Almighty Father,
you have given your only Son to die for our sins
and to rise again for our justification:
grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness that we may always serve you in pureness of living and truth;
through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Acts 4.32-35

The whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Second Reading – 1 John 1.1–2.2*

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life – this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us – we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete. This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us. My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world.

Gospel – John 21.1-14

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off. When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God our Father, through our Saviour Jesus Christ
you have assured your children of eternal life and in baptism have made us one with him:
deliver us from the death of sin
and raise us to new life in your love, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit,
by the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Happy Birthday

A very happy 90th birthday for yesterday to Elizabeth Gilmore from all your church friends at Oakham.

Apologies

We are sorry that the Holy Communion services on Tuesday (10am) and Thursday (9am) at Oakham were listed in last week's Pewsheets, but did not in fact take place. Apologies for the inconvenience if you tried to attend on of them.

Notice Boards

The new notice boards at Oakham are now in situ, and as well as service and contact information will be updated regularly with key events. Any requests for inclusion should be made to the usual notices@oakhamteam.org.uk address please.

Oakham PCC

At the last meeting on 17 March the main points discussed were as follows:

- The Parish safeguarding policy was formally adopted;
- The new notice boards are almost ready;
- Final accounts for 2014 were adopted for presentation to the APCM;
- A positive meeting had taken place on site with the DAC and heating engineers confirming wall mounted boilers in the office as the way forward;
- Jeremy Orme (Hambleton) had agreed to fill the vacancy as Rutland's representative on the DBF;
- The APCM would take place on 26 April, when a new Churchwarden would be needed.

Full minutes of the meeting are on display on the noticeboard by the north door.

Friends of All Saints 2105 subscriptions

Many thanks to the two thirds of you who have renewed their subscriptions for 2015. We would be grateful if the remainder could renew now, thus avoiding the need to send out reminders. The subscription is £5 per person. If any new members wish to join application pamphlets are available with full details on the stand by the north door. Subscriptions can either be sent to John King, 64 Stamford Road, Oakham, LE15 6JH; or left in the Friends pigeon hole in the Mayhew Room.

Fairtrade

The total sales for March were a massive £541.07! My grateful thanks to everyone who contributed to this wonderful figure - it includes sales at the 5 Lent lunches as well as sales of the Real Easter Egg. The stall will be in Church after the 10.30 service on the 12th and 19th April and before the combined 10am service on the 26th April.

CDs for sale

We have for sale some reduced price new CDs which have been donated by John Rutter to support World Challenge, which gives opportunities for young people to see and live within other cultures for a short while and broadens their horizons. These are ex the Collegium catalogue, including Faure Requiem, Rutter Feel the Spirit and Richard Rodney Bennett Sea Change - £3 each, with £2 going to World Challenge and £1 to the church. Please ask Kevin for details.

Traidcraft and Jewellery Recycling

The figure from recycling of unwanted jewellery and old bank notes has now reached a massive £21,890! I still have a supply of envelopes if you would like to take place in this worthwhile scheme. Denise (01572 722729)

Annual Parochial Church Meetings

Your opportunity to hear and have your say what has been going on in the church over the last year, and to elect Churchwardens and PCC members.

In the northern villages the meetings take place on 25 March (Ashwell), 14 April (Teigh), 15 April (Market Overton) & 19 April (Whissendine), and in the southern villages 9 March (Egleton), 22 March (Langham), 24 March (Brooke), 17 April (Braunston) & 21 April (Hambleton), Please see the diary for times and locations. At Oakham, the APCM will take place on Sunday 26 April, following a joint 10am Parish Communion, when we will need to elect new members of the Parochial Church Council (PCC) and a new Churchwarden. Please give prayerful consideration to whether you might be able to fulfil one of these roles – more details can be obtained from current PCC members or the Churchwardens. Furthermore, Peter Hill has advised that he wishes to step down from his role in the Treasurers team. We therefore invite anyone who feels that they are willing and able to take on this role to contact the Churchwardens, or to speak with Peter directly. You will need to have experience with the use of spreadsheets and the Internet, and in understanding the basics of keeping Accounts. Peter is willing to assist anyone who relishes this challenge, and will guide them through the various tasks involved.

Easter People

Easter is at the heart of everything we are as Christians. The first Easter, Resurrection Sunday, demonstrated Christ's defeat of sin and death, established him as Lord of all, and established a whole new order of being.

No longer striving for improbable victory over our sinful nature. No longer stuck in a vicious circle of turning over a new leaf then failing again. Instead a complete fresh start, a resurrection. Christ's resurrection pre-figures and guarantees ours. We live in the light and the anticipation of a completely new life.

This year sees a number of elections, new starts of a kind in our democratic way of life. Next month a General Election. Later in the year both the three-yearly elections to Diocesan Synod and the five-yearly ones to General Synod. Doubtless new faces will appear. Maybe new ideas. Possibly even improvements. The cycle of new starts in the government of both state and church has much to commend it. People have the chance to step down with dignity and without bloodshed. New people have a bit of breathing-space, permission to settle in and discover the role.

I encourage you to vote when you are invited to do so. Voting maintains a system of peaceful transitions and fresh starts. It is more healthy than the alternatives. And in voting we should take seriously the alternatives, the policies, the characters of those seeking our support. This is not to be starry-eyed and imagine that a new politician can change the world, or a new general synod member make the Church perfect. But it is right that we all take responsibility for the way we are governed. Democracy isn't perfect, but it is better than any alternative yet devised.

Fortunately though, our salvation (and the coming of the kingdom of God) don't depend on human policies, on able but fallible leaders, or on the ballot box.

Jesus Christ is Lord. He is risen from the dead. He guarantees resurrection life. Not a tweaking or a bit of improvement, but a whole new start, perfect and forever.

Greetings in the risen Christ.
