8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Processional Hymn*

I. We plough the fields, and scatter the good seed on the land, but it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand:
he sends the snow in winter, the warmth to swell the grain, the breezes, and the sunshine, and soft, refreshing rain.

*All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above;
then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord, for all his love.*

2. He only is the maker of all things near and far;
he paints the wayside flower, he lights the evening star;
the winds and waves obey him, by him the birds are fed;
much more to us, his children, he gives our daily bread.

3. We thank thee then, O Father, for all things bright and good,
the seed-time and the harvest, our life, our health, our food.
Accept the gifts we offer for all thy love imparts, and, what thou most dearest, our humble, thankful hearts.

Words: Wir pflügen und wir streuen, Matthias Claudius (1740-1815), tr Jane Montgomery Campbell (1817-1878)
Music: Wir Pflügen, melody by Johann Abraham Peter Schulz (1747-1800), harm John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876) (A & M - 290)

Collect

Eternal God, you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season:
grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Joel 2.21-27

Do not fear, O soil; be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things! Do not fear, you animals of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green; the tree bears its fruit, the fig tree and vine give their full yield. O children of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD your God; for he has given the early rain for your vindication, he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the later rain, as before. The threshing-floors shall be full of grain, the vats shall overflow with wine and oil. I will repay you for the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter, my great army, which I sent against you. You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you. And my people shall never again be put to shame. You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I, the LORD, am your God and there is no other. And my people shall never again be put to shame.

Second Reading – 1 Timothy 6.6-10*

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

Gradual Hymn*

I. For the fruits of all creation,
 thanks be to God;
for the gifts to every nation,
 thanks be to God;
for the ploughing, sowing, reaping, silent growth while we are sleeping, future needs in earth's safe keeping,
 thanks be to God.

2. In the just reward of labour,
 God's will is done;
in the help we give our neighbour,
 God's will is done;
in our world-wide task of caring for the hungry and despairing, in the harvests we are sharing,
 God's will is done.

3. For the harvests of his Spirit,
 thanks be to God;
for the good we all inherit,
 thanks be to God;
for the wonders that astound us, for the truths that still confound us, most of all, that love has found us,
 thanks be to God.

Gospel – Matthew 6.25-33

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you - you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, “What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?” For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.’

Offertory Hymn*

1. In the sacrament of offering, gift and portion, token and kind, all we have is laid before the Lord:
 heart and soul and body and mind, now the Bread of Life is gi~ven, now the wood has made the wine;
and we gather to ado-re.

2. On a hillside of the Galilee, hungry people gathered to hear words of hope from the Messi-ah:
 love and trust; and never you fear.
Fish and bread and wine a ple~nty, peace and fellowship divine, in the presence of the Lo-rd.

3. Jesus Christ the Son of Ma-ry: bread of heaven, living and true:
bringing all into community;
 by his Spirit, living anew.
Faithful shepherd of his pe~ople, gave his life to save us all from the shadows at the do-or.

4. Now, two thousand years have come and gone, countless millions honour his name; bread is still the food of fellowship, oil and wine together proclaim:
joy and healing to the na~tions, darkness yields to life again, at his table evermo-re.

Communion Anthem*

Thou visitest the earth, and blessest it: And crownest the year with thy goodness.

Words: Psalms 65.9,12 Music: Maurice Greene (1696-1755)

Communion Hymns*

1. God, whose farm is all creation, take the gratitude we give;
take the finest of our harvest, crops we grow that we may live.

2. Take our ploughing, seeding, reaping, hopes and fears of sun and rain, all our thinking, planning, waiting, ripened in this fruit and grain.

3. All our labour, all our watching, all our calendar of care in these crops of your creation, take, O God: they are our prayer.

Words: Leslie Thomas John Arlott (1914-1991)
Music: Gott will's machen, Johann Ludwig Steiner (1688-1761) (Ancient & Modern – 285)

I. Praise and thanksgiving, Father, we offer,
for all things living
 thou madest good;
harvest of sown fields,
 fruits of the orchard,
hay from the mown fields,
 blossom and wood.

