8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. Thou, whose almighty word
chaos and darkness heard,
and took their flight;
hear us, we humbly pray,
and where the gospel-day
sheds not its glorious ray,
let there be light.

2. Thou, who didst come to bring on thy redeeming wing
healing and sight,
health to the sick in mind,
sight to the inly blind,
O now to all mankind
let there be light.

3. Spirit of truth and love,
life-giving, holy Dove,
speed forth thy flight;
move on the water's face,
bearing the lamp of grace,
and in earth's darkest place
let there be light.

4. Holy and blessed Three,
glorious Trinity,
Wisdom, Love, Might;
boundless as ocean's tide
rolling in fullest pride,
through the earth far and wide
let there be light.

Words: John Marriott (1780-1825)
Music: Moscow, Felice de Giardini (1716-1796) (Ancient & Modern – 810)

Collect

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word,
we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – *Isaiah 55.1-11

The LORD says this: Everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David. See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples. See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you. Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there until they have watered the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

Second Reading – 2 Timothy 3.14-4.5

Continue in what you have learned and firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it, and how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that everyone who belongs to God may be proficient, equipped for every good work. In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I solemnly urge you: proclaim the message; be persistent whether the time is favourable or unfavourable; convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound doctrine, but having itching ears, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander away to myths. As for you, always be sober, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, carry out your ministry fully.

Gradual Hymn*

1. Help us, O Lord, to learn the truths thy word imparts:
to study that thy laws may be inscribed upon our hearts.

2. Help us, O Lord, to live
the faith which we proclaim,
that all our thoughts and words and deeds
may glorify thy name.

3. Help us, O Lord, to teach the beauty of thy ways,
that yearning souls may find the Christ,
and sing aloud his praise.

*Words: William Watkins Reid (1923-2009)
Music: Sandys, from W Sandys's Christmas Carols, 1833
(Ancient & Modern – 658)*

Gospel – John 5.36b-47

Jesus said to the Jews: 'The works that the Father has given me to complete, the very works that I am doing, testify on my behalf that the Father has sent me. And the Father who sent me has himself testified on my behalf. You have never heard his voice or seen his form, and you do not have his word abiding in you, because you do not believe him whom he has sent. You search the scriptures because you think that in them you have eternal life; and it is they that testify on my behalf. Yet you refuse to come to me to have life. I do not accept glory from human beings. But I know that you do not have the love of God in you. I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me; if another comes in his own name, you will accept him. How can you believe when you accept glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the one who alone is God? Do not think that I will accuse you before the Father; your accuser is Moses, on whom you have set your hope. If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me. But if you do not believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?'

Offertory Hymn*

1. Thanks to God whose Word was spoken in the deed that made the earth.
His the voice that called a nation;
his the fires that tried her worth.
God has spoken, God has spoken:
praise God for his open word.

2. Thanks to God whose Word Incarnate glorified the flesh of man;
deeds and words and death and rising
tell the grace in heaven's plan.
God has spoken, God has spoken:
praise God for his open word.

3. Thanks to God whose word was written in the Bible's sacred page, record of the revelation
showing God to every age.
God has spoken, God has spoken:
praise God for his open word.

4. Thanks to God whose word is published in the tongues of every race.
See its glory undiminished
by the change of time and place.
God has spoken, God has spoken:
praise God for his open word.

5. Thanks to God whose word is answered by the Spirit's voice within.
Here we drink of joy unmeasured,
life redeemed from death and sin.
God is speaking, God is speaking:
praise God for his open word.

Words: R T Brooks (1918-1985)

Music: St Helen, G C Martin (1844-1916)

© 1954/1982 Hope Publishing Company (Ancient & Modern – 390)

Communion Anthem*

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes;
and I shall keep it unto the end.

Words: Psalm 119.33

Music: Thomas Attwood (1765-1838)

Communion Hymns*

1. Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness,
and all these things shall be added unto you;
Allelu-, alleluia:

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, allelu, alleluia!

2. Ask, and it shall be given unto you, seek and ye shall find,
knock, and the door shall be opened unto you;
Allelu-, alleluia:

3. We shall not live by bread alone,
but by every word
that proceeds from the mouth of the Lord;
Allelu-, alleluia:

Words: Karen Lafferty (b 1948)

Post Communion Prayer

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry
with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness
sustain us by your true and living bread;
who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Soldiers of Christ, arise, and put your armour on,
strong in the strength which God supplies
through his eternal Son.
2. Strong in the Lord of hosts,
and in his mighty power,
who in the strength of Jesus trusts
is more than conqueror.
3. Stand then in his great might,
with all his strength endued,
and take, to arm you for the fight,
the panoply of God.
4. To keep your armour bright attend with constant care,
still walking in your Captain's sight,
and watching unto prayer.
5. From strength to strength go on,
wrestle and fight and pray;
tread all the powers of darkness down,
and win the well-fought day;
6. That, having all things done,
and all your conflicts passed,
ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone and stand entire at last.

Words: From Ephesians 6.10-18, Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Music: St Ethelwald, William Henry Monk (1823-1889)

(Ancient & Modern – 780)

FRIDAY 30 OCTOBER

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS CAMPAIGN

All Saints Oakham

Lands' End are holding a campaign in October to raise money for the charity 'Against Breast Cancer', part of which involves creating a very large piece of bunting, each triangle of which will be bought by people for a pound, and which they will add to the final piece of bunting which will be on display in the Church all day today. We are hoping local schools will get involved and decorate some triangles and there will also be pre decorated triangles for those less keen on doing their own.

