Gloria

1. Glory be to God in heaven, songs of praise and peace we bring,
thankful hearts and voices raising,
to creation's Lord we sing.
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you;
glory be to God our King,
glory be to God our King.

2. Lamb of God, who on your shoulder bore the load of this world's sin, only Son of God the Father,
you have brought us peace within.
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy;
now your glorious reign begin,
now your glorious reign begin.

Music: Cwm Rhondda, John Hughes (1873-1932)

Collect

Almighty God,
whose Son restored Mary Magdalene to health of mind and body
and called her to be a witness to his resurrection:
forgive our sins and heal us by your grace,
that we may serve you in the power of his risen life;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Song of Solomon 3.1-4

Upon my bed at night I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not; I called him, but he gave no answer. 'I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves.' I sought him, but found him not. The sentinels found me, as they went about in the city. 'Have you seen him whom my soul loves?' Scarcely had I passed them, when I found him whom my soul loves. I held him, and would not let him go until I brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

Second Reading – 2 Corinthians 5.14-17*

The love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

Second Hymn

1. Walking in a garden at the close of day,
Adam tried to hide him when he heard God say:
'Why are you so frightened, why are you afraid?
You have brought the winter in, made the flowers fade.'
2. Walking in a garden where the Lord had gone,
Three of the disciples, Peter, James, and John;
they were very weary, could not keep awake,
while the Lord was kneeling there, praying for their sake.
3. Walking in a garden at the break of day,
Mary asked the gardener where the body lay;
but he turned towards her, smiled at her and said:
'Mary, spring is here to stay, only death is dead.'

Words: Hilary Greenwood (1929-2003)
Music: Noel Nouvelet, French Carol, 15th century, harmonised by David Liff (b 1939) – A&M 212
(New English Hymnal – 123)

Gospel – John 20.1-2, 11-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.' But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?'

Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."' Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Post Communion Prayer

God of life and love,
whose risen Son called Mary Magdalene by name
and sent her to tell of his resurrection to his apostles:
in your mercy, help us,
who have been united with him in this eucharist,
to proclaim the good news that he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

Revd Sue Pinnington

In 1998 we moved from the Monmouth Diocese, where we had lived and worked for 21 years, and joined All Saints Church. At that time Sue Pinnington was the curate under Michael Covington. Early on,

Sue organised a Parish Weekend at Whitby, staying at Sneaton Castle Centre. We decided to join this visit as it would provide an opportunity to meet informally other church members. Shortly afterwards Sue moved on to be Vicar of Cottingley in the Bradford Diocese, and subsequently to be Rector of Houghton le Spring in the Durham Diocese. Two weeks ago we were at the Speech Day of Monmouth School, where we had both worked, and then drove to Monmouth Diocesan Cathedral in Newport to attend a special service to inaugurate a new Archdeaconry of the Gwent Valleys, and then to install Sue Pinnington as the first Archdeacon. Some invited Oakham people were unable to make the long journey so we felt we would like to represent All Saints. The cathedral is about half the size of All Saints, the service was for invited guests only and we did not have tickets – however we managed to successfully plead our case! Sue looked splendid in her new cope and she looks forward to the challenge of working for the Anglican Church in the Gwent Valleys where it has limited impact in these former mining communities. Sue will also be Diocesan Director of Mission, she has much in front of her!

Gordon and Pamela Woods.

Alteration to Traidcraft Stall Dates

There will not be a stall now on 29th July, but instead after the 10:30 services at Oakham on both 5th and 12th August. Many thanks for your ongoing support. Denise.

Postcards Needed

Postcards are needed by Mission Aviation Fellowship to raise money for their work all over the world. The MAF box is on the table by the South door at Oakham and used or unused postcards can be placed inside.

Revd Canon John Morris RIP

It is with regret that we announce the death of Canon John Morris, husband of Sue Morris, churchwarden of Market Overton, peacefully on Saturday morning. Details of the funeral will be announced in due course, likely to be in the week commencing 30 July.

Greenbelt

This Christian arts and music festival is almost on our doorstep, running 24-28 August at Boughton House outside Kettering. The Sunday morning Greenbelt Eucharist is always fascinating, and can be an exhilarating spiritual experience. This year's theme is Windrush and Carnival. The free Sunday ticket runs 10:00 to 13:00 - the service is 10:30, we think. Or you can pay for a day ticket and have a 'taster' – prices on the door for Sunday vary from £24-£55 (from child to adult). If you're thinking to be there, please text Iain (07935 549947) if you want to do the service with Oakham people. (As far as Iain knows, no-one from the church is going to camp – but please let him know if you will be there during the weekend. Iain and Susan will be there all weekend, and would love to meet up.)