2. Bless thou the labour we bring to serve thee, that with our neighbour
 we may be fed.
Sowing or tilling,
 we would work with thee;
harvesting, milling
 for daily bread.

3. Father, providing food for thy children, thy wisdom guiding teaches us share
one with another,
 so that rejoicing,
with us, our brother
 may know thy care.

4. Then will your blessing reach every people;
freely confessing
 thy gracious hand.
Where thy will reigneth
 no one will hunger:
thy love sustaineth;
 fruitful the land.

Words: Albert Frederick Bayly (1901-1984) Music: Bunessan, Gaelic melody, arranged by Noël Tredinnick (b 1949)
© 1988 Oxford University Press (Ancient & Modern – 287)

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of the harvest, with joy we have offered thanksgiving for your love in creation and have shared in the bread and wine of the kingdom: by your grace plant within us a reverence for all that you give us and make us generous and wise stewards of the good things we enjoy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Let us sing the God of glory who has set the stars in place, with the planets in their courses as they cross the heaven's face, and the constellations shining to the boundaries of space,
our God whose Name is love!

Glory, glory, Alleluia,
glory, glory, Alleluia,
glory, glory, Alleluia,
our God whose Name is love!

2. Let us sing the God of beauty in the mountains and the seas, all the colours of the rainbow and the tracery of trees, in the thunder of the breakers and the whisper of the breeze,
our God whose Name is love!

3. Let us sing the God of bounty for a fruitful earth and fair, who provides for us in plenty so that all may have a share, and who loves his human family and has us in his care,
our God whose Name is love!

4. Let us sing the God of mercy for the wonders he has done, how he loved us in our sinfulness and sent to us his Son, who has died for us, and lives for us,
and life and freedom won,
our God whose Name is love!

5. Let us sing the Saviour Jesus as he makes the Father known, let us hear his Spirit's call to us to come and be his own, and to worship him in glory on his everlasting throne,
our God whose Name is love!

Another Way To Help Traidcraft

For a number of years Traidcraft have been raising funds from the recycling of jewellery and banknotes. When I was first made aware of the scheme £9000 had already been raised. To date that figure has increased to over £37,700! If you would like to become involved in the scheme and help increase this already wonderful figure, please help yourself to one of the FREEPOST envelopes on the table by the South door to Oakham or just speak to me when I am in Church. Thank you for your continuing support. Denise (01572 722729 / 07981 639649).

Traidcraft Sales

Total sales for the last three months amounted to a wonderful £482.92, averaging out at over £160.00 a month.

Thank You. The stall is here after today's 10:30 Harvest Festival, do come and have a look whilst you are having your cup of fairly traded tea or coffee. Denise (722729)

We Urgently Need Volunteer Drivers

Would you be able and willing to become a Volunteer Driver for Voluntary Action Rutland, Transport Section?. We currently have around 50 Volunteer Drivers taking Rutland's frail, elderly, disabled and vulnerable to hospital and other medical appointments as well as social visits etc. We cover local hospitals such as Leicester Royal Infirmary, Leicester General, Glenfield, Nottingham City, Queens Medical Centre, both Peterborough hospitals as well as occasionally those further afield such as Grantham Hospital, Addenbrookes and the Royal Papworth in Cambridge. We also cover all local surgeries, opticians, podiatrists, dentists etc. This service is essential for those in our community who are unable to access public transport. With a growing client base (currently at 3272) we are always in need of new Volunteer Drivers in order to fulfil our commitment to our clients, many of whom have no other alternative transport other than very expensive taxi trips. If you are interested, please contact Gerry Robinson on 01572 725485 or transportadmin@varutland.org.uk.

Fundraising Concert

Thank you to Gina Baker and her friends from Birmingham Conservatoire for putting on such a splendid concert on 1 September. It raised £780 in aid of bellringers to go towards the purchase of a wireless simulator and general repairs.

Thanks

Many thanks to everyone who contributed food and help two weeks
