@oakhamteam

Almighty Lord and everlasting God,
we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern
both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws
and the works of your commandments;
that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever,
we may be preserved in body and soul;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.. Amen.

First Reading – 2 Samuel 7.1-14a

When David was settled in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies around him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, ‘See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent.’ Nathan said to the king, ‘Go, do all that you have in mind; for the LORD is with you.’ But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the LORD: Are you the one to build me a house to live in? I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle. Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, ‘Why have you not built me a house of cedar?’ Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the LORD of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel; and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover the LORD declares to you, David, that the LORD will make you a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me.

Second Reading – Mark 6.30-44

The apostles returned from their mission. They gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, ‘Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.’ For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, ‘This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late; send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for themselves to eat.’ But he answered them, ‘You give them something to eat.’ They said to him, ‘Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?’ And he said to them, ‘How many loaves have you? Go and see.’ When they had found out, they said, ‘Five, and two fish.’ Then he ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass. So they sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and he divided the two fish among them all. And all ate and were filled; and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand men.

Revd Sue Pinnington

In 1998 we moved from the Monmouth Diocese, where we had lived and worked for 21 years, and joined All Saints Church. At that time Sue Pinnington was the curate under Michael Covington. Early on,

Sue organised a Parish Weekend at Whitby, staying at Smeaton Castle Centre. We decided to join this visit as it would provide an opportunity to meet informally other church members. Shortly afterwards Sue moved on to be Vicar of Cottingley in the Bradford Diocese, and subsequently to be Rector of Houghton le Spring in the Durham Diocese. Two weeks ago we were at the Speech Day of Monmouth School, where we had both worked, and then drove to Monmouth Diocesan Cathedral in Newport to attend a special service to inaugurate a new Archdeaconry of the Gwent Valleys, and then to install Sue Pinnington as the first Archdeacon. Some invited Oakham people were unable to make the long journey so we felt we would like to represent All Saints. The cathedral is about half the size of All Saints, the service was for invited guests only and we did not have tickets – however we managed to successfully plead our case! Sue looked splendid in her new cope and she looks forward to the challenge of working for the Anglican Church in the Gwent Valleys where it has limited impact in these former mining communities. Sue will also be Diocesan Director of Mission, she has much in front of her!

Gordon and Pamela Woods.

Alteration to Traidcraft Stall Dates

There will not be a stall now on 29th July, but instead after the 10:30 services at Oakham on both 5th and 12th August. Many thanks for your ongoing support. Denise.

Postcards Needed

Postcards are needed by Mission Aviation Fellowship to raise money for their work all over the world. The MAF box is on the table by the South door at Oakham and used or unused postcards can be placed inside.

Revd Canon John Morris RIP

It is with regret that we announce the death of Canon John Morris, husband of Sue Morris, churchwarden of Market Overton, peacefully on Saturday morning. Details of the funeral will be announced in due course, likely to be in the week commencing 30 July.

Greenbelt

This Christian arts and music festival is almost on our doorstep, running 24-28 August at Boughton House outside Kettering. The Sunday morning Greenbelt Eucharist is always fascinating, and can be an exhilarating spiritual experience. This year's theme is Windrush and Carnival. The free Sunday ticket runs 10:00 to 13:00 - the service is 10:30, we think. Or you can pay for a day ticket and have a 'taster' – prices on the door for Sunday vary from £24-£55 (from child to adult). If you're thinking to be there, please text Iain (07935 549947) if you want to do the service with Oakham people. (As far as Iain knows, no-one from the church is going to camp – but please let him know if you will be there during the weekend. Iain and Susan will be there all weekend, and would love to meet up.)

Sermon Discussion Group

With the summer upon us, we are suspending the sermon discussion group (after 10:30 service) for now. Watch this space in the autumn!

