Gloria

1. Glory in the highest to the God of heaven!
Peace to all your people through the earth be given!
Mighty God and Father, thanks and praise we bring,
singing Alleluia to our heavenly king;
2. Jesus Christ is risen, God the Father's Son!
With the Holy Spirit you are Lord alone!
Lamb once killed for sinners, all our guilt to bear,
show us now your mercy, now receive our prayer;
3. Christ the world's true Saviour, high and holy one,
seated now and reigning from your Father's throne:
Lord and God, we praise you! Highest heaven adores:
in the Father's glory, all the praise be yours!

Words: Christopher Idle (b 1938)

Music: Evelyns, William Henry Monk (1823-1889) – AM 593ii (Ancient & Modern – 415)

Collect

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Additional Collect

Faithful Creator, whose mercy never fails:
deepen our faithfulness to you and to your living Word, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading – Genesis 3.8-15

They heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden. But the LORD God called to the man, and said to him, 'Where are you?' He said, 'I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.' He said, 'Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?' The man said, 'The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate.' Then the LORD God said to the woman, 'What is this that you have done?' The woman said, 'The serpent tricked me, and I ate.' The LORD God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel.'

Second Reading – 2 Corinthians 4.13–5.1*

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture – 'I believed, and so I spoke' – we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God. So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal. For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Gospel – Mark 3.20-35

The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his companions could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, 'He has gone out of his mind.' And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, 'He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons.' And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered. Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin' – for they had said, 'He has an unclean spirit.' Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, 'Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you.' And he replied, 'Who are my mother and my brothers?' And looking at those who sat around him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.'

Post Communion Prayer

Loving Father,
we thank you for feeding us at the supper of your Son:
sustain us with your Spirit,
that we may serve you here on earth
until our joy is complete in heaven, and we share in the eternal banquet with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MU Coffee Morning

Many thanks to everybody who came to the Coffee Morning on 1st June. It seemed a happy occasion and it was a great success. A total of £186.40 was banked and will be sent to help MU work in this country and abroad. Thank you if you brought cakes or bought them to take home. Meg and David also sold plenty of MU cards which also helps the funds.

Revd Canon Sue Pinnington OBE

Sue will be installed as the first Archdeacon of the Gwent Valleys and the Diocesan Director of Mission in the Diocese of Monmouth on 7th July. Sue was Curate at Oakham with Michael Covington from 1997-2000, and is currently rector of Houghton le Spring in the Durham Diocese.

John Denny RIP

John Denny sadly passed away peacefully on 11 May. If anyone wishes to send a card, Janine has the address.

Rutland Foodbank AGM

This will be held in All Saints Church Hall, Oakham on Monday 18th June from 5:00-6:00pm. Tea and cakes will be served and the Annual Report will be available in booklet form. All are welcome... do come along to hear about the work which the Foodbank have done this past year and to ask any questions.

Help The Homeless

Council / Church Briefing – How To Help The Homeless. Building on the introductory meeting in March, a briefing meeting for church members and the general public will be held on Thursday 7th June, 7:00-8:30pm at Oakham Baptist Church, Melton Rd, Oakham, LE15 6AY. This will advise on the statutory and community services available to support people vulnerable to homelessness. The briefing is arranged by Churches Together in Oakham and by Rutland County Council. Town churches and the council worked in partnership last winter to support homeless people in Oakham. Rev'd Canon Leo Osborn, Chair of Churches Together in Oakham, said: "Most of us have had the experience of seeing someone in need, but not knowing how best to help them. Everyone vulnerable to homelessness needs understanding and support, so Churches and Rutland County Council are stepping forward to enable us to learn about the help that is available and the part we can play". Please speak to Revd Iain Osborne for further information.

Church Cleaning

Our cleaning team at Oakham are complete heroes – a small band, they keep the main part of the church sparkling right through the year, but if you look up at the roof you'll see the spiders have been busy and the muck is building up again. It's time for the Church Big Clean again! This year it's happening on Saturdays 9 and 16 June 9:30am-12:00pm, and we'll be cleaning the high parts, then (when all the dust etc has come down to ground level) cleaning the furniture, windowsills and all the reachable areas. We need (a) as many people as possible to help and (b) some ways of shifting dust from the capitals and arches without us leaving the ground. Some of you may remember Owen's 20-foot long feather duster! Ideas to Ann Blackett, and please sign up on the notice by the South door. Thank you very much!

Ordination of Priests

Sunday 24 June is a significant day for us, as Iain and Charlotte our curates, are ordained as priests at Peterborough Cathedral at 11:00am. We hope as many as possible will attend – there are no morning services in the Team – and also on the occasions of their presiding at Holy Communion for the first time at Oakham – Iain on the same day at 6:00pm and Charlotte on Sunday 1 July at 10:30am. There will of course be a collection for them, and if you would like to contribute towards ordination gifts please give contributions to your churchwardens or leave them in an envelope in the office at Oakham.

Recruitment

Interviews of two candidates for the new Team Rector will take place on 21 June and if all goes well it is hoped that someone might be in post during September. Please keep praying for the people who are involved in the recruitment process, and for the candidates. Pray that all will discern their way forward, that the Patronage Board will do its work well, and that God will send us someone who will help us become who we're called to be, both as a church and as individual followers of Jesus Christ. There will be opportunities to pray together at an evening of prayer from 6:00-9:00pm on Thursday 14 June. Please see the diary entry for full details.

The background of the flyer is a photograph of St Peter's Church in Brooke. The image shows a tall, stone tower with a crenellated top on the left side. To the right, a portion of the church's Gothic-style architecture is visible, including a pointed archway. In the foreground, the lower legs and feet of several people are visible as they stand on a green lawn. The sky is blue with some light clouds. A solid green horizontal bar is at the top of the page.
