8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. As with gladness men of old did the guiding star behold,
as with joy they hailed its light,
leading onward, beaming bright;
so, most gracious Lord, may we evermore be led to thee.

2. As with joyful steps they sped,
Saviour, to thy lowly bed,
there to bend the knee before thee whom heaven and earth adore;
so may we with willing feet
ever seek thy mercy-seat.

3. As they offered gifts most rare at thy cradle rude and bare,
so may we with holy joy,
pure and free from sin's alloy,
all our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee our heavenly King.

4. Holy Jesus, every day
keep us in the narrow way,
and, when earthly things are past,
bring our ransomed souls at last
where they need no star to guide,
where no clouds thy glory hide.

5. In the heavenly country bright need they no created light;
thou its light, its joy, its crown,
thou its sun which goes not down;
there for ever may we sing
alleluias to our King.

Words: William Chatterton Dix (1837-1898)

*Music: From a chorale by C Kocher (1786-1872) abridged by William Henry Monk (1823-1889)

Collect

O God,
who by the leading of a star
manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth:
mercifully grant that we,
who know you now by faith,
may at last behold your glory face to face;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Isaiah 60.1-6

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Second Reading – Ephesians 3.1-12*

I, Paul, am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles – for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given me for you, and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that is, the Gentiles have become fellow-heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given me by the working of his power. Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Gradual Hymn*

1. We three kings of Orient are, bearing gifts we traverse afar
field and fountain, moor and mountain,
following yonder star:

*O star of wonder, star of night,
star with royal beauty bright,
westward leading, still proceeding,
guide us to thy perfect light.*

2. Born a king on Bethlehem plain,
gold I bring to crown him again,
king for ever, ceasing never
over us all to reign:

3. Frankincense to offer have I, incense owns a deity nigh;
prayer and praising, all men raising,
worship him, God most high:

4. Myrrh is mine, its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom;
sorrowing, sighing, bleeding, dying,
sealed in the stone-cold tomb:

5. Glorious now behold him arise,
king and God and sacrifice.
Heaven sings: 'Alleluia';
'Alleluia,' the earth replies:

Gospel – Matthew 2.1-12

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.' When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: "And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, 'Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.' When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Offertory Hymn*

1. In our darkness light has shone,
Alleluia,
still today the light shines on,
Alleluia;
Word made flesh in human birth,
Alleluia,
Light and Life of all the earth,
Alleluia!

2. Christ the Son incarnate see,
Alleluia,
by whom all things came to be,
Alleluia;
through the world his splendours shine,
Alleluia,
full of grace and truth divine,
Alleluia!

3. All who now in him believe,
Alleluia,
everlasting life receive,
Alleluia;
born of God and in his care,
Alleluia,
we his name and nature share,
Alleluia!

4. Christ a child on earth appears,
Alleluia,
crown of all creation's years,
Alleluia;
God's eternal Word has come,
Alleluia,
he shall lead his people home,
Alleluia!

Words: based on John 1.1-14, Timothy Dudley-Smith (b 1926)

Music: Redland, Malcolm Archer (b 1952) (A&M 359) (Ancient & Modern – 101)

Communion Hymn*

1. Like a candle flame, flickering small in our darkness,
uncreated light
shines through infant eyes.

*God is with us, alleluia,
come to save us, alleluia.*

2. Stars and angels sing,
yet the earth sleeps in shadows;
can this tiny spark
set a world on fire?

3. Yet his light shall shine from our lives, Spirit blazing,
as we touch the flame
of his holy fire.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God,
the bright splendour whom the nations seek:
may we who with the wise men have been drawn by your light discern the glory of your presence in your Son,
the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness;
bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
with gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness,
kneel and adore him: the Lord is his name.
2. Low at his feet lay thy burden of carefulness:
high on his heart he will bear it for thee,
comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayerfulness,
guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.
3. Fear not to enter his courts in the slenderness of the poor wealth thou wouldst reckon as thine:
truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
these are the offerings to lay on his shrine.
4. These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness, he will accept for the name that is dear;
mornings of joy give for evenings of tearfulness,
trust for our trembling and hope for our fear.
5. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness;
bow down before him, his glory proclaim;
with gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness,
kneel and adore him: the Lord is his Name.

Words: John Samuel Bewley Monsell (1811-1875)

Music: Was Lebet, Melody from Rheinhardt MS 1754 (Ancient & Modern - 103)

6:00pm Evensong

Appointment of Team Vicar

We are delighted to announce that, following interview and with the agreement of representatives of the Oakham Team Ministry (South) Parishes, Bishop Donald and Canon Lee Francis-Dehqani have invited the Reverend Canon Julie Hutchinson, currently Chaplain to Bishop Donald, to become a Team Vicar within the Oakham Team Ministry, with responsibility for the Team Ministry parishes of Braunston, Brooke, Eggleton, Hambleton and Langham.

Julie has accepted this post and, subject to the normal Church of England legal and administrative procedures, she will be licensed by Bishop Donald to her new role on Tuesday 1 September at 7.30 pm.

Bishop Donald, Archdeacon Gordon and the Team Rector are very grateful to all who helped with the preparation of the team profile, all the arrangements for the interview day and for the continuing and encouraging ministry of these parishes in the service of Christ during this time. We ask for your prayers for Julie and Phillip, her husband, as they prepare for their return to Rutland, where they have lived and served before.

The Rt Revd Donald Allister, Bishop of Peterborough

New This Year

What will 2015 hold?

A General Election in May: possibly the hardest to predict for a very long time. Wars and rumours of wars. Lovely heartwarming stories. Dreadful heartrending tragedies.

New Year resolutions? Not usually my thing, but can be good if they work for you.

But a fresh start is always possible with Jesus, and that's no bad thing.

New Year hopes? It's wonderful to have a glass half-full (or more), but they can let you down.

Is there really anything new under the sun? What can we rely on that is really new?

The only answer is God's love. "New every morning," says the prophet. "Look, I am making everything new" says the risen Christ.

And that really means that we can experience him new, afresh, every single day, whatever the circumstances.

Not just at the New Year, or on a birthday or anniversary. Every day.

God's new-every-morning love is his chesed (Hebrew word, two syllables, che-sed).

Steadfast love, accepting love, forgiving love, covenant love, promised love.

It is new every morning because our need of it is new every morning, and because he continues to remake, renew, all things.

Enjoy him this year. Every day. His reliability, his acceptance, his forgiveness, his commitment, his promise.

Wherever you are, whatever your situation, whatever is going on inside or outside.

Enjoy his love.

Greetings in Christ,

+ Donald
