The Service of Light

We gather at the church door.

Christ yesterday and today
the beginning and the end Alpha and Omega,
all time belongs to him,
and all ages;
to him be glory and power,
through every age and forever. Amen.

This is the day when our Lord Jesus Christ passed from death to life.
Throughout the world Christians celebrate the awesome power of God.
As we hear his word and proclaim all that God has done,
we can be confident that we shall share his victory over death and live with him for ever.

The Easter Candle is lit.

May the light of Christ, rising in glory,
banish all darkness from our hearts and minds.

The light of Christ
Thanks be to God

We process into church singing the opening hymn.

Collect

Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him:
grant that we, being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ,
may reign with him in glory;
to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might,
now and in all eternity. Amen.

First Reading – Acts 10.34–43

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius. 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ – he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Second Reading – 1 Corinthians 15.1–11*

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you – unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace towards me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them – though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Gospel – Mark 16.1–8

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, ‘Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?’ When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, ‘Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.’ So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Post Communion Prayer

God of Life,
who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son
to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection have delivered us from the power of our enemy:
grant us so to die daily to sin,
that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Happy Birthday

A very happy 90th birthday for yesterday to Elizabeth Gilmore from all your church friends at Oakham.

Oakham PCC

At the last meeting on 17 March the main points discussed were as follows:

- The Parish safeguarding policy was formally adopted;
- Final accounts for 2014 were adopted for presentation to the APCM;
- The new notice boards are almost ready;
- A positive meeting had taken place on site with the DAC and heating engineers confirming wall mounted boilers in the office as the way forward;
- Jeremy Orme (Hambleton) had agreed to fill the vacancy as Rutland's representative on the DBF;
- The APCM would take place on 26 April, when a new Churchwarden would be needed.

Full minutes of the meeting are on display on the noticeboard by the north door.

Friends of All Saints 2105 subscriptions

Many thanks to the two thirds of you who have renewed their subscriptions for 2015. We would be grateful if the remainder could renew now, thus avoiding the need to send out reminders. The subscription is £5 per person. If any new members wish to join application pamphlets are available with full details on the stand by the north door. Subscriptions can either be sent to John King, 64 Stamford Road, Oakham, LE15 6JH; or left in the Friends pigeon hole in the Mayhew Room.

Fairtrade

The total sales for March were a massive £541.07! My grateful thanks to everyone who contributed to this wonderful figure - it includes sales at the 5 Lent lunches as well as sales of the Real Easter Egg. The stall will be in Church after the 10.30 service on the 12th and 19th April and before the combined 10am service on the 26th April.

Easter Lilies

Donations for Easter Lilies may be placed in the alms box on the South Door. They should be put in an envelope marked 'For Easter Lilies'. Lilies cost approx. £2.00 each. Further information from Jackie Vecqueray.

All Saints Oakham Prayer Chain

Would anyone interested in joining the Prayer Chain please contact Mary Willows on 01572 756264.

CDs for sale

We have for sale some reduced price new CDs which have been donated by John Rutter to support World Challenge, which gives opportunities for young people to see and live within other cultures for a short while and broadens their horizons. These are ex the Collegium catalogue, including Faure Requiem, Rutter Feel the Spirit and Richard Rodney Bennett Sea Change - £3 each, with £2 going to World Challenge and £1 to the church. Please ask Kevin for details.

All Saints Church Trail

If you are thinking about activities to amuse children or grandchildren during the Easter holidays, you may like to consider letting them follow the Church Trail at Oakham. You can pick up a copy from the table just inside the West Door. Further details from Gill Bruce on 01572 756656 or Sally Corton on 01572 722272.

Planned Giving

Envelopes, only identified by a number, are ready for collection by the South door at Oakham. The new tax year starts soon, it is a good opportunity to start giving regularly to All Saints. Many donors prefer to use a monthly route via their bank. No wonder they pass the offertory bag unfilled! Please contact Gordon at church or phone 01572 755371

Knitted Chicks

The Mothers' Union is again planning to sell knitted Easter chicks to raise money for their charities. It will be £1 for the chick and chocolate egg. Please keep looking for them, we are still busy knitting!

Traidcraft and Jewellery Recycling

The figure from recycling of unwanted jewellery and old bank notes has now reached a massive £21,890! I still have a supply of envelopes if you would like to take place in this worthwhile scheme. Denise (01572 722729)

Annual Parochial Church Meetings

Your opportunity to hear and have your say what has been going on in the church over the last year, and to elect Churchwardens and PCC members. In the northern villages the meetings takes place on 25 March (Ashwell), 14 April (Teigh), 15 April (Market Overton) & 19 April (Whissendine), and in the southern villages 9 March (Egleton), 22 March (Langham), 24 March (Brooke), 17 April (Braunston) & 21 April (Hambleton), Please see the diary for times and locations. At Oakham, the APCM will take place on Sunday 26 April, following a joint 10am Parish Communion, when we will need to elect new members of the Parochial Church Council (PCC) and a new Churchwarden. Please give prayerful consideration to whether you might be able to fulfil one of these roles – more details can be obtained from current PCC members or the Churchwardens. Furthermore, Peter Hill has advised that he wishes to step down from his role in the Treasurers team. We therefore invite anyone who feels that they are willing and able to take on this role to contact the Churchwardens, or to speak with Peter directly. You will need to have experience with the use of spreadsheets and the Internet, and in understanding the basics of keeping Accounts. Peter is willing to assist anyone who relishes this challenge, and will guide them through the various tasks involved.
