Encountering God... in The Cross and Self-denial

Welcome and Opening Sentence

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

By your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

We preach Christ crucified

the power of God and the wisdom of God.

By your holy cross you have redeemed the world

God forbid that I should glory

save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We adore you O Christ and we bless you.

By your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

cf 1 Corinthians 1 and Galatians 6

Grace, mercy and peace be with you and also with you.

Hymn

1. Take up thy cross, the Saviour said, if thou wouldst my disciple be;
deny thyself, the world forsake,
and humbly follow after me.
2. Take up thy cross: let not its weight fill thy weak spirit with alarm;
his strength shall bear thy spirit up,
and brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.
3. Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame, nor let thy foolish pride rebel:
the Lord for thee the Cross endured, to save thy soul from death and hell.
4. Take up thy cross then in his strength, and calmly every danger brave;
'twill guide thee to a better home,
and lead to victory o'er the grave.
5. Take up thy cross, and follow Christ, nor think till death to lay it down;
for only he who bears the cross may hope to wear the glorious crown.
6. To thee, great Lord, the One in Three,
all praise for evermore ascend;
O grant us in our home to see the heavenly life that knows no end.

Words: Charles William Everest (1814-1877)

Music: Breslau, German traditional melody harmony prob by William Henry Monk (1823-1889)

(Ancient & Modern – 135)

Confession

Take up your cross, the Saviour said, if you would my disciple be;
take up your cross with willing heart,
and humbly follow after me.

God shows his love for us
in that, while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Let us then show our love for him by confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

We are often slow to follow the example of Christ.
Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

We often fail to be known as Christ's disciples.
Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

We often fail to walk the way of the cross.
Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Absolution

May the Father forgive us by the death of his Son and strengthen us to live in the power of the Spirit all our days.
Amen.

The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn

1. Earth's fragile beauties we possess as pilgrim gifts from God, and walk the slow and dangerous way his wounded feet have trod.
Though faith by tragedy is rocked, and love with pain is scored,
we sing the pilgrims' song of hope:
'Your kingdom come, O Lord!'

2. Earth's human longings we possess by grief or love compelled to take and bear the heavy cross Christ's wounded hands have held.
By cloud and fire he leads us on through famine, plague or sword, singing with faith the pilgrims' song:
'Your kingdom come, O Lord!'

3. God's own true image we possess in innocence first known, now tainted by the hate and spite to Christ's own body shown.
By that same wounded heart of love
God's image is restored, to sing again the pilgrims' song:
'Your kingdom come, O Lord!'

Words: Robert Willis (b 1947)

Music: Kingsfold, melody from English County Songs 1893, collected by John Alexander Fuller Maitland (1856-1936), harmonised by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)
(Ancient & Modern – 526)

Reading – Matthew 16:21-28

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, 'God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.' But he turned and said to Peter, 'Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.'

The Cross and Self-Denial

Then Jesus told his disciples, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.’

Sermon

Encountering God...in the cross and self denial

Take up your cross; let not its weight fill your weak spirit with alarm; Christ's strength shall bear your spirit up and brace your heart and nerve your arm.

Hymn

Fine

D.C.

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord,
and where there's doubt, true faith in you.
*O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood, as to understand,
to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*
2. Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness, only light,
and where there's sadness, ever joy.
3. Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive,
and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Word & Musics: Sebastian Temple (1928-1997) © 1967 OCP Publications (Anglican Hymns Old & New – 499)

Creed

Let us declare our faith in God.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father, source of all being and life,
the one for whom we exist?

We believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son, who took our human nature, died for us and rose again?

We believe and trust in him.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit, who gives life to the people of God and makes Christ known in the world?

We believe and trust in him.

This is the faith of the Church.

This is our faith.

We believe and trust in one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Intercessions

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory.
For ever and ever.
Amen.

The Peace

Christ is our peace.
He has reconciled us to God in one body by the cross.

We meet in his name and share his peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

And also with you.

Hymn

1. And can it be that I should gain an interest in the Saviour's blood?
Died he for me, who caused his pain?
For me, who him to death pursued?
Amazing love! How can it be that thou, my God, shouldst die for me?

2. 'Tis mystery all! the Immortal dies!
Who can explore his strange design?
In vain the first-born seraph tries to sound the depths of love divine.
'Tis mercy all! Let earth adore, let angel minds inquire no more.

