Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church
is governed and sanctified:
hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people,
that in their vocation and ministry
they may serve you in holiness and truth
to the glory of your name;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Ezekiel 2.1–5

The heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. When I saw this, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking. He said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you. And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day. The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

Second Reading – *2 Corinthians 12.2–10

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows – was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.' So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Gospel – Mark 6.1–13

Jesus came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

Post Communion Prayer

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered
by your governance, that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Fairtrade-Sales and Stall Dates

Sales for June amounted to a healthy £199.01 – as ever thank you to everyone who has purchased from the stall. Please do have a look at the stall today as there are GUEST PRESENTERS! – please give them your support. The stall will be here again on 19th July. Thank you, Denise.

Traidcraft Jewellery & Banknote Recycling Scheme

Traidcraft have advised me the figure from the above has now increased to £24,106! I still have a supply of envelopes if anyone would like to take part in this worthwhile project. Denise – 722729.

Scout Group needs volunteers

Scouting offers fun, challenge and everyday adventure to 400,000 girls and boys across the UK. Offering over 200 different activities from abseiling and archery to drama, street sports and water zorbing, Scouting helps 6-25 year olds grow in confidence, achieve their full potential and become active members of their communities. This is only possible through the efforts of 100,000 volunteers who also enjoy the fun and friendship of Scouting. Trusted by nearly a million parents each week, the movement welcomes members from all backgrounds, faiths and cultures. The Scout Association is a registered charity in the UK and part of a worldwide movement of 31 million Scouts working for peace and global friendship. Oakham All Saints Scout Group is looking for adults to help run Beavers, Cubs and Scout meetings on Monday or Thursday evenings. No Scouting experience is necessary and we will help with any training requirements, just enthusiasm and a couple of hours a week! Please contact our Group Scout Leader, Mark Campbell, at gsl@oakhamscouts.org.uk or 07428 110433.

Friends Theatre Visit

Some tickets are still available for the performance of Henry V at Tolthorpe Shakespeare Theatre, Stamford for the matinee on Saturday 11 July. Cost £13.50. Shared cars. Sign up list on table near South Door or contact Beryl Kirtland 01572 724103. Henry V – “God for Harry! England and Saint George!” The English take the town of Harfleur. Henry moves on towards Calais. The two armies prepare for battle near Agincourt. The night before the battle Henry visits his troops in disguise. The French numbers are far superior. Henry inspires his troops with a rousing speech. LET THE BATTLE BEGIN. What a wonderful place to see the troops coming through the trees and see a Shakespeare play. Do come and join us. Limited tickets. 2015 is the 600th anniversary of the Battle of Agincourt.

Vista Charity Shop

Vista is a local charity which provides services to children and adults with sight loss throughout Leicester, Leicestershire and Rutland, providing support to all those who are registered with a sight loss in our parishes, and has also this week launched a mobile support service in Rutland, providing information on preventing avoidable sight loss to people throughout the county. Vista has also just opened (last Wednesday) its first charity shop, in Oakham, and urgently needs more volunteers to join their team. They are looking for people who can give a few hours a week to help sort stock, manage the shop floor and serve customers. If you are interested please email kate.naish@vistablind.org.uk, phone 0116 249 0909 or visit the website www.vistablind.org.uk, or call in to the shop.

Station Road Closure

National Grid will be upgrading the gas mains supply in Station Road, Oakham, starting on 6 July, and taking about 6 weeks. For the first 1-2 weeks (approx) there will two-way traffic lights from Kilburn Road to Church Street. For the remainder of the time (from about 20 July to 14 August) there will be one-way traffic only from Church Street to Burley Road, and parking will be suspended along that stretch. If you have any queries, please call National Grid on 0800 096 5678. Signposted diversions will be in place on Burley Road southbound via Burley Road, High Street and Church Street, and northbound via Burley Road onto the Bypass, and back into Oakham via Barleythorpe and the Level Crossing.

Prayer Chain

People should know that a Prayer Chain has recently been set up. Mary Willows (01572 756264) will receive prayer requests for friends or relatives and pass them along the chain, where they will be prayed for, in strict confidence.

Fairtrade

The figure for May amounted to an amazing £313 30 – this includes an excellent £61.20 from the Team Service at Langham on 31 May. Many, many thanks to all who supported that and continue to regularly purchase both food items and gifts. The stall is here after the 10:30 service at Oakham today. Denise (722729).
