8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. In the cross of Christ I glory,
towering o'er the wrecks of time:
all the light of sacred story
gathers round its head sublime.
2. When the woes of life o'ertake me, hopes deceive, and fears annoy,
never shall the cross forsake me;
lo! it glows with peace and joy.
3. When the sun of bliss is beaming light and love upon my way, from the cross the radiance streaming adds more lustre to the day.
4. Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure, by the cross are sanctified;
peace is there that knows no measure,
joys that through all time abide.
5. In the cross of Christ I glory,
towering o'er the wrecks of time:
all the light of sacred story
gathers round its head sublime.

Words: John Bowring (1792-1872)

Collect

Almighty God,
you show to those who are in error the light of your truth,
that they may return to the way of righteousness:
grant to all those who are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may reject those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same;
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Genesis 17.1-7,15-16

When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said to him, 'I am God Almighty; walk before me, and be blameless. And I will make my covenant between me and you, and will make you exceedingly numerous.' Then Abram fell on his face; and God said to him, 'As for me, this is my covenant with you: You shall be the ancestor of a multitude of nations. No longer shall your name be Abram, but your name shall be Abraham; for I have made you the ancestor of a multitude of nations. I will make you exceedingly fruitful; and I will make nations of you, and kings shall come from you. I will establish my covenant between me and you, and your offspring after you throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring after you. God said to Abraham, 'As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name. I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. I will bless her, and she shall give rise to nations; kings of peoples shall come from her.'

Second Reading – Romans 4.13-25*

The promise that Abraham would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation. For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, 'I have made you the father of many nations'). Abraham believed in the presence of the God who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become 'the father of many nations,' according to what was said, 'So numerous shall your descendants be.' He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore his faith 'was reckoned to him as righteousness.' Now the words, 'it was reckoned to him,' were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in God who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

Gradual Hymn*

|---|--|
| 1. Take up thy cross, the Saviour said, if thou wouldst my disciple be;
deny thyself, the world forsake,
and humbly follow after me. | 3. Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame, nor let thy foolish pride rebel:
the Lord for thee the Cross endured,
to save thy soul from death and hell. |
| 2. Take up thy cross: let not its weight fill thy weak spirit with alarm;
his strength shall bear thy spirit up,
and brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm. | 4. Take up thy cross then in his strength, and calmly every danger brave;
'twill guide thee to a better home,
and lead to victory o'er the grave. |

5. Take up thy cross, and follow Christ, nor think till death to lay it down;
for only he who bears the cross
may hope to wear the glorious crown.
6. To thee, great Lord, the One in Three,
all praise for evermore ascend;
O grant us in our home to see the heavenly life that knows no end.

Gospel – Mark 8.31-38

Jesus began to teach his disciples that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, 'Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.' He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.'

Offertory Hymn*

1. Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown? Will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?
4. Will you love the "you" you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

5. Lord your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In Your company I'll go where Your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Communion Anthem

Day by day, dear Lord, of thee three things I pray:
to see thee more clearly, love thee more dearly,
follow thee more nearly, day by day.

Words: Richard of Chichester (1197-1253) Music: Martin How (b 1931)

Communion Hymns*

1. Jesu, grant me this, I pray, ever in thy heart to stay;
let me evermore abide hidden in thy wounded side.

2. If the world or Satan lay, tempting snares about my way,
I am safe when I abide
in thy heart and wounded side.

3. If the flesh, more dangerous still,
tempt my soul to deeds of ill,
naught I fear when I abide
in thy heart and wounded side.

4. Death will come one day to me;
Jesu, cast me not from thee:
dying let me still abide
in thy heart and wounded side.

*Words: based on Dignare me, O Jesu, rogo te, Latin 17th century, Henry Williams Baker (1821-1877)

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God,
you see that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves:
keep us both outwardly in our bodies,
and inwardly in our souls;
that we may be defended from all adversities
which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Light of the minds that know him, may Christ be light to mine!
 my sun in risen splendour,
 my light of truth divine;
 my guide in doubt and darkness,
 my true and living way,
 my clear light ever shining,
 my dawn of heaven's day.

2. Life of the souls that love him,
 may Christ be ours indeed!
 the living bread from heaven
 on whom our spirits feed;
 who died for love of sinners
 to bear our guilty load,
 and make of life's brief journey
 a new Emmaus road.

3. Strength of the wills that serve him,
 may Christ be strength to me,
 who stilled the storm and tempest,
 who calmed the tossing sea;
 his Spirit's power to move me,
 his will to master mine,
 his cross to carry daily
 and conquer in his sign.

4. May it be ours to know him that we may truly love,
 and loving, fully serve him
 as serve the saints above;
 till in that home of glory
 with fadeless splendour bright, we serve in perfect freedom
 our strength, our life, our light.

After one hundred years, the name of Gladys Walter, who served in the VRAF in the First Great War and whose war grave is in the Churchyard, has recently been added to the memorial. To celebrate the correction of this omission after such a long time, everyone is invited to attend this historic occasion, with the Lord Lieutenant of Rutland, Dr Laurence Howard, the Deputy Lieutenant, Bart Hellyer, and the High Sherriff, Air Commodore Miles Williamson-Noble in attendance, and to partake of light refreshments in the Village Hall, afterwards.