Sermon Discussion Group

With the summer upon us, we are suspending the sermon discussion group (after 10:30 service) for now. Watch this space in the autumn!

Friends and MU Outing to Sheffield

The recent visit to Sheffield on a beautiful sunny summer's day was thoroughly interesting and enjoyable. Kelham Island Museum tells the story of Sheffield's rise to steel city in a varied and interesting way, from 'Big Don', the largest working steam engine in Europe to Stan Shaw the 92 year old penknife making gentleman in his original workshop transported to the museum and much in between. Coffee was served on arrival and good use was made of The Steam Hammer Café. A short journey away stands Sheffield's oldest building, the Cathedral. Recently refurbished and renewed the building had a story to tell which was related to us by very competent guides. The marrying of the old and the new architecture; the obvious vibrancy of Christian worship; the peace, tranquillity and beautiful music of organ and choir during Evensong and the extremely warm welcome we were given made it an exceptional visit, not to mention the tea and cake in their award winning Coffee Shop!! It was a different outing for The Friends and The Mother's Union but feedback is that it was one of great success. Any ideas for next year's outing please give to David or Beryl Kirtland or any member of the Committee. Beryl Kirtland

Team Rector Appointment

We are delighted to announce that, following interview and with the unanimous approval of the Oakham Patronage Board, the Reverend Stephen Griffiths has accepted Bishop Donald's invitation to be Team Rector of Oakham. Subject to the normal Church of England legal and administrative procedures, Stephen will be Instituted and Inducted by the Bishop of Peterborough and the Archdeacon of Oakham in All Saints, Oakham on Sunday 23 September at 3 pm.

Stephen is currently Team Rector of the Cherwell Valley Benefice and the Rural Dean of Bicester and Islip in the Diocese of Oxford. He is married to Cally and they have two young children, Jonathan and Alexander. Stephen writes: "We are very much looking forward to our move to Oakham and getting to know you all. I was delighted to be asked to serve as your Team Rector, which confirmed the call that God placed in my heart. May God guide us all on the next stage of the journey and bless us as we walk together in faith and fellowship."

Bishop Donald and Archdeacon Gordon are very grateful to all who helped with the preparation of the benefice profile, all the arrangements for the interview day and for the continuing and encouraging ministry of the team in the service of Christ during the vacancy. We ask your prayers for Stephen and his family as they prepare to move to Oakham.

The Venerable Gordon Steele
Archdeacon of Oakham

Dear friends,

In a few weeks we will be moving from north Oxfordshire to Oakham. We are already very excited and looking forward to joining you. There are four of us:

Stephen (currently Team Rector of the Cherwell Valley Benefice in Oxfordshire and Rural Dean of Bicester & Islip Deanery), Cally (at home full time with our two boys but previously head of HR for a Christian charity in Oxford), Jonathan (three and a half and ready to start nursery in the mornings in September – keen on steam trains), and Alexander (nearly two – highly ticklish and keen on diggers).

It was a pleasure to meet so many people on the day of the interview and explore God's call to serve amongst you. Jonathan and Alex especially enjoyed attending the church toddler group that day and visiting the castle. Cally and I even managed a visit to the Grainstore Brewery that evening.

I grew up in south Derbyshire, near Burton upon Trent, went to school at Twycross in Leicestershire, trained for ordination at Ridley Hall in Cambridge, served a curacy in Derby, and was a vicar and rural dean in Cumbria before moving to Oxfordshire. Cally is from Bedfordshire, studied and worked in Leicester and moved to Oxford when her workplace relocated. We were married at St. Aldate's Church in Oxford five years ago.

When not busy with church work I enjoy exploring the countryside, visiting historic places, growing food, playing music (piano and organ), and cooking. Cally is a great knitter and loves reading and cycling. As a family we enjoy parks, picnics and making cakes.

Throughout the discernment process I've been very impressed by the work going on in the churches in the town and the villages of the Oakham Team and by the contributions made by so many people to the ministry of the church. What a privilege to be asked to join you as Vicar of Oakham and Team Rector.

During times of change I'm always encouraged by Jesus' words at the end of Matthew's gospel 'I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

With my prayers and very best wishes.
