8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise;
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.
2. O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame,
a second Adam to the fight and to the rescue came.
3. O wisest love! that flesh and blood, which did in Adam fail,
should strive afresh against the foe,
should strive and should prevail;
4. And that the highest gift of grace should flesh and blood refine, God's presence and his very self,
and essence all-divine.
5. O generous love! that he, who smote in Man for man the foe,
the double agony in Man
for man should undergo;
6. And in the garden secretly, and on the cross on high,
should teach his brethren, and inspire to suffer and to die.
7. Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise;
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

Words: John Henry Newman (1801-1890)
Music: Gerontius, John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

Collect

Lord, you have taught us
that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

3. Bring us, O Christ, to share the fullness of your joy;
baptise us in the risen life that death cannot destroy.

4. Three-personed God, fulfil the promise of your grace, that we, when all our searching ends,
may see you face to face.

Words: Carl P Daw, Jr (b 1944)

Gospel – Matthew 10.24-39

Jesus summoned the twelve and sent them out with the following instruction: 'A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a slave above the master; it is enough for the disciple to be like the teacher, and the slave like the master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign those of his household! So have no fear of them; for nothing is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light; and what you hear whispered, proclaim from the housetops. Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground unperceived by your Father. And even the hairs of your head are all counted. So do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows. Everyone therefore who acknowledges me before others, I also will acknowledge before my Father in heaven; but whoever denies me before others, I also will deny before my Father in heaven. Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; and one's foes will be members of one's own household. Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it.'

Offertory Hymn*

1. Christ is the one who calls, the one who loved and came,
to whom by right it falls
to bear the highest name:

and still today
our hearts are stirred
to hear his word
and walk his way.

2. Christ is the one who seeks,
to whom our souls are known.
The word of love he speaks can wake a heart of stone;

for at that sound
the blind can see,
the slave is free,
the lost are found.

3. Christ is the one who died, forsaken and betrayed;
who, mocked and crucified,
the price of pardon paid.

Our dying Lord,
what grief and loss,
what bitter cross,
our souls restored!

4. Christ is the one who rose in glory from the grave, to share his life with those whom once he died to save.

He drew death's sting
and broke its chains,
who lives and reigns,
our risen King.

5. Christ is the one who sends,
his story to declare;
who calls his servants friends
and gives them news to share.

His truth proclaim
in all the earth,
his matchless worth
and saving Name.

Communion Hymns*

|--|---|
| 1. I come with joy, a child of God, forgiven, loved, and free,
the life of Jesus to recall, in love laid down for me. 2. I come with Christians far and near to find, as all are fed, the new community of love in Christ's communion bread. | 3. As Christ breaks bread and bids us share, each proud division ends.
The love that made us, makes us one, and strangers now are friends. 4. The Spirit of the risen Christ, unseen, but ever near,
is in such friendship better known:
alive among us here. 5. Together met, together bound,
by all that God has done,
we'll go with joy, to give the world,
the love that makes us one. |

| 1. Take up thy cross, the Saviour said, if thou wouldst my disciple be;
deny thyself, the world forsake, and humbly follow after me. 2. Take up thy cross: let not its weight fill thy weak spirit with alarm;
his strength shall bear thy spirit up, and brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm. 3. Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame, nor let thy foolish pride rebel:
the Lord for thee the Cross endured, to save thy soul from death and hell. | 4. Take up thy cross then in his strength, and calmly every danger brave;
'twill guide thee to a better home, and lead to victory o'er the grave. 5. Take up thy cross, and follow Christ, nor think till death to lay it down;
for only he who bears the cross may hope to wear the glorious crown. 6. To thee, great Lord, the One in Three, all praise for evermore ascend; O grant us in our home to see the heavenly life that knows no end. |

Post Communion Prayer

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Forth in the peace of Christ we go;
Christ to the world with joy we bring;
Christ in our minds, Christ on our lips,
Christ in our hearts, the world's true king.
2. King of our hearts, Christ reigns in us; kingship with him his servants gain;
with Christ, the Servant-Lord of all,
Christ's world we serve to share Christ's reign.
3. Priests of the world, Christ sends us forth this world of time to consecrate, our world of sin by grace to heal,
Christ's world in Christ to re-create.
4. Prophets of Christ, we hear his word:
he claims our minds, to search his ways;
he claims our lips, to speak his truth;
he claims our hearts, to sing his praise.
5. We are his Church, he makes us one:
here is one hearth for all to find;
here is one flock, one Shepherd-King;
here is one faith, one heart, one mind.

