Welcome

Opening Prayer

The Lord of the Harvest is here

His Spirit is with us

Let us bless the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Creator God,

breathing your own life into our being,

you give us the gift of life.

You placed us on this earth with its flowers and fruits,

minerals and waters,

living creatures of grace and beauty.

At harvest time the earth reaches the peak of its fruitfulness.

It depends on us to praise you by harvesting its goods

in ways which ensure there will be harvests in the future.

You gave us the care of the earth:

make us worthy of your trust.

Amen.

Hymn 289 – Come, Ye Thankful People, Come

Harvest Thanksgiving Prayer

Almighty and everlasting God,

we offer you our heartfelt thanks for your fatherly goodness, care and provision giving us the fruits of the earth in their seasons and for the skills you have blessed us with.

Give us grace and wisdom

to use your gifts rightly to your glory,

for ourselves and for our families,

and for helping others in need,

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Prayer of Penitence

Sit or kneel

We confess to you
our lack of care for the world you have given us.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

We confess to you
our selfishness in not sharing the earth's bounty fairly.

Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

We confess to you
our failure to protect resources for others.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

First Reading – Deuteronomy 8.7-18

The LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. You shall eat your fill and bless the LORD your God for the good land that he has given you. Take care that you do not forget the LORD your God, by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today. When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them, and when your herds and flocks have multiplied, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid waste-land with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock, and fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you, and in the end to do you good. Do not say to yourself, 'My power and the might of my own hand have gained me this wealth.' But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.

Hymn 415 – Praise and Thanksgiving Father We Offer

Second Reading – 2 Corinthians 9.6-15

The one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written, 'He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures for ever.' He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others, while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

Address

Hymn 288 – Praise, O Praise our God and King

Blessing of the Gifts

Eternal Father

we give you thanks for all the fruits of the earth,
for the abundance and variety of flowers
and trees in our countryside,
and for the rich resources of the world.

We ask your blessing on these gifts and on those who have generously given them and have arranged them.

Lord, you crown the year with your goodness and provide for us the fruits of the earth in their season, give us grace to use them to your glory,
for the relief of those in need,
and for our own well-being.

Amen.

Hymn: 290 – We Plough the Fields and Scatter

Prayers of Intercession

We use the response

Father, Lord of creation,
in your mercy, hear us.

Offertory Hymn 116 – All Things Bright and Beautiful

Final Prayer

Creator God,
you made the goodness of the land,
the riches of the sea,
and the rhythm of the seasons;
as we thank you for the harvest,
may we cherish and respect our planet and its peoples,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Helen Waddell - a burning and shining light.

Speaker: Rev'd Dr
John Moses KCVO.

Helen Waddell, the subject of John's talk, is largely known today through her books on Peter Abelard, the Desert Fathers, and the Wandering Scholars of the Middle Ages; but she was also an intriguing person whose many skills and profoundly human qualities commended her to large numbers of people. She comes down to us as a compelling person: one of the Church's burning and shining lights.

John Moses is a retired Anglican priest, Dean of St Paul's from 1996 until his retirement in 2006. His writings include books and anthologies on atonement theology, church and state, desert spirituality, John Donne, prayer, and Thomas Merton. He was educated at the University of Nottingham and Trinity Hall at the University of Cambridge. He then studied at Lincoln Theological College, where he was ordained in 1964. Now living in Southwell, Nottinghamshire, he lists his hobbies as reading novels, holidays in the sun, complaining about his computer, and falling asleep in front of the television. Non-members £4.

Open the Book in Primary Schools

Can you help us please? A small team from Oakham Methodist Church have been taking Bible stories into Assemblies at Brooke Hill, Catmose, Brooke Priory and English Martyrs Primary Schools over the past seven years. The visits are popular with the pupils and are at the invitation of the Heads. We use the national Open the Book scheme now used in over 2,000 schools, so that the schools always know what we plan to say. We would very much like some help from the other Oakham churches, either to join us – we visit schools on Tuesday mornings – or to set up a team from your church to visit a school. If you would like to know more, please phone or email John Haden (jdjhaden@btinternet.com or 01572 720428) for more information and an invitation to come and see what we do on our visits to Brooke Hill and Catmose on 10 Oct, 14 Nov 12 Dec.

Confirmation and Christian Basics

Would you like to join a confirmation preparation class, to prepare for confirmation next year? Or would you like to join in the course (with people of your own age) as a 'refresher' of Christian basics? We will confirm dates and details depending on how many candidates we have and their needs – at this stage we are just looking for expressions of interest. This is open to people from churches from across the Team. Our curate Revd Iain Osborne will be organising this, please speak to him or one of the other clergy if you might be interested.

Hambleton Re-opening

A packed church enjoyed the re-opening Songs of Praise service two weeks ago, when the new roof and restored textiles were dedicated. More details and photos on the website.

Egleton's New Organ

St Edmund Egleton now has a new Viscount electronic organ, and a short opening recital was given on it on Tuesday 12 September by Robert Gower. Please see the website for more details.

George Kirk RIP

George's funeral service will be held at All Saints Oakham on Monday 2nd October at 11:00am.

Guli's Consecration

Revd Canon Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani is to be consecrated as Bishop of Loughborough on Thursday 30 November at Canterbury Cathedral. The coach is now fully booked (but there is a waiting list), and payment of £22 should be made by cheque to Janine in the office or online. The coach will collect from All Saints Oakham at 6:30am, then from the Co-op store in Oakham afterwards. The ceremony is at 11:00am and the return will be at 3:00pm, giving time to eat and explore. If you are planning to attend the service, but are not using the coach, please let Janine have your name so that a seat can be reserved for you.

Ride and Stride

Thank you all the recorders who helped to make this a successful day, as well as all the riders, striders and drivers. A total of 72 people visited All Saints Oakham – more details will be available in due course.

Friends' Coffee & Cake Morning

Thank you to everyone who baked, helped and attended. The fantastic sum of £220 was donated which will be given to 'In Rutland' at the Tide Lunch on Thursday 2nd November.

Greenbelt 2017

Did you go to Greenbelt this year? If not, you might to have a look at a short video to give you a flavour of what went on, and to put next year's dates in your diary (24-27 August 2018). Go to the website for links to both.
