8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Family Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. God, whose city's sure foundation stands upon his holy hill,
by his mighty inspiration chose of old and chooseth still men and women from each nation his good pleasure to fulfil.

2. Here before us through the ages, while the Christian years went by,
saints, confessors, martyrs, sages,
strong to live and strong to die,
wrote their names upon the pages of God's blessed company.

3. Some there were like lamps of learning shining in a faithless night, some on fire with love, and burning with a flaming zeal for right, some by simple goodness turning souls from darkness unto light.

4. As we now with high thanksgiving their triumphant names record, grant that we, like them, believing in the promise of thy word, may, like them, in all good living praise and magnify the Lord!

Words: Cyril Argentine Alington (1872-1955)

Music: Westminster Abbey, adapted from an anthem by Henry Purcell (1659-1695) – A&M 291
(Ancient & Modern – 301)

Collect

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us with all goodness,
and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Amos 7.7-15*

This is what he showed me: the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand. And the LORD said to me, ‘Amos, what do you see?’ And I said, ‘A plumb-line.’ Then the Lord said, ‘See, I am setting a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass them by; the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.’ Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, ‘Amos has conspired against you in the very centre of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos has said, “Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.”’ And Amaziah said to Amos, ‘O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, earn your bread there, and prophesy there; but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king’s sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom.’ Then Amos answered Amaziah, ‘I am no prophet, nor a prophet’s son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycomore trees, and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, “Go, prophesy to my people Israel.”’

Second Reading – Ephesians 1.3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in Christ, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God’s own people to the praise of his glory.

Gradual Hymn*

Father God, I wonder how I managed to exist without the knowledge of your parenthood and your loving care.
But now I am your child, I am adopted in your family and I can never be alone 'cause, Father God, you're there beside me.

I will sing your praises, I will sing your praises, I will sing your praises, for evermore.
I will sing your praises, I will sing your praises, I will sing your praises, for evermore.

Words & Music: Ian Smale © 1984 Kingsway's Thankyou Music (The Source – 91)

Gospel – Mark 6.14-29

King Herod heard of the healings and other miracles, for Jesus' name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.' For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed; and yet he liked to listen to him. But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the Baptist.' Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptizer on a platter.' The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Offertory Hymn*

1. Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace;
streams of mercy never ceasing
call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious measure sung by flaming tongues above;
O the vast, the boundless treasure of my Lord's unchanging love!

2. Here I find my greatest treasure:
hither by thy help I've come,
and I hope, by thy good pleasure,
safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
wandering from the fold of God;
he, to rescue me from danger,
interposed his precious blood.

3. O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace, Lord, like a fetter,
bind my wandering heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
take my heart, O take and seal it,
seal it from thy courts above!

Words: Robert Robinson (1735-1790)

*Music: Nettleton, American folk melody, harm John Wilson (1905-1992)
(Ancient & Modern – 379)*

Communion Hymns*

1. Oh, the mercy of God, the glory of grace, that you chose to redeem us, to forgive and restore,
and you call us your children, chosen in him to be holy and blameless to the glory of God.

*To the praise of his glorious grace,
to the praise of his glory and power;
to him be all glory, honour and praise for ever and ever and ever, amen.*

2. Oh, the richness of grace, the depths of his love, in him is redemption, the forgiveness of sin.
You called us as righteous, predestined in him for the praise of his glory, included in Christ.

3. Oh, the glory of God expressed in his Son, his image and likeness revealed to us all;
the plea of the ages completed in Christ,
that we be presented perfected in him.

Word & Musics: Geoff Bullock (b 1956) © 1997 Watershed Productions (Ancient & Modern – 756)

1. Father of mercy, God of consolation,
Look on your people, gathered here to praise you,
Pity our weakness, come in power to aid us,
Source of all blessing.

2. Son of the Father, Lord of all creation,
Come as our Saviour, Jesus, friend of sinners,
Grant us forgiveness, lift our downcast spirit,
Heal us and save us.

3. Life-giving Spirit, be our light in darkness,
Come to befriend us, help us bear our burdens,
Give us true courage, breathe your peace around us,
Stay with us always.

4. God in Three Persons, Father, Son and Spirit,
Come to renew us, fill your Church with glory,
Grant us your healing, pledge of resurrection,
Foretaste of heaven..

Words: James J Quinn SJ (1919-2010) Music: Gerard, Arthur J B Hutchings (1906-1989) (New English Hymnal – 323)

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves
the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup,
we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know, and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?
2. Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind, and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare, will you let me answer prayer in you, and you in me?
3. Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you, and you in me?
4. Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside, and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound in you, and you in me?
5. Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you, and you in me.

Team Rector Appointment

We are delighted to announce that, following interview and with the unanimous approval of the Oakham Patronage Board, the Reverend Stephen Griffiths has accepted Bishop Donald's invitation to be Team Rector of Oakham. Subject to the normal Church of England legal and administrative procedures, Stephen will be Instituted and Inducted by the Bishop of Peterborough and the Archdeacon of Oakham in All Saints, Oakham on Sunday 23 September at 3 pm.

Stephen is currently Team Rector of the Cherwell Valley Benefice and the Rural Dean of Bicester and Islip in the Diocese of Oxford. He is married to Cally and they have two young children, Jonathan and Alexander. Stephen writes: "We are very much looking forward to our move to Oakham and getting to know you all. I was delighted to be asked to serve as your Team Rector, which confirmed the call that God placed in my heart. May God guide us all on the next stage of the journey and bless us as we walk together in faith and fellowship."