6:00pm Choral Evensong & Welcome to the New Curates

Iain Osborne arrives in Oakham with Susan, and also Mary (17) and William (19). Susan and Iain both did degrees in literature, and his first love was Victorian novels. But he has also studied economics and politics, and worked for over twenty years at making markets work better for consumers (mainly in the infrastructure sectors – phones and internet, power and gas, water, sewers and airports – also health-care). (Fear not, he has also studied some theology!) He likes to read, to make things (embroidery, pottery), to grow things, and to cook. He and Susan are both Mancunians by birth, but Iain grew up in Leicestershire, and they have raised the children near Market Harborough (with short periods in Brussels and Ireland).

Born in Norwich, Charlotte Osborn grew up by the sea in North Norfolk. She is married to Leo, Oakham's Methodist Minister, who has previously served churches in Derbyshire, Lancashire, Cheshire and Northumberland, while she has taught Latin and PE, worked for Youth for Christ and latterly as an Airport Chaplain. She loves cycling round Rutland Water, playing squash and mending things. Still surprised by this late call to ordained ministry, she is looking forward to an end of essay writing and to beginning to put her training into practice, to knowing and being known in the villages and churches in the benefice.

Opening Hymn

1. O Jesus, I have promised to serve thee to the end:
be thou ever near me,
my Master and my Friend:
I shall not fear the battle
if thou art by my side, nor wander from the pathway
if thou wilt be my guide.
2. O let me feel thee near me:
the world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
the tempting sounds I hear;
my foes are ever near me,
around me and within;
but, Jesus, draw thou nearer,
and shield my soul from sin.
3. O let me hear thee speaking in accents clear and still,
above the storms of passion,
the murmurs of self-will;
O speak to reassure me,
to hasten or control;
O speak, and make me listen,
thou guardian of my soul.
4. O Jesus, thou hast promised to all who follow thee, that where thou art in glory there shall thy servant be;
and Jesus, I have promised
to serve thee to the end;
O give me grace to follow,
my Master and my Friend.

5. O let me see thy foot-marks, and in them plant mine own;
my hope to follow duly
is in thy strength alone:
O guide me, call me, draw me,
uphold me to the end;
and then in heaven receive me,
my Saviour and my friend.

Declaration of Assent

Revd Iain Osborne and Revd Charlotte Osborn will make the Declaration of Assent as they each begin ministry as a Curate in the Oakham Team Ministry.

Confession

Dearly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness; and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father; but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart; to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God; yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me:

Almighty and most merciful Father, We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, We have offended against thy holy laws, We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, And we have done those things which we ought not to have done, And there is no health in us: But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders; Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults, Restore thou them that are penitent, According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord: And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Absolution or Remission of Sins

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live; and hath given power, and commandment, to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance, and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him, which we do at this present; and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure, and holy; so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
For ever and ever. Amen.

Responses (sung)

First Lesson – Isaiah 6.1-8

Read by Mrs Patricia Osborne

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: 'Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.' The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!' Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: 'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.' Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

Office Hymn

1. Take my life, and let it be consecrated, Lord, to thee; take my moments and my days, let them flow in ceaseless praise.
2. Take my hands, and let them move at the impulse of thy love; take my feet, and let them be swift and beautiful for thee.
3. Take my voice, and let me sing always, only, for my King; take my lips, and let them be filled with messages from thee.
4. Take my silver and my gold, not a mite would I withhold; take my intellect, and use every power as thou shalt choose.
5. Take my will and make it thine: it shall be no longer mine; take my heart, it is thine own; it shall be thy royal throne.
6. Take my love; my Lord, I pour at thy feet its treasure-store; take myself, and I will be ever, only, all for thee.

