8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Processional Hymn*

1. Awake, awake: fling off the night!
for God has sent his glorious light;
and we who live in Christ's new day must works of darkness put away.
2. Awake and rise, with love renewed,
and with the Spirit's power endued.
The light of life in us must glow,
the fruits of truth and goodness show.
3. Let in the light: all sin expose to Christ, whose life no darkness knows.
Before his cross for guidance kneel;
his light will judge and, judging, heal.
4. Awake, and rise up from the dead,
and Christ his light on you will shed.
Its power will wrong desires destroy,
and your whole nature fill with joy.
5. Then sing for joy, and use each day;
give thanks for everything always.
Lift up your hearts; with one accord praise God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Words: John Raphael Peacey (1896-1971)

Music: Deus tuorum militum, Grenoble church melody, harm Michael Fleming (1928-2006) (Ancient & Modern – 327)

Collect

Almighty God,
give us grace to cast away the works of darkness
and to put on the armour of light,
now in the time of this mortal life,
in which your Son Jesus Christ came to us in great humility;
that on the last day,
when he shall come again in his glorious majesty
to judge the living and the dead,
we may rise to the life immortal;
through him who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Isaiah 64.1-9

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence – as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil – to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence! When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. Yet, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Do not be exceedingly angry, O LORD, and do not remember iniquity for ever. Now consider, we are all your people.

Second Reading – I Corinthians 1.3-9*

My brothers and sisters: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind – just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you – so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gradual Hymn*

1. Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
 Longing for truth, we turn to you.
 Make us your own, your holy people;
 light for the world to see.
Christ, be our light!
Shine in our hearts. Shine through the darkness.
Christ, be our light!
Shine in your church gathered today.
2. Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
 Longing for hope, many despair.
 Your word alone has power to save us.
 Make us your living voice.
3. Longing for food, many are hungry.
 Longing for water, many still thirst.
 Make us your bread, broken for others,
 shared until all are fed.
4. Longing for shelter, many are homeless.
 Longing for warmth, many are cold.
 Make us your building, sheltering others,
 walls made of living stone.
5. Many the gifts, many the people, many the hearts that yearn to belong.
 Let us be servants to one another,
 making your kingdom come.

Gospel – Mark 13.24-37

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see “the Son of Man coming in clouds” with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven. ‘From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. ‘But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake – for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.’

Offertory Hymn

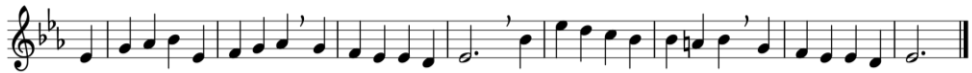

1. O come, O come, Emmanuel,
and ransom captive Israel,
that mourns in lonely exile here,
until the Son of God appear:
Rejoice! rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.
2. O come, thou Rod of Jesse, free thine own from Satan's tyranny; from depths of hell thy people save,
and give them victory o'er the grave:
3. O come, thou Dayspring, come and cheer our spirits by thine advent here;
disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
and death's dark shadows put to flight:
4. O come, thou Key of David, come,
and open wide our heavenly home;
make safe the way that leads on high,
and close the path to misery:
5. O come, O come, thou Lord of Might,
who to thy tribes, on Sinai's height,
in ancient times didst give the law
in cloud, and majesty, and awe:

Words: Latin Advent Antiphons tr John Mason Neale (1818-1866)

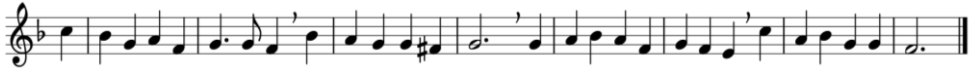

Music: Veni Emmanuel, adapted from a French Missal by T Helmore (1811-1890) (Ancient & Modern – 45)

Communion Hymns*

1. The people that in darkness sat
a glorious light have seen;
the light has shined on them who long in shades of death have been.
2. To hail thee, Sun of Righteousness,
the gathering nations come;
they joy as when the reapers bear their harvest treasures home.
3. For unto us a child is born,
to us a Son is given,
and on his shoulder ever rests
all power in earth and heaven.
4. His name shall be the Prince of Peace,
the everlasting Lord,
the Wonderful, the Counsellor,
the God by all adored.
5. His righteous government and power shall over all extend;
on judgement and on justice based,
his reign shall have no end.
6. Lord Jesus, reign in us, we pray,
and make us thine alone,
who with the Father ever art
and Holy Spirit One.

