8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. Come, Holy Spirit, come!
Inflame our souls with love, transforming every heart and home with wisdom from above.
○ let us not despise
the humble path Christ trod, but choose, to shame the worldly-wise,
the foolishness of God.

2. Come with the gift to heal the wounds of guilt and fear, and to oppression's face reveal the kingdom drawing near.
Where chaos longs to reign,
descend, O holy Dove,
and free us all to work again
the miracles of love.

3. Spirit of truth, arise; inspire the prophet's voice:
expose to scorn the tyrant's lies,
and bid the poor rejoice.
○ Spirit, clear our sight,
all prejudice remove,
and help us to discern the right,
and covet only love.

4. Come, Holy Spirit, dance within our hearts today, our earthbound spirits to entrance,
our mortal fears allay.
And teach us to desire,
all other things above,
that self-consuming holy fire,
the perfect gift of love!

Words: Michael Forster (b 1946) Music: Diademata, George Job Elvey (1816-1893) © 1992 Kevin Mayhew Limited (Ancient & Modern – 242)

Collect

Merciful God,
you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises,
which exceed all that we can desire;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading – *Isaiah 44.6-8

Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god. Who is like me? Let them proclaim it, let them declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be. Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses! Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one.

Second Reading – Romans 8.12-25

Brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh - for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, 'Abba! Father!' it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ – if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him. I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Gradual Hymn*

1. Earth was waiting, spent and restless, with a mingled hope and fear, faithful men and women praying,
'Surely, Lord, the day is near:
the Desire of all the nations - it is time he should appear!'

2. Then the Spirit of the Highest to a virgin meek came down, and he burdened her with blessing, and he pained her with renown;
for she bore the Lord's anointed for his cross and for his crown.

3. Earth has groaned and laboured for him since the ages first began, for in him was hid the secret which through all the ages ran - Son of Mary, Son of David, Son of God, and Son of Man.

Words: Walter Chalmers Smith (1824-1908)
Music: Picardy, French carol melody harmonised by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)
(Ancient & Modern – 34)

Gospel – Matthew 13.24-30,36-43

Jesus put before the crowd another parable: ‘The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, “Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?” He answered, “An enemy has done this.” The slaves said to him, “Then do you want us to go and gather them?” But he replied, “No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.”’ Then Jesus left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, ‘Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.’ He answered, ‘The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!’

Offertory Hymn*

1. Christ is the world's true light, its captain of salvation, the daystar clear and bright
of every land and nation;
new life, new hope awakes,
where peoples own his sway:
freedom her bondage breaks,
and night is turned to day.

2. In Christ all races meet, their ancient feuds forgetting,
the whole round world complete,
from sunrise to its setting:
when Christ is throned as Lord, lands shall forsake their fear,
to ploughshare beat the sword,
to pruning-hook the spear.

3. One Lord, in one great name unite us all who own thee;
cast out our pride and shame that hinder to enthrone thee;
the world has waited long,
has traivailed long in pain;
to heal its ancient wrong,
come, Prince of Peace, and reign!

Words: George Wallace Briggs (1875-1959)

Music: Nun Danket, melody in Johann Crüger Praxis Pietatis Melica 1647, harmony chiefly from Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy Lobgesang 1840 (Ancient & Modern – 610)

Communion Hymns*

1. Above the moon earth rises, a sunlit, mossy stone,
a garden that God prizes
where life has richly grown, an emerald selected
for us to guard with care, an isle in space protected by one thin reef of air.

2. The mossy stone is grieving, its tears are bitter rain,
the garden is unleaving
and all its harvests wane, the emerald is clouded,
its lustre dims and fades, the isle of life is shrouded in thick and stagnant haze.

3. O listen to the sighing of water, sky and land,
and hear the Spirit crying,
the future is at hand:
the moss and garden thinning portend a death or birth, the end or new beginning for all that lives on earth.

4. A death if hearts now harden, a birth if we repent
and tend and keep the garden
as God has always meant:
to sow without abusing
the soil where life is grown, to reap without our bruising
the sunlit mossy stone.

Words: Thomas H Troeger (B 1945)

Music: Salley Gardens, Irish folk melody, originally known as The Maids of Mourne Shore, arranged by John L Bell (b 1949) © 1987 WGRG, Iona Community (Ancient & Modern – 531)

1. Rock of ages, cleft for me,
let me hide myself in thee;
let the water and the blood from thy riven side which flowed, be of sin the double cure, cleansing me from its guilt and power.

2. Not the labours of my hands can fulfill thy law's demands;
could my zeal no respite know,
could my tears forever flow,
all for sin could not atone;
thou must save, and thou alone.

