On the bread line, but maybe the “give us this day our daily bread” line is no bad place to be.) The not so good news is that in 2016 and 2017, with costs continuing to rise, life will be more difficult. Neither does the campaign result give us any scope to put money aside for repairs and improvements - and with the boiler failing again I don't need to tell you that some repairs are becoming urgent. So thank you, and keep on thinking about the stewardship of all your resources.

David Pattinson.

Give As You Live

We would like to share with you a new way you can support the church - at no extra cost to you. It's called Give as you Live, and all you have to do is shop online with your favourite stores, just like you already do. Give as you Live brings together thousands of retailers that have signed up to donate to our church a percentage of every online purchase you make. Just by shopping online with stores including John Lewis, Amazon and Expedia, you could raise money for your local church, without adding to the cost of the shopping.

It is easy to sign up – go to <http://www.giveasyoulive.com/join/allsaintsoakham> and support us every time you fill your basket (donations will be credited to your own church). If you have any problems, please speak to Beryl Kirtland or Kevin Slingsby.

Prayers and Readings

Further copies are available by the south door at All Saints Oakham.

Foodbank Christmas Hampers

Sponsor a Hamper for £15. Rutland Foodbank will be giving Christmas Hampers to those who will struggle to buy the extra food items that make Christmas a treat. For this project we are asking for donations of cash, rather than food. £15 will sponsor one hamper. If you can help, please give your donation to Revd Dominic Coad – please make cheques payable to Rutland Foodbank.

Fairtrade for Christmas

I now have copies of the new catalogue with all the usual lovely selection of cards, gifts and foods on offer. I will be taking orders up to the end of November. If you would like to place an order please either speak to me after a Sunday morning service at Oakham or ring me on 722729. In previous years you have been very generous supporting the work of Traidcraft at this time of year - please help to make this year a good one too! Thank you. Denise.

Dear Lee and all at All Saints Oakham

I am writing to thank you for your Church's gifts to Foodbank following the Harvest Festival in 2014. There were generous gifts of money towards Rutland Foodbank and of food for the ongoing work.

You may be aware Rutland Foodbank has been operating for just over a year (it opened on 23rd September 2013). We open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays in Oakham and on Fridays in Uppingham. Since opening, food parcels have been distributed to over 750 people, of which 210 have been children. We have collected over 15 tonnes of food. Over 70 volunteers are involved in running the Foodbank – from people collecting food from supermarkets, sorting food at our warehouse, staffing the distribution centres in Oakham and Uppingham and running the charity as trustees.

It's easy to think everyone who lives in Rutland has enough to eat, but it is amazing to think that 750 people, living near us, may otherwise have gone hungry without the food we have provided.

Your gifts will help to support our ongoing work in the forthcoming year and are greatly appreciated. Please pass on our grateful thanks to your church members.

With our best wishes

Helen Baggott
 On behalf of Rutland Foodbank trustees.