Words: Scottish Paraphrases 1781, John Morrison (1750-1798), based on Isaiah 9.2-7 Music: Dundee, melody from the Scottish Psalter 1615, as set in Ravenscroft's The Whole Booke of Psalmes 1621 (Ancient & Modern – 391)

1. Hark the glad sound! the Saviour comes,
the Saviour promised long;
let every heart prepare a throne,
and every voice a song.

2. He comes, the prisoners to release in Satan's bondage held;
the gates of brass before him burst,
the iron fetters yield.

3. He comes, the broken heart to bind,
the bleeding soul to cure,
and with the treasures of his grace
to enrich the humble poor.

4. Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace, thy welcome shall proclaim;
and heaven's eternal arches ring
with thy beloved Name.

Words: Philip Doddridge (1702-1751)

Music: Bristol, adapted from a version in Ravenscroft's The Whole Booke of Psalmes, 1621 by Compilers of Hymns Ancient & Modern 1861 (Ancient & Modern – 36)

Post Communion Prayer

O Lord our God,
make us watchful and keep us faithful
as we await the coming of your Son our Lord;
that, when he shall appear,
he may not find us sleeping in sin
but active in his service
and joyful in his praise;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Advent Candle Hymn

*'Christmas is coming!'; the Church is glad to sing,
and let the advent candles brightly burn in a ring.*

1. The first is for God's promise to put the wrong things right, and bring to earth's darkness the hope of love and light.

Words: John L. Bell (b 1949) Music: Advent Ring, John L. Bell (b 1949)

© 1992, Wild Goose Resource Group, The Iona Community (Hymns of Glory Songs of Praise – 282)

Final Hymn*

1. God of freedom, God of justice, you whose love is strong as death,
you who saw the dark of prison,
you who knew the price of faith –
touch our world of sad oppression with your Spirit's healing breath.

2. Rid the earth of torture's terror, you whose hands were nailed to wood,
hear the cries of pain and protest,
you who shed the tears and blood –
move in us the power of pity restless for the common good.

3. Make in us a captive conscience quick to hear, to act, to plead;
make us truly sisters, brothers of whatever race or creed – teach us to be fully human,
open to each other's need.

Words: Shirley Erena Murray (b 1931)

Music: Rhuddlan Welsh traditional melody in Musical Relics of Welsh Bards 1800, harmonised by Compilers of English Hymnal 1906 (Ancient & Modern – 559)

7:30pm – RUTLAND THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY – Oakham Methodist Church

The Kingdom of God and The Big Bang Theory (TV version): Explorations in Theology and Popular Culture. Speaker: Professor Clive Marsh, Director of Lifelong Learning, University of Leicester. The talk will explore ways in which theological ideas and concepts interweave with what crops up in everyday life – in the form of the products of media, culture and the arts, and the practices (of watching, viewing and listening) associated with them. Is there such a thing as 'theology in public'? Whether there is or not, what happens to religious believers who 'consume' such things? How does explicit religiosity relate to everyday 'meaning-making'? And what of those who are not religious who also watch TV, listen to music and play sport? Clive is Head of the Vaughan Centre for Lifelong Learning at the University of Leicester, and a Local Preacher in the Methodist Church. For further information visit www.rutlandtheologicalsociety.co.uk. Non-members £4.

Hopes and Vision

We had a good gathering at the meeting last Saturday to start the process of focussing on our hopes for the future and our vision of where we should be heading under the leadership of a new Team Rector. Under the astute and encouraging leadership of Revd David Newman, Warden of Launde Abbey, we looked at our strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats, and identified priorities for the future.

More information is available on the website, and if you would like to add to the discussion you can do so there, or directly to the churchwardens, Alison and Ann.

Oakham Autumn Sale

We are pleased to inform you that the Autumn Sale this year raised £2,315.22. Thank you to all who helped in any way whatsoever. It was a most enjoyable event which brought in the local community and put All Saints at the heart of a lovely Saturday in town. Elaine and Graham Peel.

Thank you also to Elaine & Graham for organising the event so efficiently in their first year in the role. They are keen to receive feedback from all helpers on how to make it even better next year, and we look forward to Saturday 17 November 2018!.

FoodBank Trustee Secretary

Rutland Foodbank are looking for a Trustees meeting Secretary. This is someone who can come six times a year, presently on Wednesdays, to take Minutes and write them up promptly. The person should have some experience of this, see confidentiality as paramount, would not have to be part of decision taking, and see our work as very important! Please contact Helen Baggott (hrbaggott@gmail.com or 01572 771082).

Welcome Leaflet Distributors

Thank you to those who have volunteered to help with the delivery of the Welcome and Christmas Leaflets. Patrick Wilson will be giving out the leaflets and street lists to you after the 10:30am service today.

