8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. Who would true valour see,
let him come hither;
one here will constant be,
come wind, come weather;
there's no discouragement,
shall make him once relent,
his first avowed intent,
to be a pilgrim.

2. Who so beset him round with dismal stories,
do but themselves confound,
his strength the more is.
No lion can him fright:
he'll with a giant fight,
but he will have the right
to be a pilgrim.

3. Hobgoblin, nor foul fiend can daunt his spirit;
he knows he at the end
shall life inherit.
Then, fancies, fly away;
he'll fear not what men say;
he'll labour night and day
to be a pilgrim.

Words: John Bunyan (1628-1688) Music: Monk's Gate, English trad, adapt R Vaughan Williams (1872-1958) (A & M – 823)

Gloria

1. All glory be to God on high, his peace on earth proclaim;
to all his people tell abroad
the grace and glory of the Lord,
and bless his holy name,
and bless his holy name.

2. In songs of thankfulness and praise our hearts their homage bring to worship him who reigns above almighty Father, Lord of love,
our God and heavenly King,
our God and heavenly King.

3. O Christ, the Father's only Son,
O Lamb enthroned on high,
O Jesus, who for sinners died and reigns at God the Father's side,
in mercy hear our cry,
in mercy hear our cry.

4. Most high and holy is the Lord, most high his heavenly throne;
where God the Father, God the Son and God the Spirit, ever one,
in glory reigns alone,
in glory reigns alone.

*Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b 1926)
Music: Repton, C H H Parry (1848-1918) (Hymns for Today's Church – 606)*

Collect

Almighty God,
who sent your Holy Spirit
to be the life and light of your Church:
open our hearts to the riches of your grace, that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit in love and joy and peace;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – 1 Kings 19.9-18

When Elijah reached Horeb, the mountain of God, he came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the LORD came to him, saying, 'What are you doing here, Elijah?' He answered, 'I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.' He said, 'Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by.' Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, 'What are you doing here, Elijah?' He answered, 'I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.' Then the LORD said to him, 'Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.'

Second Reading – Romans 10.5-15*

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that 'the person who does these things will live by them.' But the righteousness that comes from faith says, 'Do not say in your heart, "Who will ascend into heaven?"' (that is, to bring Christ down) 'or "Who will descend into the abyss?"' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? 'The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart' (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, 'No one who believes in him will be put to shame.' For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, 'Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!'

Gradual Hymn*

1. 'The kingdom is upon you!'
 the voice of Jesus cries, fulfilling with its message
 the wisdom of the wise;
 it lightens with fresh insight
 the striving human mind, creating new dimensions of faith for all to find.

2. 'God's kingdom is upon you!'
 the message sounds today,
 it summons every pilgrim
 to take the questing way,
 with eyes intent on Jesus,
 our leader and our friend,
 who trod faith's road before us,
 and trod it to the end.

3. The kingdom is upon us!
Stirred by the Spirit's breath,
we glory in its freedom
from emptiness and death;
we celebrate its purpose,
its mission and its goal,
alive with the conviction that Christ can make us whole.

Gospel – Matthew 14.22-33

Immediately after feeding the crowd with the five loaves and two fish, Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking towards them on the lake. But when the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified, saying, 'It is a ghost!' And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, 'Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.' Peter answered him, 'Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.' He said, 'Come.' So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came towards Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, 'Lord, save me!' Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, 'You of little faith, why did you doubt?' When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, 'Truly you are the Son of God.'

Offertory Hymn*

I. And now, O Father, mindful of the love that bought us, once for all, on Calvary's tree, and having with us him that pleads above, we here present, we here spread forth to thee that only offering perfect in thine eyes, the one true, pure, immortal sacrifice.

2. Look, Father, look on his anointed face, and only look on us as found in him;
look not on our misusings of thy grace,
our prayer so languid, and our faith so dim:
for lo, between our sins and their reward
we set the Passion of thy Son our Lord.

