Collect

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Ezekiel 18.1-4,25-32

What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, 'The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge'? As I live, says the Lord GOD, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel. Know that all lives are mine; the life of the parent as well as the life of the child is mine: it is only the person who sins that shall die. Yet you say, 'The way of the Lord is unfair.' Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair? When the righteous turn away from their righteousness and commit iniquity, they shall die for it; for the iniquity that they have committed they shall die. Again, when the wicked turn away from the wickedness they have committed and do what is lawful and right, they shall save their life. Because they considered and turned away from all the transgressions that they had committed, they shall surely live; they shall not die. Yet the house of Israel says, 'The way of the Lord is unfair.' O house of Israel, are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair? Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, all of you according to your ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions; otherwise iniquity will be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, says the Lord GOD. Turn, then, and live.

Second Reading – *Philippians 2.1-13**

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death – even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Gospel – Matthew 21.23-32

When Jesus entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, ‘By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?’ Jesus said to them, ‘I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?’ And they argued with one another, ‘If we say, “From heaven,” he will say to us, “Why then did you not believe him?” But if we say, “Of human origin,” we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet.’ So they answered Jesus, ‘We do not know.’ And he said to them, ‘Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things. What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, “Son, go and work in the vineyard today.” He answered, “I will not”; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, “I go, sir”; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?’ They said, ‘The first.’ Jesus said to them, ‘Truly I tell you, the tax-collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax-collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.’

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty God,
you have taught us through your Son
that love is the fulfilling of the law:
grant that we may love you with our whole heart
and our neighbours as ourselves;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Helen Waddell - a burning and

Speaker: Rev'd Dr John Moses KCVO.

Helen Waddell, the subject of John's talk, is largely known today through her books on Peter Abelard, the Desert Fathers, and the Wandering Scholars of the Middle Ages; but she was also an intriguing person whose many skills and profoundly human qualities commended her to large numbers of people. She comes down to us as a compelling person: one of the Church's burning and shining lights.

John Moses is a retired
Anglican priest, Dean of St Paul's from 1996
until his retirement in 2006. His writings
include books and anthologies on

atonement theology, church and state,
desert spirituality, John Donne, prayer, and Thomas Merton. He was educated at the University of Nottingham and Trinity Hall at the University of Cambridge. He then studied at Lincoln Theological College, where he was ordained in 1964. Now living in Southwell, Nottinghamshire, he lists his hobbies as reading novels, holidays in the sun, complaining about his computer, and falling asleep in front of the television. Non-members £4.

Oakham Stewardship Campaign

Members of the Oakham congregation should have received this week an invitation from Lee to the stewardship presentation next week. If you haven't received one, and feel that you should have, please let the office know. Also, if you received it by post, but would be happy to receive such communication by email in future please let us know.

Rutland Churches

The Friends' Rutland Churches Excursion on Saturday 23 September was a delightful day. Andrew Swift shared his great knowledge of Market Overton, Greetham, Great Casterton and Ryhall churches pointing out intricacies of which the casual (or indeed regular) visitor would never be aware.

Andrew's book 'The Complete Guide to Rutland Churches' is available from him at the cost of £15 (P&P free to church members) – email swifta@andrewswift.co.uk or phone 07768 510126.

The emblem of a Kempe stained glass window is the Wheat sheaf. Which of the four churches do you think we were in? Andrew also has two books on Leicestershire churches and two on Norfolk churches (one just out).

Celebration of Lay Ministry

On Saturday 23 September Peterborough Diocese held its first Celebration of Lay Ministry. From 9am until 4pm about 120 lay ministers gathered at the Bishop's Palace, then the Cathedral, for fellowship, teaching, workshops and lunch. In the afternoon the numbers grew to over 350 for the licensing and admission of new lay ministers and readers, including the licensing of Susan Osborne (wife of our curate Iain) as Lay Pastoral Minister to work in our Team.

Better than Hallowe'en

An event for 5-10 year olds, in the Church Hall on Saturday 28th October from 4-5pm. If you feel able to help at this in any way, please do come to a meeting in the Mayhew Room this Thursday September 28th from 7:30-8:30pm to help plan and organise the

'Better than Hallowe'en Party'. We shall be using material prepared by Nick Harding, which you can find online (see website for link). Further details from Charlotte Osborn (01572 724198 or charlotte@oakhamteam.org.uk)

Fairtrade Steering Group

As we all return from our Summer break, the Rutland Fairtrade Steering Group is looking forward to its Autumn meeting on Tuesday 10th October at 7:30 pm in the Oakham Methodist Church in Northgate. Our Group works to ensure a fair deal for farmers and craftspeople from the most vulnerable countries around the world, and we are always grateful for the support of the Christian communities in Rutland. The Group is looking forward to the annual Fairtrade market in Oakham Castle, so much organising is needed – if you can help, please phone the Group Secretary, Graham Stapleton, on 01572 757456, or simply come along to the Methodist church at 7:30 pm on 10th October.

Open the Book in Primary Schools

Can you help us please? A small team from Oakham Methodist Church have been taking Bible stories into Assemblies at Brooke Hill, Catmose, Brooke Priory and English Martyrs Primary Schools over the past seven years. The visits are popular with the pupils and are at the invitation of the Heads. We use the national Open the Book scheme now used in over 2,000 schools, so that the schools always know what we plan to say. We would very much like some help from the other Oakham churches, either to join us – we visit schools on Tuesday mornings – or to set up a team from your church to visit a school. If you would like to know more, please phone or email John Haden (01572 720428 or jdjhaden@btinternet.com) for more information and an invitation to come and see what we do on our visits to Brooke Hill and Catmose on 10 Oct, 14 Nov 12 Dec.

Confirmation and Christian Basics

Would you like to join a confirmation preparation class, to prepare for confirmation next year? Or would you like to join in the course (with people of your own age) as a 'refresher' of Christian basics? We will confirm dates and details depending on how many candidates we have and their needs – at this stage we are just looking for expressions of interest. This is open to people from churches from across the Team. Our curate Revd Iain Osborne will be organising this, please speak to him or one of the other clergy if you might be interested.

George Kirk RIP

George's funeral service will be held at All Saints Oakham tomorrow, Monday 2nd October at 11:00am.

Guli's Consecration

Rev'd Canon Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani is to be consecrated as Bishop of Loughborough on Thursday 30 November at Canterbury Cathedral. The coach is now fully booked (but there is a waiting list), and payment of £22 should be made by cheque to Janine in the office or online. The coach will collect from All Saints Oakham at 6:30am, then from the Co-op store in Oakham afterwards. The ceremony is at 11:00am and the return will be at 3:00pm, giving time to eat and explore. If you are planning to attend the service, but are not using the coach, please let Janine have your name so that a seat can be reserved for you.
