8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Family Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. In Christ there is no east or west, in him no south or north,
but one great fellowship of love
throughout the whole wide earth.
2. In him shall true hearts everywhere their high communion find; his service is the golden cord, close binding humankind.
3. Join hands, then, children of the faith, whate' er your race may be;
who serves my Father as his child is surely kin to me.
4. In Christ now meet both east and west, in him meet south and north;
all Christlike souls are one in him,
throughout the whole wide earth.

Words: John Oxenham (William Arthur Dunkerley) (1852-1941)

Music: Kilmarnock, melody, and most of the harmony, by Neill Dougall (1776-1862)

Collect

Almighty God,
you have broken the tyranny of sin and have sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father:
give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – 2 Corinthians 5.6-10, 14-17

Brothers and sisters, we are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord – for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil. The love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

Gradual Hymn*

1. Jesus Christ, perfect love, Holy One that knows no fault, screen my thoughts, make me clean, know the motives of my heart.
 When I see my selfish choice, when I glimpse your holiness,
 then I realise again
 perfect love has come to cleanse.

2. Jesus Christ, Lord for all, plant in me the kingdom seed.
 Search me, Lord, when I'm found looking only to my needs.
 When I see the way you lived,
 how you dignified the poor,
 then I realise again
 how I need to know you more.

3. Jesus Christ, Lamb of God, love resolved to take our place.
 Who can write or describe all of your self-giving grace?
 When I look at the brutal cross, innocence and beauty slain, that's when I realise once more you fully understand our pain.

4. Jesus Christ, King of heav'n, qualified to wear the crown.
 In your face, radiant grace draws us closer to your throne.
 When we see your gen'rous heart, when we touch the world you love, that's when we realise again;
 perfect love is perfect hope.

Gospel – Mark 4.26-34

Such a large crowd gathered around Jesus that he got into a boat and began to teach them using many parables. Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.' Jesus also said, 'With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.' With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Offertory Hymn*

1. Hope of our calling: hope through courage won by those who dared to share all Christ had done.
Saints of today, Christ's banner now unfurled, will bring his gospel to a waiting world.
2. Hope of our calling: hope with strength empowered, inspired by all that we have seen and heard;
this call is ours, for we are chosen too,
to live for God in all we say and do.
3. Hope of our calling: hope with grace outpoured, from death's despair the gift of life restored;
our call to serve, to wash each other's feet,
to bring Christ's healing touch to all we meet.
- 4 Hope of our calling: hope by faith made bold to sow God's righteousness throughout the world; bring peace from conflict, fruitfulness from weeds,
the kingdom's harvest from the kingdom's seeds.
5. Hope of our calling: Spirit-filled, unbound, old joys remembered and new purpose found,
our call refreshed by sacrament and word,
we go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Communion Hymns*

*One bread, one body, one Lord of all, one cup of blessing which we bless.
And we, though many, throughout the earth,
we are one body in this one Lord.*

1. Gentile or Jew,
servant or free,
woman or man, no more.

2. Many the gifts,
many the works,
one in the Lord of all.

3. Grain for the fields, scattered and grown,
gathered to one, for all.

*Words & Music: John Foley SJ (b 1939)
© 1978 John Foley SJ
(Ancient & Modern – 461)*

1. My life flows on in endless song above earth's lamentation:
I catch the sweet, though far-off hymn that sings a new creation.

*No storm can shake ~ inmost calm while to that Rock I'm clinging; since love is Lord of heaven and earth,
how can I keep from singing?*

2. Through all the tumult and the strife
I hear that music ringing;
it finds an echo in my soul;
how can I keep from singing?

3. What though my joys and comforts die?
The Lord my Saviour liveth!
What though the darkness round me close?
Songs in the night he giveth.

4. The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart, a fountain ever springing.
All things are mine since I am his!
How can I keep from singing?

*Words: after an early Quaker song, Robert Lowry (1826-1899) & Doris Plenn (fl 1956)
Music: How Can I Keep from Singing, trad American arr Compilers of Common Ground 1998 (Ancient & Modern – 733)*

Post Communion Prayer

O God, whose beauty is beyond our imagining and whose power we cannot comprehend:
show us your glory as far as we can grasp it, and shield us from knowing more than we can bear until we may look upon you without fear; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. God is working his purpose out as year succeeds to year,
God is working his purpose out,
and the time is drawing near;
nearer and nearer draws the time,
the time that shall surely be,
when the earth shall be filled
with the glory of God
as the waters cover the sea.

2. From utmost east to utmost west wherever feet have trod, by the mouth of many messengers goes forth the voice of God.
'Give ear to me, ye continents, ye isles, give ear to me,
that the earth may filled
with the glory of God
as the waters cover the sea.'

3. What can we do to work God's work, to prosper and increase the love of God in all mankind, the reign of the Prince of peace?
What can we do to hasten the time,
the time that shall surely be,
when the earth shall be filled
with the glory of God
as the waters cover the sea?

4. March we forth in the strength of God with the banner of Christ unfurled, that the light of the glorious gospel of truth may shine throughout the world; fight we the fight with sorrow and sin,
to set their captives free,
that the earth may filled
with the glory of God
as the waters cover the sea.

5. All we can do is nothing worth unless God blesses the deed; vainly we hope for the harvest-tide till God gives life to the seed; yet nearer and nearer draws the time,
the time that shall surely be,
when the earth shall be filled with the glory of God
as the waters cover the sea.

Words: Arthur Campbell Ainger (1841-1919) Music: Benson, Millicent Douglas Kingham (1866-1927) (A&M – 646)

6:00pm Evensong

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book, and the hymns are taken from New English Hymnal.