5. No condemnation now I dread;
Jesus, and all in him, is mine!
Alive in him, my living Head, and clothed in righteousness divine,
bold I approach the eternal throne,
and claim the crown, through Christ my own.

3. He left his Father's throne above – so free, so infinite his grace – emptied himself of all but love, and bled for Adam's helpless race.
'Tis mercy all, immense and free;
for, O my God, it found out me!

4. Long my imprisoned spirit lay fast bound in sin and nature's night;
thine eye diffused a quickening ray;
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light;
my chains fell off, my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed thee.

The last two lines of each verse are repeated.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Music: Sagina, from The Bouquet, 1825, Thomas Campbell (1800-1876) (Ancient & Modern – 588)

Take up your cross, then, in Christ's strength,
and calmly every danger brave:
it guides you to abundant life and leads to victory o'er the grave.

Christ crucified draw us to himself, to find in him a sure ground for faith,
a firm support for hope,
and the assurance of sins forgiven;

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among us and remain with us always
Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.

Thank You

Thank you to all who came and helped MSF on 26 August, both those from the Church family and others. August was not a good month, but we nevertheless raised £108.25. Special thanks to Bishop's Lodge and the Church of the Resurrection Leicester for all the raffle prizes etc that were donated.

Foodbank Update

14 teenagers were on National Citizenship Service during their holidays and agreed to support our food bank for the fund raising part. What an incredible success that was – they donated £600 worth of food and toiletries plus around £400 cash which is an amazing feat. Full marks and a huge thank you to them all. Also thanks to the families who have recently left Kendrew Barracks for sunny Cyprus and donated food and toiletries to us. Please see the separate poster for details of current shortages.

Guli's Consecration as Bishop

Revd Canon Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani is to be consecrated as Bishop of Loughborough on Thursday 30 November at Canterbury Cathedral.

We have 26 people who are interested in coming so far –

Robin needs to know if anyone else is interested as the smallest bus we can hire is for 36 people. Please email her on robin@oakhamteam.org.uk asap.

Charity Skydive!

Caroline MacKinnon is 78 years old this year and lives in the village of Belton-in-Rutland. In memory of her late husband Alistair, who sadly passed away in 2013, she will be participating in a tandem skydive from 13,000ft at Netheravon airfield, Wiltshire on 17th September 2017. The jump is in aid of Rutland Sailability, a very special local Charity enabling adults and children suffering physical and emotional impairments to gain self-confidence and pleasure learning to sail with more competent sailors on lovely Rutland Water. For Caroline, a 13,000ft Skydive is an enormous undertaking, but she is determined to do it to raise money for this worthy cause, and she would be so grateful if you could spare a few pounds to send her on her way. If you can help, you can donate via Just Giving (link on the website), or forward a donation to Caroline herself (tel 01572 717465 for details).

Harvest Festival Donations

To help with your selection of gifts we thought that it would be helpful if we outlined our current requirements:

Rutland Historic Churches Preservation Trust

Ride and Stride is a challenge and a fun fund raising event to help preserve local historic churches. Rutland has 64 churches, many of which are much loved features of our villages and towns. Those who worship in them are a fraction of those who visit them and gaze happily at them as they pass by. Our church buildings need to be preserved and your help is very much appreciated

This day out is for anyone who enjoys walking, cycling, horse riding or any other form of transport! If you aren't very active or have a mobility problem you can still join in. You can take part as an individual, a family, groups or teams.

Contact your LOCAL CHURCH ORGANISER FOR MORE DETAILS

Contact your own parish/church organiser through your local church

Or explore our website - www.rutlandrideandstride.org.uk

Apart from having a great day out, the most important thing to do FIRST is to get sponsors. Again forms are available from your church organiser or from the website. Tell everyone about it – you'll be amazed at how interested your friends will be, they might even come and join you!

If you like a challenge, there are rewards to be won:

Special Certificates for riders if you visit 35 or more Churches (15 for walkers).

Certificate for Starburster team leaders whose team get to all 64 churches and chapels

Cup for the most Rutland churches visited on the day.

Barnsdale Lodge Hotel voucher for the walker making the most endeavour

So what's stopping you? Get involved nowwe need your help!
