8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Processional Hymn*

1. For all thy saints, O Lord, who strove in thee to live,
who followed thee, obeyed, adored, our grateful hymn receive.
2. For all thy saints, O Lord, who strove in thee to die,
and found in thee a full reward,
accept our thankful cry.
3. Thine earthly members fit to join thy saints above, in one communion ever knit,
one fellowship of love.
4. Jesu, thy name we bless, and humbly pray that we may follow them in holiness, who lived and died for thee.
5. All might, all praise, be thine, Father, co-equal Son,
and Spirit, bond of love divine, while endless ages run.

Words: Richard Mant (1776-1848)

Music: Carlisle, Charles Lockhart (1745-1815) (Ancient & Modern - 298)

Collect

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love:
grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the gospel that, always abiding in you, they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Jonah 3.10–4.11

When God saw what the people of Nineveh did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it. But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. He prayed to the LORD and said, ‘O LORD! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing. And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.’ And the LORD said, ‘Is it right for you to be angry?’ Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city. The LORD God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush. But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, ‘It is better for me to die than to live.’ But God said to Jonah, ‘Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?’ And he said, ‘Yes, angry enough to die.’ Then the LORD said, ‘You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labour and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?’

Second Reading – *Philippians 1.21-30

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labour for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again. Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God’s doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well – since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Gradual Hymn*

1. For the fruits of all creation,
 thanks be to God;
for the gifts to every nation,
 thanks be to God;
for the ploughing, sowing, reaping, silent growth while we are sleeping, future needs in earth's safe keeping,
 thanks be to God.

2. In the just reward of labour,
 God's will is done;
in the help we give our neighbour,
 God's will is done;
in our world-wide task of caring for the hungry and despairing, in the harvests we are sharing,
 God's will is done.

3. For the harvests of his Spirit,
 thanks be to God;
for the good we all inherit,
 thanks be to God;
for the wonders that astound us,
for the truths that still confound us,
most of all, that love has found us,
 thanks be to God.

Gospel – Matthew 20.1-16

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the labourers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place; and he said to them, "You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right." So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, "Why are you standing here idle all day?" They said to him, "Because no one has hired us." He said to them, "You also go into the vineyard." When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, "Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first." When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, “These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.” But he replied to one of them, “Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?” So the last will be first, and the first will be last.’

Offertory Hymn*

1. In Christ alone my hope is found, he is my light, my strength, my song;
 this Cornerstone, this solid Ground, firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
 What heights of love, what depths of peace,
 when fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
 My Comforter, my All in All, here in the love of Christ I stand.

2. In Christ alone! – who took on flesh, fullness of God in helpless babe!
 This gift of love and righteousness, scorned by the ones he came to save:
 till on the cross as Jesus died,
 the love of God was glorified for every sin on him was laid:
 here in the death of Christ I live.

3. There in the ground his body lay, light of the world by darkness slain;
 Then bursting forth in glorious day up from the grave he rose again!
 And as he stands in victory sin’s curse has lost its grip on me, for I am his and he is mine – bought with the precious blood of Christ.

4. No guilt in life, no fear in death, this is the power of Christ in me;
 from life’s first cry to final breath,
 Jesus commands my destiny.
 No power of hell, no scheme of man, can ever pluck me from his hand;
 till he returns or calls me home,
 here in the power of Christ I’ll stand.

Communion Anthem

I give you a new commandment: love one another;
 as I have loved you, so you are to love one another.
 If there is this love among you, then all will know that you are my disciples.

Words: John 13.34-35 Music: Peter Aston (1938-2013)

Communion Hymns*

1. Father, hear the prayer we offer; not for ease that prayer shall be,
but for strength that we may ever live our lives courageously.
2. Not for ever in green pastures do we ask our way to be;
but the steep and rugged pathway may we tread rejoicingly.

3. Not for ever by still waters would we idly rest and stay;
but would smite the living fountains from the rocks along our way.
4. Be our strength in hours of weakness, in our wanderings be our guide;
through endeavour, failure, danger,
Father, be thou at our side.

Words: Love Maria Willis (1824-1908)

Music: Sussex, English trad, adapt Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958) (Ancient & Modern – 629)

1. Loving Shepherd of thy sheep, keep thy lamb, in safety keep;
nothing can thy power withstand,
none can pluck me from thy hand.
2. Loving Saviour, thou didst give thine own life that we might live, and the hands outstretched to bless bear the cruel nails' impress.

