8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise;
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.
2. O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame,
a second Adam to the fight and to the rescue came.
3. O wisest love! that flesh and blood, which did in Adam fail,
should strive afresh against the foe, should strive and should prevail;
4. And that the highest gift of grace should flesh and blood refine, God's presence and his very self,
and essence all-divine.
5. O generous love! that he, who smote in Man for man the foe,
the double agony in Man
for man should undergo;
6. And in the garden secretly, and on the cross on high,
should teach his brethren, and inspire to suffer and to die.
7. Praise to the Holiest in the height,
and in the depth be praise;
in all his words most wonderful,
most sure in all his ways.

Words: John Henry Newman (1801-1890)

Music: Gerontius, John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876) (Ancient & Modern – 763)

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – *Jeremiah 15.15-21

O LORD, you know; remember me and visit me, and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors. In your forbearance do not take me away; know that on your account I suffer insult. Your words were found, and I ate them, and your words became to me a joy and the delight of my heart; for I am called by your name, O LORD, God of hosts. I did not sit in the company of merrymakers, nor did I rejoice; under the weight of your hand I sat alone, for you had filled me with indignation. Why is my pain unceasing, my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail. Therefore, thus says the LORD: If you turn back, I will take you back, and you shall stand before me. If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless, you shall serve as my mouth. It is they who will turn to you, not you who will turn to them. And I will make you to this people a fortified wall of bronze; they will fight against you, but they shall not prevail over you, for I am with you to save you and deliver you, says the LORD. I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

Second Reading – Romans 12.9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.' No, 'if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads.' Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Gradual Hymn*

1. Take up thy cross, the Saviour said, if thou wouldst my disciple be;
deny thyself, the world forsake, and humbly follow after me.
2. Take up thy cross: let not its weight fill thy weak spirit with alarm;
his strength shall bear thy spirit up,
and brace thy heart, and nerve thine arm.

2. Jesus Christ, the Man for others, we, your people, make our prayer:
 help us love – as sisters, brothers – all whose burdens we can share.
 Where your name binds us together you, Lord Christ, will surely be;
 where no selfishness can sever there your love may others see.

3. Holy Spirit, rushing, burning wind and flame of Pentecost, fire our hearts afresh with yearning to regain what we have lost.
 May your love unite our action,
 never more to speak alone:
 God, in us abolish faction,
 God, through us your love make known.

*Words: Stewart Cross (1928-1989)
 Music: Abbot's Leigh, Cyril Taylor (1907-1991)
 © Mrs Mary Cross
 (Ancient & Modern – 630)*

Communion Anthem*

Lead me, Lord, lead me in thy righteousness, make thy way plain before my face.
 For it is thou, Lord, thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

Words: Psalms 5.8;4.9 Music: Samuel Sebastian Wesley (1810-1876)

Communion Hymns

1. In a world where people walk in darkness, let us turn our faces to the light,
 to the light of God revealed in Jesus,
 to the daystar scattering our night.

*For the light is stronger than the darkness and the day will overcome the night, though the shadows linger all around us,
 let us turn our faces to the light.*

2. In a world where suffering of the helpless casts a shadow all along the way, let us bear the cross of Christ with gladness and proclaim the dawning of the day.

3. Let us light a candle in the darkness, in the face of death a sign of life;
 as a sign of hope where all seemed hopeless,
 as a sign of peace in place of strife.

*Words: Robert Willis (b 1947)
 Music: Let Us Light A Candle, Richard Shephard (b 1949)
 © The Very Revd Robert Willis
 (Ancient & Modern – 677)*

The image shows a musical score for three staves. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 3/4. The first staff contains the first line of music, ending with a 'Fine' marking. The second staff contains the second line of music, ending with a 'D.C.' marking. The third staff contains the third line of music, also ending with a 'D.C.' marking.

1. Make me a channel of your peace.
 Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
 Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord, and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

*O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console, to be understood, as to understand,
 to be loved, as to love with all my soul.*

2. Make me a channel of your peace.
 Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
 Where there is darkness, only light, and where there's sadness, ever joy.

3. Make me a channel of your peace.
 It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive,
 and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Word & Musics: Sebastian Temple (1928-1997) © 1967 OCP Publications (Anglican Hymns Old & New – 499)

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy,
 in this eucharist you have set aside our sins
 and given us your healing:
 grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. At the name of Jesus
every knee shall bow,
every tongue confess him
King of glory now:
'tis the Father's pleasure
we should call him Lord, who from the beginning
was the mighty Word.

2. Humbled for a season,
to receive a name
from the lips of sinners unto whom he came,
faithfully he bore it
spotless to the last,
brought it back victorious,
when from death he passed:

3. Name him, Christians, name Him, with love strong as death,
but with awe and wonder
and with bated breath:
he is God the Saviour,
he is Christ the Lord,
ever to be worshipped,
trusted and adored.

4. Surely, this Lord Jesus shall return again,
with his Father's glory,
with his angel train;
for all wreaths of empire
meet upon his brow,
and our hearts confess him
King of glory now.

Words: Caroline Maria Noel (1817-1877)

Music: Camberwell, John Michael Brierley (b 1932)

Charity Skydive!

Caroline MacKinnon is 78 years old this year and lives in the village of Belton-in-Rutland. In memory of her late husband Alistair, who sadly passed away in 2013, she will be participating in a tandem skydive from 13,000ft at Netheravon airfield, Wiltshire on 17th September 2017. The jump is in aid of Rutland Sailability, a very special local Charity enabling adults and children suffering physical and emotional impairments to gain self-confidence and pleasure learning to sail with more competent sailors on lovely Rutland Water. For Caroline, a 13,000ft Skydive is an enormous undertaking, but she is determined to do it to raise money for this worthy cause, and she would be so grateful if you could spare a few pounds to send her on her way. If you can help, you can donate via Just Giving (link on the website), or forward a donation to Caroline herself (tel 01572 717465 for details).