Bishop Donald and Archdeacon Gordon are very grateful to all who helped with the preparation of the benefice profile, all the arrangements for the interview day and for the continuing and encouraging ministry of the team in the service of Christ during the vacancy. We ask your prayers for Stephen and his family as they prepare to move to Oakham.

The Venerable Gordon Steele
Archdeacon of Oakham

A message from the new Team Rector

Dear friends,

In a few weeks we will be moving from north Oxfordshire to Oakham. We are already very excited and looking forward to joining you. There are four of us:

Stephen (currently Team Rector of the Cherwell Valley Benefice in Oxfordshire and Rural Dean of Bicester & Islip Deanery), Cally (at home full time with our two boys but previously head of HR for a Christian charity in Oxford), Jonathan (three and a half and ready to start nursery in the mornings in September – keen on steam trains), and Alexander (nearly two – highly ticklish and keen on diggers).

It was a pleasure to meet so many people on the day of the interview and explore God's call to serve amongst you. Jonathan and Alex especially enjoyed attending the church toddler group that day and visiting the castle. Cally and I even managed a visit to the Grainstore Brewery that evening.

I grew up in south Derbyshire, near Burton upon Trent, went to school at Twycross in Leicestershire, trained for ordination at Ridley Hall in Cambridge, served a curacy in Derby, and was a vicar and rural dean in Cumbria before moving to Oxfordshire. Cally is from Bedfordshire, studied and worked in Leicester and moved to Oxford when her workplace relocated. We were married at St. Aldate's Church in Oxford five years ago.

When not busy with church work I enjoy exploring the countryside, visiting historic places, growing food, playing music (piano and organ), and cooking. Cally is a great knitter and loves reading and cycling. As a family we enjoy parks, picnics and making cakes. Throughout the discernment process I've been very impressed by the work going on in the churches in the town and the villages of the Oakham Team and by the contributions made by so many people to the ministry of the church. What a privilege to be asked to join you as Vicar of Oakham and Team Rector.

During times of change I'm always encouraged by Jesus' words at the end of Matthew's gospel 'I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

With my prayers and very best wishes.

Revd Stephen Griffiths

Thank You from Araminta

A very big thank you firstly to Jill, Della and Sally, part of our very small but positive catering committee, as well as everyone else who helped and so kindly brought their contributions on Sunday to celebrate alone side Charlotte and Iain. Thinking ahead to the appointment of our new Rector, if anyone would like to join our small but positive catering committee you would be welcomed with open arms.

Thank You from Peter

I am pleased to say that the knee operation seems to have gone well. I am now doing the exercises (with a Physio in the family life would not be worth living if I didn't). I would like to thank all of you who have asked about me, sent cards, and best wishes. It will be some time before I am up to coming to a Service (I cannot sit for too long) so thank you again.

Traidcraft Sales and Stall

Sales for the first half of this year have amounted to a wonderful £1298.49 which averages out at £216.41 a month, an amazing figure and my thanks go to everyone who has made this possible. The next dates for the stall are after the Oakham 10:30 service today and on Sundays 29th July. Denise.

Foodbank Update

The Foodbank is currently short of the following items – sponge puddings, packets of smash, long life fruit juice, long life milk, small sugar (500g), tinned custard, jam, dog food, deodorant, shampoo, shower gel, razors, shaving foam/gel, washing powder/gel & toilet rolls. We have plenty of cereals, baked beans, tea and pasta at the moment. Thanks as ever for your ongoing support.

Thank You from The Curates

Charlotte and Iain want to express our thanks for the huge support we have received from so many people: in preparation for our ordination as priests, on the day, and since. We were overwhelmed at how many people came to the cathedral service and to the first services where we presided at the Eucharist.

We are also very grateful for the generous gifts from the parish: we each have a lovely silver oil-stock (for use to anoint the sick), Charlotte has a candle-stand, and Iain an icon of the Virgin of Tender Kisses.

We are deeply grateful to have been given into your care for this period of our training, and hope with God's help to serve you well.

Greenbelt

This Christian arts and music festival is almost on our doorstep, running 24-28 August at Boughton House outside Kettering. The Sunday morning Greenbelt Eucharist is always fascinating, and can be an exhilarating spiritual experience. This year's theme is Windrush and Carnival. The free Sunday ticket runs 10:00 to 13:00 - the service is 10:30, we think. Or you can pay for a day ticket and have a 'taster' – prices on the door for Sunday vary from £24-£55 (from child to adult). If you're thinking to be there, please text Iain (07935 549947) if you want to do the service with Oakham people. (As far as Iain knows, no-one from the church is going to camp – but please let him know if you will be there during the weekend. Iain and Susan will be there all weekend, and would love to meet up.)

Friends and MU Outing to Sheffield

The recent visit to Sheffield on a beautiful sunny summer's day was thoroughly interesting and enjoyable. Kelham Island Museum tells the story of Sheffield's rise to steel city in a varied and interesting way, from 'Big Don', the largest working steam engine in Europe to Stan Shaw the 92 year old penknife making gentleman in his original workshop transported to the museum and much in between. Coffee was served on arrival and good use was made of The Steam Hammer Café. A short journey away stands Sheffield's oldest building, the Cathedral. Recently refurbished and renewed the building had a story to tell which was related to us by very competent guides. The marrying of the old and the new architecture; the obvious vibrancy of Christian worship; the peace, tranquillity and beautiful music of organ and choir during Evensong and the extremely warm welcome we were given made it an exceptional visit, not to mention the tea and cake in their award winning Coffee Shop!! It was a different outing for The Friends and The Mother's Union but feedback is that it was one of great success. Any ideas for next year's outing please give to David or Beryl Kirtland or any member of the Committee. Beryl Kirtland