3. I would praise thee every day, gladly all Thy will obey, like thy blessed ones above happy in thy precious love.
4. Loving Shepherd, ever near, teach thy lamb thy voice to hear;
suffer not my steps to stray from the straight and narrow way.

5. Where thou leadest I would go, walking in Thy steps below,
till before my Father's throne
I shall know as I am known.

Words: Jane Elizabeth Leeson (1809-1881)

Music: Buckland, Leighton George Hayne (1836-1883) (Ancient & Modern – 724)

Post Communion Prayer

Keep, O Lord, your Church, with your perpetual mercy;
and, because without you our human frailty cannot but fall, keep us ever by your help from all things hurtful,
and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Light's abode, celestial Salem, vision whence true peace doth spring, brighter than the heart can fancy, mansion of the highest King;
O how glorious are the praises which of thee the prophets sing!

2. There for ever and for ever _
- alleuia is outpoured;
for unending, for unbroken,
is the feast-day of the Lord;
all is pure and all is holy that within thy walls is stored.

3. There no cloud or passing vapour dims the brightness of the-air;
endless noon-day, glorious noon-day,
from the Sun of suns is there;
there no night brings rest from labour,
for unknown are toil and care.

4. Laud and honour to the Father, laud and honour to the Son, laud and honour to the Spirit,
ever Three and ever One, consubstantial, eo-eternal,
while unending ages run.

Words: Jerusalem luminosa, Thomas a Kempis (c1380-1471), translated by John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

Helen Waddell, the

John Moses is a retired Anglican priest, Dean of St Paul's from 1996 until his retirement in 2006. His writings include books and anthologies on atonement theology, church and state, desert spirituality, John Donne, prayer, and Thomas Merton. He was educated at the University of Nottingham and Trinity Hall at the University of Cambridge. He then studied at Lincoln Theological College, where he was ordained in 1964. Fairtrade Steering Group

As we all return from our Summer break, the Rutland Fairtrade Steering Group is looking forward to its Autumn meeting on Tuesday 10th October at 7:30 pm in the Oakham Methodist Church in Northgate. Our Group works to ensure a fair deal for farmers and craftspeople from the most vulnerable countries around the world, and we are always grateful for the support of the Christian communities in Rutland. The Group is looking forward to the annual Fairtrade market in Oakham Castle, so much organising is needed – if you can help, please phone the Group Secretary, Graham Stapleton, on 01572 757456, or simply come along to the Methodist church at 7:30 pm on 10th October.

Open the Book in Primary Schools

Can you help us please? A small team from Oakham Methodist Church have been taking Bible stories into Assemblies at Brooke Hill, Catmose, Brooke Priory and English Martyrs Primary Schools over the past seven years. The visits are popular with the pupils and are at the invitation of the Heads. We use the national Open the Book scheme now used in over 2,000 schools, so that the schools always know what we plan to say. We would very much like some help from the other Oakham churches, either to join us – we visit schools on Tuesday mornings – or to set up a team from your church to visit a school. If you would like to know more, please phone or email John Haden (01572 720428 or jdjhaden@btinternet.com) for more information and an invitation to come and see what we do on our visits to Brooke Hill and Catmose on 10 Oct, 14 Nov 12 Dec.

Confirmation and Christian Basics

Would you like to join a confirmation preparation class, to prepare for confirmation next year? Or would you like to join in the course (with people of your own age) as a ‘refresher’ of Christian basics? We will confirm dates and details depending on how many candidates we have and their needs – at this stage we are just looking for expressions of interest. This is open to people from churches from across the Team. Our curate Revd Iain Osborne will be organising this, please speak to him or one of the other clergy if you might be interested.

Hambleton Re-opening

A packed church enjoyed the re-opening Songs of Praise service two weeks ago, when the new roof and restored textiles were dedicated. More details & photos on the website.

Egleton's New Organ

St Edmund Egleton now has a new Viscount electronic organ, and a short opening recital was given on it on Tuesday 12 September by Robert Gower. Please see the website for more details.

Guli's Consecration

Revd Canon Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani is to be consecrated as Bishop of Loughborough on Thursday 30 November at Canterbury Cathedral. The coach is now fully booked (but there is a waiting list), and payment of £22 should be made by cheque to Janine in the office or online. The coach will collect from All Saints Oakham at 6:30am, then from the Co-op store in Oakham afterwards. The ceremony is at 11:00am and the return will be at 3:00pm, giving time to eat and explore. If you are planning to attend the service, but are not using the coach, please let Janine have your name so that a seat can be reserved for you.
