8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am TEAM COMMUNION*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation:
 all ye who hear,
 now to His temple draw near,
joining in glad adoration.
2. Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth, shieldeth thee gently from harm, or when fainting sustaineth:
 hast thou not seen how thy heart's wishes have been granted in what he ordaineth?
3. Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee;
surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend thee:
 ponder anew
 what the Almighty can do, if to the end he befriend thee.
4. Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath, come now with praises before him!
 Let the Amen
 sound from his people again:
gladly for aye we adore him!

Words: Lobe den Herren, Joachim Neander (1650-1680) tr Vatherine Winkworth (1827-1878)

Music: Lobe Den Herren (Praxis Pietatis), German 17th-century melody, harm Editors of The Chorale Book for England, 1863 (Ancient & Modern – 765)

Collect

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – 1 Kings 3.5-12

At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, 'Ask what I should give you.' And Solomon said, 'You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart towards you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?' It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this. God said to him, 'Because you have asked this, and have not asked for yourself long life or riches, or for the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern what is right, I now do according to your word. Indeed I give you a wise and discerning mind; no one like you has been before you and no one like you shall arise after you.'

Second Reading – *Romans 8.26-39

The Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn within a large family. And those whom he predestined he also called; and those whom he called he also justified; and those whom he justified he also glorified. What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us? He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else? Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, 'For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.' No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gradual Hymn*

1. O King enthroned on high, thou Comforter divine, blest Spirit of all truth, be nigh and make us thine.

2. Thou art the source of life, thou art our treasure-store;
 give us thy peace and end our strife for evermore.

3. Descend, O heavenly Dove, abide with us alway;
 and in the fullness of thy love cleanse us, we pray.

Words: based on 8th century Greek, John Brownlie (1857-1925)
Music: Temple, Henry Walford Davies (1869-1941)

Gospel – Matthew 13.31-33,44-52

Jesus put before the crowd another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches.' He told them another parable: 'The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened. The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which someone found and hid; then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls; on finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and caught fish of every kind; when it was full, they drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into baskets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous and throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Have you understood all this?' They answered, 'Yes.' And he said to them, 'Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the master of a household who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old.'

Offertory Hymn*

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. All my hope on God is founded; he doth still my trust renew.
 Me through change and chance he guideth, only good and only true.
 God unknown,
 he alone
 calls my heart to be his own. 2. Human pride and earthly glory, sword and crown betray his trust;
 what with care and toil he buildeth, tower and temple, fall to dust.
 But God's power,
 hour by hour,
 is my temple and my tower. 5. Still from earth to God eternal sacrifice of praise be done, high above all praises praising for the gift of Christ his Son.
 Christ doth call
 one and all:
 ye who follow shall not fall. | 3. God's great goodness aye endureth, deep his wisdom, passing thought:
 splendour, light, and life attend him, beauty springeth out of naught.
 Evermore
 from his store
 new-born worlds rise and adore. 4. Daily doth th'Almighty giver bounteous gifts on us bestow;
 his desire our souls delighteth, pleasure leads us where we go.
 Love doth stand
 at his hand;
 joy doth wait on his command. |

Words: Robert Seymour Bridges (1844-1930), based on Meine Hoffnung stehet feste, Joachim Neander (1650-1680)
 Music: Michael, Herbert Howells (1892-1983) (Ancient & Modern – 584)

Communion Anthem*

Jesu, joy of man's desiring, holy wisdom, love most bright; drawn by Thee, our souls aspiring soar to uncreated light.
Word of God, our flesh that fashioned, with the fire of life impassioned, striving still to truth unknown, soaring, dying round Thy throne.

Through the way where hope is guiding, hark, what peaceful music rings; where the flock, in thee confiding, drink of joy from deathless springs.
Theirs is beauty's fairest pleasure; theirs is wisdom's holiest treasure.
Thou dost ever lead thine own in the love of joys unknown.

Words: Martin Jahn (c1620-c1682), trans Robert Bridges (1844-1930)
Music: from Herz und Mund und Tat und Leben BWV 147, J S Bach (1685-1750)

Communion Hymn*

1. Put peace into each other's hands and like a treasure hold it, protect it like a candle-flame, with tenderness enfold it.

2. Put peace into each other's hands
with loving expectation;
be gentle in your words and ways,
in touch with God's creation.

5. Reach out in friendship, stay with faith in touch with those around you.

Put peace into each other's hands:
the Peace that sought and found you.

3. Put peace into each other's hands like bread we break for sharing;
look people warmly in the eye:
our life is meant for caring.

4. Give thanks for strong – yet tender – hands, held out in trust and blessing.
Where words fall short, let hands speak out, the heights of love expressing.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Through the love of God our Saviour
all will be well;
free and changeless is His favour,
all, all is well.
Precious is the blood that heals us, perfect is the grace that seals us, strong the hand stretched out to shield us;
all must be well.
2. Though we pass through tribulation,
all will be well;
ours is such a full salvation,
all, all is well.
Happy, still in God confiding; fruitful, if in Christ abiding;
holy, through the Spirit's guiding;
all must be well.
3. We expect a bright tomorrow;
all will be well;
faith can sing, through days of sorrow,
'All, all is well.'
On our Father's love relying, Jesus every need supplying,
or in living or in dying,
all must be well.

Oakham PCC

At its meeting on Tuesday 18 July received the annual Safeguarding Report from Ruth Bray, and the meeting re-adopted the Diocesan Safeguarding policy. Safeguarding is an important issue, which is taken very seriously in all our Team churches, and more details can be found on the website, and a statement to that effect will appear regularly in the pewsheet. A Finance Report was received, and the stewardship campaign will be planned in more details at the start of September, with the presentations on Sunday 8 October. Following extortionately high estimates for the boiler replacement, other options are now being considered, including repairing the existing system and moving the electrics to a dry indoor location. A donation of £350 to the relief work in North Kensington was agreed. Staffing issues were discussed, which will become clearer in the Autumn. Full minutes can be found on the noticeboard by the North Door.

From 2003 to 2008 he was Diocesan Missioner Enabler in the Diocese of Peterborough. Tim is married to Caroline, and has two stepchildren, Grace (20) and Matt (18). Please see the website for links to the announcements on Downing Street and Cathedral websites.

Oakham Stewardship

The PCC are beginning to plan for the Stewardship Campaign in the autumn – if you missed the presentation from Paul Adams at the last meeting, please have a look at the summary on the website, and pass any thoughts to a PCC member.

Greenbelt 2017

Greenbelt is a festival for people who want to mix things up: art and music, poetry and politics, activism and spirituality, faith and justice. Iain and Charlotte, our new curates, both love it – does anyone want to join them for a day trip, on Sunday 27th August? The venue is close, about 45 minutes drive, at Boughton House near Kettering. The plan would be for families to go under their own steam, we meet and sit together for the 10:30 Communion service, then do our own thing for the afternoon and/or evening. There are loads of interesting talks, mainstage bands, weird and wonderful fringe events, workshops. See <http://www.greenbelt.org.uk/2017-lineup> for more info. We're not sure about ticket prices just yet – we are investigating deals for local churches. If interested (even if just 'maybe') please email Iain (iain@oakhamteam.org.uk) – he will get back to you in early August to confirm details.
