Collect

Christ Jesus,
with the life and martyrdom of St Edmund the King of East Anglia, you inspired generations of pilgrims in the way of love and hope.
Enfold your Church, here and now,
within the mystery of your life,
so that we too, in our own pilgrimage, this day and henceforth,
may be the apostles of your glory,
such glory as adorns our Crucified and Risen Lord,
you who, with the Father and the Holy Spirit,
we present with us now,
as once you were, triumphantly, with Edmund. Amen.

First Reading – Acts 6.8,10-13,15; 7.54-60

Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people. But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he spoke. Then they secretly instigated some men to say, 'We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God.' They stirred up the people as well as the elders and the scribes; then they suddenly confronted him, seized him, and brought him before the council. They set up false witnesses who said, 'This man never stops saying things against this holy place and the law.' And all who sat in the council looked intently at him, and they saw that his face was like the face of an angel. When they heard these things, they became enraged and ground their teeth at Stephen. Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. 'Look,' he said, 'I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!' But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him. Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him; and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.' Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, 'Lord, do not hold this sin against them.' When he had said this, he died.

Gospel – John 14.12-17

Jesus said to his disciples: Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it. 'If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

Post Communion Prayer

By this Holy Meal
which your abiding love has provided for us,
we have celebrated the glory of Christ's Cross,
together with the victory of the salient Edmund,
your martyr and our saint.
Through our common life with Jesus the Lord grant us that strength by which your saints conquer evil and feast on the fruit of the Tree of Life, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Traidcraft Stall

Please note that for today only the stall at Oakham will be located by the North Door.

Traidcraft Charity Christmas Cards

This week is Traidcraft's Charity Christmas Cards Week – if you would like to get behind the campaign and place an order please contact Denise on 722729 or speak to her after today's 10:30 service at Oakham. The stall will also be at Market Overton's Christmas Fayre on 21 November and the Autumn Sale at Oakham on 28 November (please see separate entries for more information on both events) Thank you.

Rutland Foodbank Christmas Hampers.

Once again, Rutland Foodbank will be giving Christmas Hampers to those in our county who may struggle to buy those small luxuries that make Christmas a celebration. This year the hampers will include mince pies, Christmas puddings, chocolates and even family games. We are seeking cash donations. £15 will sponsor one hamper but any amount is welcome. Cheques made payable to 'Rutland Foodbank'. Donations please to the curate's pigeon hole at Oakham, or via team ministers in the villages.

Open Doors

Open Doors is an organisation which supports persecuted Christians around the world through prayer, advocacy, training, literacy programmes and economic aid. Each year they publish a 'World Watch List', highlighting the 50 countries where it is most difficult to live as a Christian. They will be launching the 2016 list in January in Parliament, hosted by a Cabinet Minister. We are all encouraged to invite our MPs to attend this launch, so that the message of the persecuted church reaches our decision-makers. Could you invite your MP? Go to this internet site to see how to invite them: <http://bit.ly/wwl-2016>. Contact Brian Maunders at Whissendine for more information: 01664 474349

Knitters Needed!

More sheep are required for the Oakham Advent Travelling Cribs. If you can help please contact Margaret Tyler on 01572 724799 (Mothers' Union), who will be pleased to hear from you.

Tombola Appeal

Jackie and Pat are collecting items for the Tombola stall for the Autumn Sale at Oakham, and will be grateful for donations given to them personally, or left with Janine in the office.

Sunday Tea Parties

Forthcoming parties will be on 22 November (not 15th as previously advertised), 20 December and 24 January. Volunteers are needed, both to bake in advance and to help on the day - for further details, please contact Joyce Wells (07779 242745) or Pam Wells (01572 755532). All are welcome to attend, especially those who might otherwise be at home alone.

Donations for the Refugee Crisis

Christian Aid is working with churches and other agencies in supporting humanitarian efforts taking place in Europe and the Middle East. Their partners can provide essential humanitarian supplies such as food, fuel for cooking, hygiene and sanitation kits, water containers and cash assistance, as well as psychological support for those who are suffering as a result of the conflict.

Donations to Christian Aid will be gratefully received by the treasurer, or you can donate through their website directly at <http://bit.ly/refugeeappeal>.