3. And then for those, our dearest and our best,
by this prevailing presence we appeal:
O fold them closer to thy mercy's breast,
O do thine utmost for their souls' true weal;
from tainting mischief keep them white and clear,
and crown thy gifts with strength to persevere.

4. And so we come: O draw us to thy feet, most patient Saviour, who canst love us still;
and by this food, so awful and so sweet, deliver us from every touch of ill:
in thine own service make us glad and free,
and grant us never more to part with thee.

Words: William Bright (1824-1901)

Music: Unde et Memores, William Henry Monk (1823-1889) (Ancient & Modern – 423)

Post Communion Prayer

Holy Father,
who gathered us here around the table of your Son to share this meal with the whole household of God:
in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace, gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. In Christ there is no east or west, in him no south or north,
but one great fellowship of love
throughout the whole wide earth.

2. In him shall true hearts everywhere their high communion find;
his service is the golden cord,
close binding humankind.

3. Join hands, then, children of the faith, whate' er your race may be;
who serves my Father as his child is surely kin to me.

4. In Christ now meet both east and west, in him meet south and north;
all Christlike souls are one in him,
throughout the whole wide earth.

Charity Skydive!

Caroline MacKinnon is 78 years old this year and lives in the village of Belton-in-Rutland. In memory of her late husband Alistair, who sadly passed away in 2013, she will be participating in a tandem skydive from 13,000ft at Netheravon airfield, Wiltshire on 17th September 2017.

The jump is in aid of Rutland Sailability, a very special local Charity enabling adults and children suffering physical and emotional impairments to gain self-confidence and pleasure learning to sail with more competent sailors on lovely Rutland Water. For Caroline, a 13,000ft Skydive is an enormous undertaking, but she is determined to do it to raise money for this worthy cause, and she would be so grateful if you could spare a few pounds to send her on her way. If you can help, you can donate via Just Giving (link on the website), or forward a donation to Caroline herself (tel 01572 717465 for details).

Foodbank Update

The Foodbank is currently short of the following items – sponge puddings, packets of smash, small coffee, custard, instant savoury meals e.g. pasta, couscous, rice etc in packets, ham/spam/corned beef, tinned spaghetti, tinned carrots peas or mixed veg, tinned potatoes, sweets and chocolate bars, meat in sauce e.g. stew, curry, etc, small sugar, jam, long life fruit juice, long life milk, tinned fruit. We have plenty of cereals and porridge, baked beans, tea, toilet rolls and sanitary items, pasta and pasta sauces at the moment. Thanks as ever for your ongoing support.

Guli's Consecration as Bishop

Revd Canon Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani is to be consecrated as Bishop of Loughborough on Thursday 30 November at Canterbury Cathedral. We have been making enquiries from coach companies for cost and would like to hear from anyone who would like to take advantage of this. The cost will be approximately £22. The coach would collect from All Saints Oakham at 6:30am, then collect from the Co-op store in Oakham afterwards. The ceremony is at 11:00am and the return would be at 3:00pm, giving time to eat and explore. Please can you let Jo Reed or Robin Robson know if you are interested (jo.reed@oakhamteam.org.uk or robin@oakhamteam.org.uk).

Decorators Needed

Have you any spare time? Are you any good with a paint brush? The Mayhew Room and toilet need painting, very badly – it's never been done since installation 20 years ago! If you can help please contact Pat Munro on 01572 723464 or Janine in the office. Thank you.

Greenbelt 2017

Greenbelt is a festival for people who want to mix things up: art and music, poetry and politics, activism and spirituality, faith and justice. Iain and Charlotte, our new curates, both love it – does anyone want to join them for a day trip, on Sunday 27th August? The venue is close, about 45 minutes drive, at Boughton House near Kettering. We will go under our own steam, then meet and sit together for the 10:30 Communion service, then do our own thing for the afternoon and/or evening. There are loads of interesting talks, mainstage bands, weird and wonderful fringe events, workshops. See the website for more info. Please contact Iain (iain@oakhamteam.org.uk) for more details.
