Palm Gospel – Mark 11.1-11

When Jesus and his disciples were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them, 'Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, "Why are you doing this?" just say this, "The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately."' They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, 'Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!' Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Psalm 118.19-24

19 Open to me the gates of righteousness, *
that I may enter and give thanks to the Lord.

20 This is the gate of the Lord; *
the righteous shall enter through it.

21 I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me *
and have become my salvation.

22 The stone which the builders rejected *
has become the chief cornerstone.

23 This is the Lord's doing, *
and it is marvellous in our eyes.

24 This is the day that the Lord has made; *
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Leicester City, County and Rutland At Risk War Memorials Project

A pioneering project in Leicestershire is leading the fight to preserve a cherished part of our heritage. In 2010, St. Saviour's Church in Leicester was vandalised. Many of the dozen or so war memorials were wrecked or stolen in an act of wanton destruction. This was the catalyst which led to the formation of Leicester City, County and Rutland At Risk War Memorial Project. After much consultation and having created the right legal structure, the Project made a successful application to the Heritage Lottery Fund, so granting a platform for work to start. In recent years, many churches and chapels have been declared redundant and factories and clubs subject to change of use, leaving war memorials without protection. The Project aims to rescue these at risk memorials, preserve and restore them for future generations, and suitably re-locate them if possible. Some memorials have been moved from their original locations, where they lay neglected and forgotten; some were stolen, some damaged and recovered. The Project has successfully rescued many of these memorials for restoration and conservation. This work needed a base. After securing a licence from the Churches Conservation Trust, the deconsecrated chancel of All Saints Church, In Leicester's High Cross Street, is being used as a safe repository where these memorials are suitably displayed with information boards. Memorials frequently display non-specific inscriptions... 'Men of this Parish...' or Men of this School...' so once they are displaced from their original location, they can easily be lost. The Project strives to keep memorials in their local communities and actively works with churches and schools to restore and re-erect them. This helps to preserve the dignity and honour of those men who fought for our freedoms. A good number of memorials, a replica stained glass window from St. Saviours Church and other projects are well displayed in this Leicester

City centre location. (The chancel has been separated from the main church.) All Saints Church, High Cross, Leicester, is one of five surviving from the medieval town, with a tower intriguingly sited at its north-east corner. Built from the 12th-to 19th-centuries, it includes a Norman doorway and a richly carved 13th-century font. Chris Stephens, with much knowledge, is one of the main organisers and promoters of the At Risk Project. He also holds the keys to the CCT's All Saints Church at the same site. A short walk away is the only Leicester Church mentioned in Simon Jenkins' 1000 Best Churches, St Mary de Castro, where the same gentleman is churchwarden. Should you be interested, (they are all most interesting) The Friends of All Saints' Church, Oakham is planning an outing on Tuesday afternoon 21st April to see all three. Beryl Kirtland.

Traidcraft and Jewellery Recycling

The figure from recycling of unwanted jewellery and old bank notes has now reached a massive £21,890! I still have a supply of envelopes if you would like to take place in this worthwhile scheme. Denise (01572 722729)

Annual Parochial Church Meetings

Your opportunity to hear and have your say what has been going on in the church over the last year, and to elect Churchwardens and PCC members. In the northern villages the meetings takes place on 25 March (Ashwell), 14 April (Teigh), 15 April (Market Overton) & 19 April (Whissendine), and in the southern villages 9 March (Eggleton), 22 March (Langham), 24 March (Brooke), 17 April (Braunston) & 21 April (Hambleton), Please see the diary for times and locations. At Oakham, the APCM will take place on Sunday 26 April, following a joint 10am Parish Communion, when we will need to elect new members of the Parochial Church Council (PCC) and a new Churchwarden. Please give prayerful consideration to whether you might be able to fulfil one of these roles – more details can be obtained from current PCC members or the Churchwardens. Furthermore, Peter Hill has advised that he wishes to step down from his role in the Treasurers team. We therefore invite anyone who feels that they are willing and able to take on this role to contact the Churchwardens, or to speak with Peter directly. You will need to have experience with the use of spreadsheets and the Internet, and in understanding the basics of keeping Accounts. Peter is willing to assist anyone who relishes this challenge, and will guide them through the various tasks involved.