Each person buying a triangle be added into a raffle which will be drawn on the day, with prizes donated by local businesses, and there will also be a prize from amongst the children's entries for best decorated triangle.

Triangles are available in church now, and there will also be an opportunity to add a triangle yourself on the day, when refreshments will be available.

Thank You from MSF and Water Aid

Following the market place stall in August, thanks have been received from Médecins Sans Frontières and Water Aid for donations of £110.19 and £26. Water Aid report as follows: 'For girls like Chaltu from Mojo village in Ethiopia, your fund raising will change everything. Life in Mojo Village has been difficult. It is a rural village with limited access to water services. Women and girls like Chaltu would spend hours walking to collect water, which was contaminated and made the community ill. Then, everything changed. With help from supporters like you WaterAid was able to help the people of Mojo build water pumps and toilets in their community. The village has fresh running water for the first time, and young girls like Chaltu can now spend more time on their education. Chaltu is really looking forward to going back to school. She told us: "Some days, I had to spend the whole morning waiting in line until everyone before me got their jerry cans filled. By the time I got back home, it would have already been past school time. The teachers would punish me. But now that is going to be history." Thanks to your kind donation, communities like Chaltu's can be transformed. By choosing to support WaterAid's work you are helping create a world where everyone, everywhere has access to safe water, hygiene and sanitation. Your support makes all the difference in the world - thank you.'

Last call for triangles

If you are decorating a triangle for Breast Cancer Awareness, please return it either direct to Land's End, or via Kevin, early this week. They are still available in Oakham church today – please see diary entry for 30 October for full details.

Prayers & Readings

The new edition (November to March) is now available in Oakham church.

Tombola Appeal

Jackie and Pat are collecting items for the Tombola stall for the Autumn Sale at Oakham, and will be grateful for donations given to them personally, or left with Janine in the office.

Sunday Tea Parties

We had a very successful tea party on Sunday 11 October, and we plan to continue these in All Saints Oakham on a monthly basis, usually on the third Sunday of the month. Volunteers are needed, both to bake in advance and to help on the day - for further details, please contact Joyce Wells (07779 242745) or Pam Wells (01572 755532). All are welcome to attend, especially those who might otherwise be at home alone on a Sunday afternoon. Forthcoming dates are 15 November, 20 December and 24 January.

Operation Christmas Child

St. Andrew's Whissendine is making a collection of shoeboxes filled with small gifts for Operation Christmas Child, to be distributed to children in areas of great need around the world. If you'd like to contribute to this collection please get your filled shoeboxes to St Andrew's by 8 November, or bring items along for putting into a box. Then, in the evening of 10 November we'll have a merry gathering(!) in church to fill boxes with donated items. All are welcome to come along for this!

Details of how to fill a box from www.samaritans-purse.org.uk/what-we-do/operation-christmas-child/

Traidcraft – Sales And Catalogues

Sales for the month of September were a massive £330.75 – as ever thank you to all who have supported the stall and already placed orders from the new catalogue. I have more copies of the catalogue for anyone else who would like to place an order for Christmas cards and gifts. The stall will be at Langham after the 11.00 service today and at Oakham on 1st November.

Orders are now being taken for the Real Advent Calendar (see separate poster). Denise (722729).

Gallipoli

Do you have any former relatives who were killed at Gallipoli/Dardanelles? Please speak to Gordon Woods straight after the 10:30 service today.

Budgets for 2016

We shall be setting the 2016 budget on the 9th November. Could all budget holders inform the Treasurers or Churchwardens of their requirements for next year. At the moment, all expenditure is within the 2015 budgeted figures, with the exception of photocopying. If you anticipate that this will be reflected in end-year figures, and that there will be no unplanned expenditure between now and year-end, we will use the 2015 figures as the base for 2016. Any anticipated increases for 2016 should be advised however.

Deanery Synod Vacancy

Oakham has six places on the Deanery Synod, but only five are filled at the moment – would you be interested in filling the vacancy? There are about six meetings a year, and if you would like to find out more anyone is free to attend the meetings – the next one is at Uppingham Church on 19 November, so why not go along to find out more...

Knitters Needed!

More sheep are required for the Oakham Advent Travelling Crib. If you can help please contact Margaret Tyler on 01572 724799 (Mothers' Union), who will be pleased to hear from you.

Donations for the Refugee Crisis

The images of desperate refugees crossing the Mediterranean in unstable boats, or packed illegally into lorries, or protesting 'We are human beings too' in the port of Calais, are a distressing reminder of the shocking refugee crisis that led to the founding of Christian Aid in 1945. Christian Aid is working with churches and other agencies in supporting humanitarian efforts taking place in Europe and the Middle East. Their partners can provide essential humanitarian supplies such as food, fuel for cooking, hygiene and sanitation kits, water containers and cash assistance, as well as psychological support for those who are suffering as a result of the conflict.

Donations to Christian Aid will be gratefully received by the treasurer, or you can donate through their website directly at <http://bit.ly/refugeeappeal>.

Annual Pantomime Trip

This will take place on Saturday 2 January – please see the diary entry or the website for full details.

SATURDAY 14TH NOVEMBER

10am – 4pm

Praying With Heart And Soul

A day to experience praying with senses
We will investigate how our senses can help us into prayer, and then put our discoveries into practice.

This is a day not only for those who lead others in Prayer, but for everyone who understands the importance and power of Prayer.

There is no charge for the day, but donations are welcome for the circuit charity,

Zimbabwe Victims Support Fund

www.zimbabwevictimssupportfund.org

Remember to bring a packed lunch. Drinks will be provided.