Toilet

We are pleased to be able to tell you that the toilet in the Mayhew Room in Oakham Church has now been replaced. Apologies for the inconvenience of it not being available over the last couple of weeks.

Mothers' Union Presentation

Congratulations to Joyce Halliday, who on Wednesday last week at the Rutland Care Village communion service was presented with a certificate to commemorate 60 years membership of the Mothers' Union by the Peterborough President, Barbara Haynes, pictured here with them is her son David, and some of our Oakham branch members.

Oakham Nativity Tableau

The practise for the Nativity Tableau is on Saturday 16 December 2017 at 2:00pm in the Church. All children wanting to take part should be there. Megan Davis is in charge. Please let her know if you are coming though it is alright to turn up on that day. The Tableau will be performed during the 10:30am service on 17 December.

Oakham Christmas Post

Oakham All Saints Scout Group is back running the local Oakham only Christmas Post scheme this year. For a small donation for each card (20-30p is our suggested donation but we are flexible and appreciate all the donations we receive) we will hand deliver your cards to addresses in Oakham. We will be in church morning services to collect cards on the following dates – 3, 10 & 17 December. We will also be collecting at our meetings on Monday and Thursday at the Scout Hut on Grampian Way, and have a stall planned for the Late Night Shopping event on Monday 11 December. We hope to use the money to fund all sections in terms of badges and activities and to help subsidise camps and visits.

Revd Brian Nicholls RIP

We are sorry to report that Brain Nicholls sadly passed away last Saturday following a time of illness. Brian was well known to many of us as he was a regular celebrant at many of our Team Churches, and he will be sadly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with Liz and rest of his family at this time. Brian's funeral will take place at Oakham on Thursday 21 December at 11:30am.

Late Night Shopping

Oakham Late Night Shopping will be on Monday 11th December, and All Saints will be open as an oasis of calm amid the bustle of the rest of the town. If you are able to help serving mulled wine and mince pies, or can just be in church to meet people, please speak to Araminta Mathias. Meanwhile, at the Buttercross, Oakham Baptist Church will be hosting Crib, Crackers & Carols, with a live interactive Nativity, children's cracker making with Christmas music, punch and nibbles.

Posada – Travelling Nativity

Today, Advent Sunday, the travelling nativities start their journey from Oakham and Langham, and last night from Whissendine, going from house to house. If they are to visit you, you will know, but this year everyone can join in by following their journeys on the special blog page on the website. If you are hosting the Holy Family, you will find an invitation with instructions on how to email a photo with a short resumé of their progress, which will automatically be added to the blog within half an hour, so let's all follow their progress on oakhamteam.uk (follow the link on the front page).

Oakham PCC

At the meeting on 20 November Gordon reported the results of the stewardship campaign (details elsewhere) – there would be a letter of thanks from Lee to all givers; alms box – we now have agreement for a new one, which will be installed as soon as possible; church toilet – this would be completely refurbished soon, thanks to funding from the Church Hall committee; other minor maintenance matters were discussed; Deanery Synod – the programme for 2018 was outlined; health & safety – a written policy is in progress; Christmas leaflet – this is available, and in addition to usual outlets will be distributed to Oakham Heights with the CTiO welcome leaflet; mission giving – the planning meeting will be on Tue 19 Dec. For more details see the full minutes on the North Door noticeboard.

Oakham Stewardship

We want to say thank you to God, and to all parishioners involved, for the response to the recent stewardship campaign. The highlights are:

- 75% of those who responded have increased their giving.
- The total annual giving by gift aid, (which is an important figure to track, as it represents our regular committed income), should increase from what we expect to be £86,000 in 2017 to £98,000 in 2018.
- Together with the tax reclaim, it represents an increase of £15,000 in our annual income. That's slightly better than our three previous campaigns, where the figure was around £12/13,000.
- It will cover 75% of our budgeted total expenditure for the year.
- It means that the loss projected for this year of £7,000 should become a surplus next year of £2,000, despite increased expenses. For those who have increased their giving, can we remind you that you need to advise your bank to amend your standing order.

And for those who have yet to return their pledge form, it is not too late - Gordon will be delighted to receive your form, either in church or at 3 Peterborough Ave. Again thank you.