3. Nothing in my hand I bring, simply to thy cross I cling;
naked, come to thee for dress;
helpless look to thee for grace;
foul, I to the fountain fly;
wash me, Saviour, or I die.

4. While I draw this fleeting breath, when mine eyelids close in death,
when I soar through tracts unknown see thee on thy judgment throne,
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
let me hide myself in thee.

Words: Augustus Montague Toplady (1740-1778)

Music: Petra, Richard Redhead (1820-1901)

(Ancient & Modern – 772)

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage,
you have led us to the living water:
refresh and sustain us
as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord; he is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
he hath loosed the fateful lighting of his terrible swift sword:

his truth is marching on.

Glory, glory hallelujah! Glory, glory hallelujah!

Glory, glory hallelujah! His truth is marching on.

2. He has sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat; he is sifting out the hearts of men before his judgement-seat;
O be swift, my soul, to answer him; be jubilant, my feet!

Our God is marching on.

Glory, glory hallelujah! Glory, glory hallelujah!

Glory, glory hallelujah! Our God is marching on.

3. In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea, with a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me;
as he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free, while God is marching on.

Glory, glory hallelujah! Glory, glory hallelujah!

Glory, glory hallelujah! While God is marching on.

Words: Julia Ward Howe (1819-1910)

Music: Battle Hymn of the Republic, melody attrib William Steffe (c 1850), arr Noël Tredinnick (b 1949)

(BBC Songs of Praise – 156)

Pewsheets deadline

The deadline for next week's pewsheets will be day earlier than usual – Tuesday 25 July 11am.

Safeguarding

Oakham PCC this week has re-adopted its Safeguarding policy. Safeguarding is an important issue, which is taken very seriously in all our Team churches, and more details can be found on the website.

Readers & Intercessors at Oakham 8am

We need one or two more people on the rota – if you are interested please speak to Lee or to Janine in the office.

Dean of Peterborough Cathedral

It was announced on Tuesday that Reverend Canon Tim Sledge has been appointed as Dean of Peterborough Cathedral. Tim is currently Vicar of Romsey and Area Dean in the Diocese of Winchester. From 2003 to 2008 he was Diocesan Missioner Enabler in the Diocese of Peterborough. Tim is married to Caroline, and has two stepchildren, Grace (20) and Matt (18). Please see the website for links to the announcements on Downing Street and Cathedral websites.

Oakham Stewardship

The PCC are beginning to plan for the Stewardship Campaign in the autumn – if you missed the presentation from Paul Adams at the last meeting, please have a look at the summary on the website, and pass any thoughts to a PCC member.

Paul Phillips RIP

We are sorry to have to convey the sad news that Paul Phillips died on Monday morning. Paul was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer only a few weeks ago, and his health had deteriorated rapidly since then. Paul was a very long-standing and active member of Whissendine Church, as tower captain and choir member among other roles, and he will be greatly missed.

Greenbelt 2017

Greenbelt is a festival for people who want to mix things up: art and music, poetry and politics, activism and spirituality, faith and justice. Iain and Charlotte, our new curates, both love it – does anyone want to join them for a day trip, on Sunday 27th August? The venue is close, about 45 minutes drive, at Boughton House near Kettering. The plan would be for families to go under their own steam, we meet and sit together for the 10:30 Communion service, then do our own thing for the afternoon and/or evening. There are loads of interesting talks, mainstage bands, weird and wonderful fringe events, workshops. See <http://www.greenbelt.org.uk/2017-lineup> for more info. We're not sure about ticket prices just yet – we are investigating deals for local churches. If interested (even if just 'maybe') please email Iain (iain@oakhamteam.org.uk) – he will get back to you in early August to confirm details.

Fairtrade Sales and Stalls

It is very pleasing to report that sales for the last three months have amounted to a massive £640.48. My thanks to everyone who supports the stall. The stall will be at the 10:30 service at Oakham, today and next week, then on August 6th, 13th and 27th. Thank you, Denise (01572 722729).

Foodbank Update

The Foodbank is currently short of the following items – small coffee, dog and cat food, sponge puddings...urgent!, custard, instant savoury meals i.e pasta, cous cous, rice etc: in packets, ham/spam/corned beef, tinned spaghetti, tinned carrots or mixed veg, tinned potatoes, sweets and chocolate bars, meat in sauce e.g. stew, curry, etc., cream crackers, crisps etc. We have plenty of cereals, baked beans, tea, toilet rolls and meat pies at the moment. Thanks as ever for your ongoing support.

Bishop of Loughborough

The appointment was announced on Tuesday 11 July of Canon Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani as the first Bishop of Loughborough. This means that Lee will, in due course, be resigning as Vicar of Oakham, and the Bishop will be working with us to seek his successor in the autumn. Please see the website for full details of Guli's appointment.
