The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Psalm 36.5-11

5 Your love, O Lord, reaches to the heavens *
and your faithfulness to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness stands like the strong mountains,
your justice like the great deep; *
you, Lord, shall save both man and beast.

7 How precious is your loving mercy, O God! *
All mortal flesh shall take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

8 They shall be satisfied with the abundance of your house; *
they shall drink from the river of your delights.

9 For with you is the well of life *
and in your light shall we see light.

10 O continue your loving-kindness to those who know you *
and your righteousness to those who are true of heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, *
nor the hand of the ungodly thrust me away.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit :
as it was in the beginning is now and shall be for ever. Amen.

Reading – John 12.1-11

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, 'Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?' (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, 'Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me.' When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death as well, since it was on account of him that many of the Jews were deserting and were believing in Jesus.

Hymn

1. When I survey the wondrous cross
on which the Prince of glory died,
my richest gain I count but loss,
and pour contempt on all my pride.
2. Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast save in the cross of Christ my God;
all the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.
3. See from his head, his hands, his feet,
sorrow and love flow mingled down;
did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich a crown!
4. His dying crimson, like a robe,
spreads o'er his body on the tree:
then I am dead to all the globe,
and all the globe is dead to me.
5. Were the whole realm of nature mine,
that were a present far too small;
love so amazing, so divine,
demands my soul, my life, my all.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748)

Music: Rockingham, melody Tunbridge from A Second Supplement to Psalmody in Miniature c1780, adapted by Edward Miller (1731-1807)
(Ancient & Modern – 157)