Second Lesson – Romans 12.1-13

Read by Mr John Archibald

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgement, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness. Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Nunc Dimittis

T Kelway

- 1 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant de- | part in | peace :
ac- | cor-ding | to thy | word.
 - 2 For mine eyes have | seen · thy sal- | vation,
which thou hast pre- | par'd be-fore the | face of · all | people,
 - 3 To be a light to | lighten · the | Gentiles :
and to be the | glory · of thy | peo-ple | Israel.
- Glory | be · to the | Father,
and to the | Son and · to the | Ho-ly | Ghost;
As it was in the beginning is | now and · ever | shall be :

Anthem

God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoso believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world;
but that the world through him might be saved.

Music: John Stainer (1840-1901), from The Crucifixion 1887*

Prayers

Led by Revd Iain Osborne & Revd Charlotte Osborn,

The prayers end with the Grace

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Hymn

1. Who would true valour see,
let him come hither;
one here will constant be,
come wind, come weather;
there's no discouragement,
shall make him once relent,
his first avowed intent,
to be a pilgrim.

2. Who so beset him round with dismal stories,
do but themselves confound,
his strength the more is.
No lion can him fright:
he'll with a giant fight,
but he will have the right
to be a pilgrim.

3. Hobgoblin, nor foul fiend can daunt his spirit;
he knows he at the end
shall life inherit.
Then, fancies, fly away;
he'll fear not what men say;
he'll labour night and day
to be a pilgrim.

Sermon

A Dialogue between Canon Leo Osborn and Rev Mark Osborne at the beginning of Diaconal Ministry

Hymn

1. Forth in thy Name, O Lord, I go, my daily labour to pursue;
thee, only thee, resolved to know in all I think or speak or do.

2. The task thy wisdom hath assigned,
O let me cheerfully fulfil;
in all my works thy presence find,
and prove thy good and perfect will.

3. Thee may I set at my right hand, whose eyes mine inmost substance see,
and labour on at thy command,
and offer all my works to thee.

4. Give me to bear thy easy yoke, and every moment watch and pray,
and still to things eternal look,
and hasten to thy glorious day;

5. For thee delightfully employ whate'er thy bounteous grace hath given;
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with thee to heaven.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)
Music: Song 34 (Angels' Song), melody & bass by Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625) (Ancient & Modern – 476)

Blessing

The peace of God,
which passeth all understanding,

be amongst you and remain with you always.
Amen.

RSCM Dean's Award

Congratulations to five of our choir members in passing the RSCM Dean's Award – Margaret Foot, Jan Williamson, Ann Blackett, Trish Mobbs and Lin Ryder - which they achieved not only by singing, but also demonstrating their musical and church knowledge. The awards will be presented at the Peterborough Diocesan Choral Festival on Saturday 14 October at 5:30pm at Peterborough Cathedral.

Handicraft group

The first meeting of the group to begin preparations for the stall at the Autumn Fayre will be held at 10:00 am on Friday 14 July at 8 Peterborough Avenue. We will be sharing patterns, ideas, wool and fabric, contributions of which would be gratefully received. More details from Sally Corton (01572 722272).

Church Spring Clean

The annual Spring Clean will be on Saturday 24 June, in two sessions from 10am-12 noon, and 2-4pm. Our dedicated team of volunteer church cleaners look after the church and keep it looking lovely during the year, but the Spring Clean gives us a chance to reach the places which need a bit more attention and/or effort. Please come along for either session (or both!), and if you have any equipment which might help us get to the cobwebs in the high windows and corners, we would be very grateful if you could bring it along. On the day there will be a list of things and areas to clean, and there will also be tea/coffee and cake!

Sunday School Progression

There is to be a Bring and Share Supper at the Vicarage on Friday 30 June at 7.30pm to discuss the progression of our Sunday School. The present leaders of the older groups would like to stand down but we do not have anyone to take their places. We are not asking you to lead but we may ask you to do the occasional Sunday as the more interesting and varied the programme the more the children learn. We would love to hear what you think. Please can you let me know if you are available and would like to come. Robin Robson (robin@oakhamteam,org.uk)
