Gloria

1. Glory be to God in heaven,
songs of praise and peace we bring,
thankful hearts and voices raising,
to creation's Lord we sing.
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you;
glory be to God our King,
glory be to God our King.

2. Lamb of God, who on your shoulder bore the load of this world's sin,
only Son of God the Father,
you have brought us peace within.
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy;
now your glorious reign begin,
now your glorious reign begin.

Music: Cwm Rhondda, John Hughes (1873-1932)

Collect

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers
and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature
we can do no good thing without you,
grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Daniel 9.4-11, 17-19

I prayed to the Lord my God and made confession, saying, 'Ah, Lord, great and awesome God, keeping covenant and steadfast love with those who love you and keep your commandments, we have sinned and done wrong, acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from your commandments and ordinances. We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our ancestors, and to all the people of the land. 'Righteousness is on your side, O Lord, but open shame, as at this day, falls on us, the people of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, those who are near and those who are far away, in all the lands to which you have driven them, because of the treachery that they have committed against you. Open shame, O Lord, falls on us, our kings, our officials, and our ancestors, because we have sinned against you. To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God by following his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. 'All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside, refusing to obey your voice. So the curse and the oath written in the law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured out upon us, because we have sinned against you. Now therefore, O our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his supplication, and for your own sake, Lord, let your face shine upon your desolated sanctuary. O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, listen and act and do not delay! For your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people bear your name!

Second Reading – Acts 4:23-31

After they were released, they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them. When they heard it, they raised their voices together to God and said, 'Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth, the sea, and everything in them, it is you who said by the Holy Spirit through our ancestor David, your servant: "Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples imagine vain things? The kings of the earth took their stand, and the rulers have gathered together against the Lord and against his Messiah." For in this city, in fact, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take place. And now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness, while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus.' When they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God with boldness.

Gospel – Luke 11:1-13

He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.' He said to them, 'When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.' And he said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him." And he answers from within, "Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything." I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs. So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal Father,
 we thank you for nourishing us with these heavenly gifts:
 may our communion strengthen us in faith,
 build us up in hope, and make us grow in love;
 for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Help The Homeless

Council / Church Briefing – How To Help The Homeless. Building on the introductory meeting in March, a briefing meeting for church members and the general public will be held on Thursday 7th June, 7:00-8:30pm at Oakham Baptist Church, Melton Rd, Oakham, LE15 6AY. This will advise on the statutory and community services available to support people vulnerable to homelessness. The briefing is arranged by Churches Together in Oakham and by Rutland County Council. Town churches and the council worked in partnership last winter to support homeless people in Oakham. Rev'd Canon Leo Osborn, Chair of Churches Together in Oakham, said: "Most of us have had the experience of seeing someone in need, but not knowing how best to help them. Everyone vulnerable to homelessness needs understanding and support, so Churches and Rutland County Council are stepping forward to enable us to learn about the help that is available and the part we can play". Please speak to Revd Iain Osborne for further information.

Church Cleaning

Our cleaning team at Oakham are complete heroes – a small band, they keep the main part of the church sparkling right through the year, but if you look up at the roof you'll see the spiders have been busy and the muck is building up again. It's time for the Church Big Clean again! This year it's happening on Saturdays 9 and 16 June 9:30am-12:00pm, and we'll be cleaning the high parts, then (when all the dust etc has come down to ground level) cleaning the furniture, windowsills and all the reachable areas. We need (a) as many people as possible to help and (b) some ways of shifting dust from the capitals and arches without us leaving the ground. Some of you may remember Owen's 20-foot long feather duster! Ideas to Ann Blackett, and please sign up on the notice by the South door. Thank you very much!

Jam Jars Not Needed

For the time being Pamela has enough jam jars for future use. Thanks to everyone who has given some. Look out for a future request when all are used up!

Postcards Needed

Mission Aviation Fellowship, who do much good work in many countries where the terrain is difficult has given the church a box to collect postcards. They would like people to give used or unused ones as they can be sold to raise money for the charity. The box is on the table at the south door at Oakham.

Friends Committee

The Friends of All Saints Church are looking for willing volunteers to join their small, friendly Committee to help plan social events. This is not an onerous position, as we only have committee meetings about half a dozen times a year and it would be an excellent way of meeting more people and making new friends. Contact Liz Plummer (01572 720506 or friends@oakhamteam.org.uk) if you are interested.

Oakham PCC

At the PCC meeting on 17 May the following matters were discussed: (1) Elections: Deputy Churchwardens – Peter Kinal & Robin Robson; Secretary – Marilyn Tomalin; Treasurer – Peter Hill; Standing Committee – Robin Robson & Carol Scotthern; (2) Finance: Two legacies totalling £2,500 have been received recently, but in real terms we are £1,800 under budget for planned giving and £2,000 over budget for expenditure, so care and a review of the budget may be necessary. A stewardship campaign follow-up was recommended, and we will liaise with Richard Plummer about this. (3) Fabric: We have received an electrical inspection report, and the quinquennial inspection has been carried out (report awaited, but expenditure of £10-15,000 predicted). Proposed alterations to floodlighting are hoped to be in place before Remembrance Sunday. Kenneth Tickell & Company are closing their business, and future tuning of the organ will be undertaken by Simon Brown (their former employee). Some maintenance to the bells would be necessary at a cost of around £1,500; (4) Health & Safety: A subcommittee will develop and implement a policy; (5) GDPR: The Data Policy and Consent Form prepared by Iain and Kevin were adopted with some possible tweaking, and we are working towards centralising our data storage; (6) Churches Together: Various initiatives, including a Mission to Oakham under consideration by the ministers; (7) A post-sermon discussion group is to be formed after the 10:30 service; (8) Deanery Synod: Elections to Diocesan Synod are coming up soon – anyone interested in standing should speak to John Tomalin; (9) Vacancy – a shortlist of two applicants would be interviewed on 21 June; (10) Cleaning Day: Saturday 16 June – volunteers to Pat Munro.

Ordination of Priests

Sunday 24 June is a significant day for us, as Iain and Charlotte our curates, are ordained as priests at Peterborough Cathedral at 11:00am. We hope as many as possible will attend – there are no morning services in the Team – and also on the occasions of their presiding at Holy Communion for the first time at Oakham – Iain on the same day at 6:00pm and Charlotte on Sunday 1 July at 10:30am. There will of course be a collection for them, and if you would like to contribute towards ordination gifts please give contributions to your churchwardens or leave them in an envelope in the office at Oakham.

Recruitment

Interviews of two candidates for the new Team Rector will take place on 21 June and if all goes well it is hoped that someone might be in post during September. Please keep praying for the people who are involved in the recruitment process, and for the candidates. Pray that all will discern their way forward, that the Patronage Board will do its work well, and that God will send us someone who will help us become who we're called to be, both as a church and as individual followers of Jesus Christ. There will be opportunities to pray together at an evening of prayer from 6:00-9:00pm on Thursday 14 June. Please see the diary entry for full details.