Please pray for

- The family and friends of William John Stewart, whose funeral took place at Marholm Crematorium on Monday;
- The family and friends of John Callaghan, especially Gill who is in hospital.
- Children enticed into joining extremist groups
- Victims of religious extremism and the girls kidnapped in Nigeria;
- The hostages held by religious extremists and their families and friends. Also the family of murdered hostages Kenji Goto and Moaz al-Kasasbeh and the 21 Egyptian Christians killed recently;
- The people whose lives are torn apart by war and violence, especially in Syria and Iraq;
- The people of Ukraine;
- The victims of the Ebola outbreak and those working to stop it and to develop a vaccine;

- The Rutland Food Bank;
- The Drop-in Centre;
- Justin and John our Archbishops and Donald and John, our Bishops;
- Lee, Janet, Hildred & Dominic, our Team Clergy, and all lay members of the Ministry Team;

- Madeleine McCann and her family and all missing children.

Knitted Chicks

The Mothers' Union is again planning to sell knitted Easter chicks to raise money for their charities. It will be £1 for the chick and chocolate egg. Please keep looking for them, we are still busy knitting!

The Real Easter Egg Campaign Continues!

I will be taking order for the eggs up to the end of March - the original egg is still priced at £3.99 if you would like to order one please speak to me on a Sunday at Oakham or contact me on 01572 722729. The Traidcraft stall will also be at the Lent Lunches in the Church Hall where orders can also be taken. For more information on the other eggs or indeed anything Fairtrade related please do get in touch. Thank you for your continued support. Denise.

Rutland Reminders

We resume our singing sessions for people with dementia and their carers every 1st and 3rd Tuesday in the month, on 3 & 17 March at 3:45pm at 'Brambles', Rutland Care Village, Oakham. No cost, and a warm welcome is guaranteed. Please phone Diana Ellard on 07779 413889 or visit www.rutlandreminders.org.uk. Please spread the word – we find word of mouth invaluable! Thank you. Charles Lawrence.

Braunston Churchyard Update

If you walk through the west churchyard at Braunston over the next few months you will see there is quite a lot of activity taking place along the northern perimeter, clearing scrub, pruning trees and redistributing some of the spoil heaps which have accumulated over the years. This will increase the levelled area available for grave plots and seed to grass the previously overgrown northern perimeter area. The churchyard may not look as tidy and attractive as usual for the next few months whilst the work is done, but by the summer we should achieve a big improvement all round. We would like to say a big thank you to Andy Cunliffe and Mike Hammond who are undertaking this work voluntarily using their specialist skills and equipment. If anyone wants further information or would like to help in the final finishing work do get in contact – Rob Anderson for Braunston PCC.

Oakham APCM

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM) will take place on Sunday 26 April, following a joint 10am Parish Communion. At this meeting we will need to elect new members of the Parochial Church Council (PCC) and a new Churchwarden. Please give prayerful consideration to whether you might be able to fulfil one of these roles – more details can be obtained from current PCC members or the Churchwardens. Furthermore, Peter Hill has advised that he wishes to step down from his role in the Treasurers team. We therefore invite anyone who feels that they are willing and able to take on this role to contact the Churchwardens, or to speak with Peter directly. You will need to have experience with the use of spreadsheets and the Internet, and in understanding the basics of keeping Accounts. Peter is willing to assist anyone who relishes this challenge, and will guide them through the various tasks involved.

In preparation for the APCM, all Church organisations are asked to prepare the usual report on their activities over the past year. This should be submitted by Sunday 22 March, to the usual 'notices' email address (sorry this is a week earlier than previously notified so that we can have the reports ready for Easter Sunday). Please let us have any photographs that you have of activities over the past year as well.

'Come and Sing' Crucifixion

On Palm Sunday evening at 6pm there will be a 'Come and Sing' Crucifixion (by John Stainer), with soloists from Oakham School. A rehearsal at 3pm will be followed by tea at 5pm, when members of the Lent Ecumenical Groups will join together at the end of their course. All singers are warmly invited to join us – if you are familiar with the work, or are a reasonable sight-reader, you can join us for the afternoon rehearsal, but if you would like to do a little more work on it beforehand we will be rehearsing it at our Laudamus practices on 10 & 24 March. The work includes a number of congregational hymns, and with written reflections from the Lent Groups will make a fitting act of worship to conclude the Lent course. Please talk to Kevin Slingsby (01572 460000) for more details.

Come and Sing with us in this classic musical narrative of Christ's passion to mark the start of Holy Week, and the conclusion of the Lent Study Groups.

All singers are warmly invited to join us to rehearse at 3pm, followed by tea with members of the Lent Groups at 5pm, and the performance at 6pm.

Stainer's oratorio, scored for SATB choir, soloists and organ also includes a number of congregational hymns, and with written reflections from the Lent Groups will make a fitting act of worship to conclude the Lent course.

If you would like to sing, or find out more, please phone 01572 460001 or email kevin@slingsby.org.

Service of Celebration for the County of Rutland

This Evensong Service is an opportunity to give thanks to all who serve the County of Rutland and to celebrate the County's activities within the Diocese of Peterborough.

All are welcome. The service will be followed by a reception in the South Transept, when winning entries from the Rutland Open Youth Art Exhibition will also be on display.

There will be no evensong at Oakham or Market Overton, so we hope you will be able to attend. Transport by coach has been arranged – please book a place by signing the list by the South Door at Oakham Church, or phone 01572 460001 (leave your name & number) or email kevin@oakhamteam.org.uk. Pickup will be at 2pm outside All Saints, return at 6:15pm, and the cost will be £10.

'I am the Bread of Life'

This month's Church@4 at Braunston saw members of the congregation painting bible verses onto a selection of stones which will line the path to the Church during Lent.

After hearing the story of Jesus spending forty days in the desert being tempted to turn stones into bread, we hope that people walking through the churchyard will read the verses on these stones, and be spiritually nourished!

Our attention then turned from deserts to desserts as we enjoyed a selection of home-made refreshments of a sweet variety! Next month there will not be a Church@4, but instead a Family Service on Mothering Sunday (15 March) to which all families are warmly invited.

The Real Easter Egg