Friends and MU Outing to Sheffield

The recent visit to Sheffield on a beautiful sunny summer's day was thoroughly interesting and enjoyable. Kelham Island Museum tells the story of Sheffield's rise to steel city in a varied and interesting way, from 'Big Don', the largest working steam engine in Europe to Stan Shaw the 92 year old penknife making gentleman in his original workshop transported to the museum and much in between. Coffee was served on arrival and good use was made of The Steam Hammer Café. A short journey away stands Sheffield's oldest building, the Cathedral. Recently refurbished and renewed the building had a story to tell which was related to us by very competent guides. The marrying of the old and the new architecture; the obvious vibrancy of Christian worship; the peace, tranquillity and beautiful music of organ and choir during Evensong and the extremely warm welcome we were given made it an exceptional visit, not to mention the tea and cake in their award winning Coffee Shop!! It was a different outing for The Friends and The Mother's Union but feedback is that it was one of great success. Any ideas for next year's outing please give to David or Beryl Kirtland or any member of the Committee. Beryl Kirtland

Team Rector Appointment

We are delighted to announce that, following interview and with the unanimous approval of the Oakham Patronage Board, the Reverend Stephen Griffiths has accepted Bishop Donald's invitation to be Team Rector of Oakham. Subject to the normal Church of England legal and administrative procedures, Stephen will be Instituted and Inducted by the Bishop of Peterborough and the Archdeacon of Oakham in All Saints, Oakham on Sunday 23 September at 3 pm.

Stephen is currently Team Rector of the Cherwell Valley Benefice and the Rural Dean of Bicester and Islip in the Diocese of Oxford. He is married to Cally and they have two young children, Jonathan and Alexander. Stephen writes: "We are very much looking forward to our move to Oakham and getting to know you all. I was delighted to be asked to serve as your Team Rector, which confirmed the call that God placed in my heart. May God guide us all on the next stage of the journey and bless us as we walk together in faith and fellowship."

Bishop Donald and Archdeacon Gordon are very grateful to all who helped with the preparation of the benefice profile, all the arrangements for the interview day and for the continuing and encouraging ministry of the team in the service of Christ during the vacancy. We ask your prayers for Stephen and his family as they prepare to move to Oakham.

The Venerable Gordon Steele
Archdeacon of Oakham

Dear friends,

In a few weeks we will be moving from north Oxfordshire to Oakham. We are already very excited and looking forward to joining you. There are four of us:

Stephen (currently Team Rector of the Cherwell Valley Benefice in Oxfordshire and Rural Dean of Bicester & Islip Deanery), Cally (at home full time with our two boys but previously head of HR for a Christian charity in Oxford), Jonathan (three and a half and ready to start nursery in the mornings in September – keen on steam trains), and Alexander (nearly two – highly ticklish and keen on diggers).

It was a pleasure to meet so many people on the day of the interview and explore God's call to serve amongst you. Jonathan and Alex especially enjoyed attending the church toddler group that day and visiting the castle. Cally and I even managed a visit to the Grainstore Brewery that evening.

I grew up in south Derbyshire, near Burton upon Trent, went to school at Twycross in Leicestershire, trained for ordination at Ridley Hall in Cambridge, served a curacy in Derby, and was a vicar and rural dean in Cumbria before moving to Oxfordshire. Cally is from Bedfordshire, studied and worked in Leicester and moved to Oxford when her workplace relocated. We were married at St. Aldate's Church in Oxford five years ago.

When not busy with church work I enjoy exploring the countryside, visiting historic places, growing food, playing music (piano and organ), and cooking. Cally is a great knitter and loves reading and cycling. As a family we enjoy parks, picnics and making cakes.

Throughout the discernment process I've been very impressed by the work going on in the churches in the town and the villages of the Oakham Team and by the contributions made by so many people to the ministry of the church. What a privilege to be asked to join you as Vicar of Oakham and Team Rector.

During times of change I'm always encouraged by Jesus' words at the end of Matthew's gospel 'I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

With my prayers and very best wishes.

Revd Stephen Griffiths