Mapping Advent

An invitation to reflect on Advent themes through art, poetry and music as well as Scripture, using the popular Mapping Advent material. Each session is a stand-alone, so please do just come to only one if that is all you can manage. The group will be led by Revd Charlotte Osborn and Ellie Dimou, and meet in Ellie's home, 20 Northgate, Oakham, LE15 6QS, just opposite All Saints. Ellie asks if we can enter by the side gate and NOT ring the bell, so as not to disturb her landlady unnecessarily. There will be both an afternoon and an evening group, meeting on alternate Tuesday and Wednesdays as follows:

Tuesday 28th November 1:30pm and 7:00pm – Watching and Waiting

Wednesday 6th December 1:30pm and 7:00pm – Preparing a Place

Tuesday 12th December 1:30pm and 7:00pm – The need for Change

Wednesday 20th December 1:30pm and 7:00pm – Saying Yes

All materials are provided, and it will not matter if you have looked at this last year, as there is much still to discover. Sessions will last for 90 minutes, and include tea/coffee. All are welcome to join as and when you are able.

Lead Theft

St Peter's Brooke has recently had about 20ft of lead guttering stolen, so please be aware and vigilant with regard to lead theft – it's obviously still happening.

Oakham Mission Giving

The annual meeting to determine how this year's Mission Giving from All Saints Oakham will be allocated takes place on Wednesday 13 December, and you are invited to let us know if you have a charity that you would like to be considered. Please speak to Lee, the churchwardens or Peter Hill, or directly to Michael Wilson (01572 720853 or michael.wilson@oakhamteam.org.uk) or submit a suggestion via the website. We aim to achieve a balance between local, national and international charities.

Ecclesiastical Insurance

Ecclesiastical, who insure the church, are celebrating their 130th anniversary by offering a donation of £130 to the church for every new home insurance policy taken out before December 2018. If you think it would be worth getting a quote for your own house insurance, please see the website for more details.

Staffing News

Revd Canon Julie Hutchinson. We are pleased to announce that Julie has been appointed to a house-for-duty post at Harston in the High Framland Benefice, a rural benefice between Grantham and Melton Mowbray. She and Phillip will be moving at the end of January – details will be advised soon.

Revd Canon Lee Francis-Dehqani. Lee, Guli and family will be moving to Leicester during February half-term as Guli takes up her post as Bishop of Loughborough, and Lee's farewell service will be a Team Communion at Oakham on Sunday 18th February at 10:30am.

Leaving Presents

The Oakham churchwardens are organising leaving presents for Lee and Guli, and if you would like to make a contribution you can do so directly to them, or via the village churchwardens.

Pantomime

On 6 January 2018, we are going to the RATS (Rutland Arts Theatre Company). They are putting on Snow White, at Brooke Priory School Theatre, in Station Road, Oakham, starting at 2.30pm. Tickets are £8 for adults and £5 for children, the Church will pay £5 towards Sunday School, ASH or ASK pupils. Afterwards we shall have fish and chips together. Please can you let me know as soon as possible if you are interested, then I can get the tickets. If there is anyone else in the congregation who would also like to come, please let me know. Robin Robson (robin@oakhamteam.org.uk)

Traidcraft Fairtrade Christmas Catalogue

The Autumn catalogue is now out with all the usual wonderful range of Christmas cards, foods and present ideas. If you would like a copy please do get in touch (01572 722729 / 07981 639649 or fairtrade@oakhamteam.org.uk). Thank you to everyone for their ongoing support of Fairtrade. Denise.

Consecration of the Bishop of Loughborough

Recd Canon Guli Francis-Dehqani was consecrated as the first Bishop of Loughborough on Thursday 30 November in Canterbury Cathedral, and a good number of people from the Oakham Team were privileged to be in the congregation to support her and her family. With thanks to Richard Adams and Jane Ince for the photos.

St Nicholas Day – Welcome Morning and Holy Communion – 10:00am 6th December

Every Wednesday at 10:00am there is a celebration of Holy Communion in the Chapel of the St John and St Anne's almshouse charity, in St Anne's Close, Oakham. This offers a warm, simple celebration of the Eucharist: short, with no hymns or sermon, and the chapel has toilet facilities. There is also an opportunity for a chat afterwards in the almshouse lounge. Why not add this to your weekly routine? It could combine with a trip to the market, for you or a carer. On St Nicholas Day (Wednesday 6th December) we are holding a Welcome Morning: an opportunity to sample the service, and then coffee and St Nicholas biscuits. Please come. On Wednesday 20 December the service will be the Carol Service, including the dedication of the new organ.

Rutland Foodbank Christmas Hampers

Rutland Foodbank will be giving Christmas Hampers to those in our county who may struggle to buy those small luxuries that make Christmas a celebration. The hampers will include mince pies, Christmas puddings, chocolates and even family games. We are still in need of more cash donations. £20 will sponsor one hamper but any amount is welcome – cheques made payable to 'Rutland Foodbank'. Donations can be made to the Team Office at Oakham, or via team ministers in the villages, by 7 December if possible.
