Gloria

1. All glory be to God on high,
his peace on earth proclaim;
to all his people tell abroad
the grace and glory of the Lord,
and bless his holy name,
and bless his holy name.

2. In songs of thankfulness and praise
our hearts their homage bring to worship him who reigns above
almighty Father, Lord of love,
our God and heavenly King,
our God and heavenly King.

3. O Christ, the Father's only Son,
O Lamb enthroned on high,
O Jesus, who for sinners died
and reigns at God the Father's side,
in mercy hear our cry,
in mercy hear our cry.

4. Most high and holy is the Lord,
most high his heavenly throne;
where God the Father, God the Son
and God the Spirit, ever one,
in glory reigns alone,
in glory reigns alone.

*Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b 1926) Music: Repton, C H H Parry (1848-1918)

Collect

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service,
that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Additional Collect

God our saviour,
look on this wounded world in pity and in power;
hold us fast to your promises of peace
won for us by your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

First Reading – Ezekiel 17.22-24***

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind. All the trees of the field shall know that I am the LORD. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the LORD have spoken; I will accomplish it.

Second Reading – 2 Corinthians 5.6-10, 14-17

Brothers and sisters, we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord – for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil. The love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

Gospel – Mark 4.26-34

Such a large crowd gathered around Jesus that he got into a boat and began to teach them using many parables. Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.' Jesus also said, 'With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.' With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Post Communion Prayer

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend: show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

You are warmly invited to join us at this meeting to hear about news and events in the past year.

Iris May RIP

It is with regret that we record that Iris May sadly passed away on 6 June. Her funeral will be in Oakham Church on Tuesday 26 June at 2:00pm.

Friends/MU Outing to Sheffield

David and I have been again to Sheffield to check all is in order for the visit to Kelham Island Museum and the Cathedral on 28th June. The Cathedral is a delight. Sheffield's oldest building recently refurbished and renewed in a most interesting and sympathetic way with visitors made most welcome. We enjoyed the liturgy and music of the 10:30am Eucharist and felt part of their church community for a short while during coffee following the service. The Cathedral has many points of interest which we will be shown on our tours. At Kelham Island Museum you can experience the atmosphere of Sheffield's industrial past, encounter buffer girls, little mesters and find out how steelmaking has changed over the years. Along the way you will uncover how Sheffield grew from a rural village into the steel city. There is much to see and learn with places to sit and rest as you go. For lunch The Steam Hammer Café serves a choice of soup, quiche, sandwiches, paninis, salads, a ploughman's lunch and a vegetarian platter, hot and cold drinks. Details of the outing are on the posters and the sign up list is on the table near the South door. A few seats on the coach remain. Don't miss out on an interesting day's outing. Beryl and David Kirtland.

Thank You

Many of you will know that during the winter I was seriously ill with pneumonia and septic shock. Despite the fact that I knew how ill I was I felt calm and peaceful throughout which I'm sure was because so many people were praying for me. I can't tell you how much it meant and will be forever grateful to you. The road to recovery has been long and slow but I now feel that I'm back to my normal self. Thank you so much. With my love and gratitude, Hildred.

MU Coffee Morning

Many thanks to everybody who came to the Coffee Morning on 1st June. It seemed a happy occasion and it was a great success. A total of £186.40 was banked and will be sent to help MU work in this country and abroad. Thank you if you brought cakes or bought them to take home. Meg and David also sold plenty of MU cards which also helps the funds.

Revd Canon Sue Pinnington OBE

Sue will be installed as the first Archdeacon of the Gwent Valleys and the Diocesan Director of Mission in the Diocese of Monmouth on 7th July. Sue was Curate at Oakham with Michael Covington from 1997-2000, and is currently rector of Houghton le Spring in the Durham Diocese.

Rutland Foodbank AGM

This will be held in All Saints Church Hall, Oakham on Monday 18th June from 5:00-6:00pm. Tea and cakes will be served and the Annual Report will be available in booklet form. All are welcome... do come along to hear about the work which the Foodbank have done this past year and to ask any questions.

Ordination of Priests

Sunday 24 June is a significant day for us, as Iain and Charlotte our curates, are ordained as priests at Peterborough Cathedral at 11:00am. We hope as many as possible will attend – there are no morning services in the Team – and also on the occasions of their presiding at Holy Communion for the first time at Oakham – Iain on the same day at 6:00pm and Charlotte on Sunday 1 July at 10:30am. There will of course be a collection for them, and if you would like to contribute towards ordination gifts please give contributions to your churchwardens or leave them in an envelope in the office at Oakham.

Recruitment

Interviews of two candidates for the new Team Rector will take place on 21 June and if all goes well it is hoped that someone might be in post during September. Please keep praying for the people who are involved in the recruitment process, and for the candidates. Pray that all will discern their way forward, that the Patronage Board will do its work well, and that God will send us someone who will help us become who we're called to be, both as a church and as individual followers of Jesus Christ. There will be opportunities to pray together at an evening of prayer from 6:00-9:00pm on Thursday 14 June. Please see the diary entry for full details.