Opening Hymn

333 – All my hope on God is founded

Psalm 39 dixi custodiam

R Langdon

- 1 I said, I will take | heed to · my | ways :
that I of- | fend not | in my | tongue.
- 2 I will keep my mouth as it | were with · a | bridle :
while the un- | godly · is | in my | sight.
- 3 I held my | tongue and · spake | nothing :
I kept silence yea even from good words; *
| but it · was | pain and | grief to me.
- 4 My heart was hot within me, * and while I was thus musing the | fire — | kindl'd :
and at the | last I | spake with · my | tongue;
- 5 Lord let me know mine end and the | number · of my | days :
that I may be certifi'd how | long I | have to | live.
- 6 Behold thou hast made my days as it | were a · span | long :
and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee; *
and verily every man living is | al-to- | geth-er | vanity.
- 7 For man walketh in a vain shadow and disquieteth him- | self in| vain :
he heapeth up riches and | cannot · tell | who shall | gather them.
- 8 And now Lord | what is · my | hope :
truly my | hope is | even · in | thee.
- †9 Deliver me from | all · mine of- | fences :
and make me not a re- | buke — | unto · the | foolish.
- 10 I became dumb and | open'd · not my | mouth :
for | it was | thy — | doing.
- 11 Take thy | plague a- | way from me :
I am even consum'd by the | means of · thy | hea-vy | hand.
- 12a When thou with rebukes dost | chasten · man for | sin,
thou makest his | beauty · to con- | sume a- | way,
- 12b like as it were a moth | fretting · a | garment :
every man | there-fore | is but | vanity.

- 13 Hear my prayer O Lord, * and with thine ears con- | sider · my | cal- || ling :
| hold · not thy | peace at · my | tears.
- 14 For I am a | stranger · with | thee :
and a sojourner as | all my | fath-ers | were.
- †15 O spare me a little that I may re- | cover · my | strength :
before I go | hence and · be | no more | seen.
- Glory | be · to the | Father,
and to the | Son and · to the | Ho-ly | Ghost;
As it was in the beginning is | now and · ever | shall be :
world | with-out | end, A- | men.

Iris May RIP

It is with regret that we record that Iris May sadly passed away on 6 June. Her funeral will be in Oakham Church on Tuesday 26 June at 2:00pm.

Friends/MU Outing to Sheffield

David and I have been again to Sheffield to check all is in order for the visit to Kelham Island Museum and the Cathedral on 28th June. The Cathedral is a delight. Sheffield's oldest building recently refurbished and renewed in a most interesting and sympathetic way with visitors made most welcome. We enjoyed the liturgy and music of the 10:30am Eucharist and felt part of their church community for a short while during coffee following the service. The Cathedral has many points of interest which we will be shown on our tours. At Kelham Island Museum you can experience the atmosphere of Sheffield's industrial past, encounter buffer girls, little mesters and find out how steelmaking has changed over the years. Along the way you will uncover how Sheffield grew from a rural village into the steel city. There is much to see and learn with places to sit and rest as you go. For lunch The Steam Hammer Café serves a choice of soup, quiche, sandwiches, paninis, salads, a ploughman's lunch and a vegetarian platter, hot and cold drinks. Details of the outing are on the posters and the sign up list is on the table near the South door. A few seats on the coach remain. Don't miss out on an interesting day's outing. Beryl and David Kirtland.

Thank You

Many of you will know that during the winter I was seriously ill with pneumonia and septic shock. Despite the fact that I knew how ill I was I felt calm and peaceful throughout which I'm sure was because so many people were praying for me. I can't tell you how much it meant and will be forever grateful to you. The road to recovery has been long and slow but I now feel that I'm back to my normal self. Thank you so much. With my love and gratitude, Hildred.

MU Coffee Morning

Many thanks to everybody who came to the Coffee Morning on 1st June. It seemed a happy occasion and it was a great success. A total of £186.40 was banked and will be sent to help MU work in this country and abroad. Thank you if you brought cakes or bought them to take home. Meg and David also sold plenty of MU cards which also helps the funds.

Revd Canon Sue Pinnington OBE

Sue will be installed as the first Archdeacon of the Gwent Valleys and the Diocesan Director of Mission in the Diocese of Monmouth on 7th July. Sue was Curate at Oakham with Michael Covington from 1997-2000, and is currently rector of Houghton le Spring in the Durham Diocese.

Rutland Foodbank AGM

This will be held in All Saints Church Hall, Oakham on Monday 18th June from 5:00-6:00pm. Tea and cakes will be served and the Annual Report will be available in booklet form. All are welcome... do come along to hear about the work which the Foodbank have done this past year and to ask any questions.

Ordination of Priests

Sunday 24 June is a significant day for us, as Iain and Charlotte our curates, are ordained as priests at Peterborough Cathedral at 11:00am. We hope as many as possible will attend – there are no morning services in the Team – and also on the occasions of their presiding at Holy Communion for the first time at Oakham – Iain on the same day at 6:00pm and Charlotte on Sunday 1 July at 10:30am. There will of course be a collection for them, and if you would like to contribute towards ordination gifts please give contributions to your churchwardens or leave them in an envelope in the office at Oakham.

Recruitment

Interviews of two candidates for the new Team Rector will take place on 21 June and if all goes well it is hoped that someone might be in post during September. Please keep praying for the people who are involved in the recruitment process, and for the candidates. Pray that all will discern their way forward, that the Patronage Board will do its work well, and that God will send us someone who will help us become who we're called to be, both as a church and as individual followers of Jesus Christ. There will be opportunities to pray together at an evening of prayer from 6:00-9:00pm on Thursday 14 June. Please see the diary entry for full details.
