Gloria

1. Glory to God, we give you thanks and praise, of heavenly joy and earthly peace we sing.
We worship you, to you our hearts we raise,
Lord God Almighty, Father, heavenly King.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, the Father's only Son,
you bore for us the load of this world's sin.
O Lamb of God, your glorious victory won,
receive our prayer, grant us your peace within.
3. Alone O Christ, you only are the Lord,
at God's right hand in majesty most high;
who with the Spirit, worshipped and adored;
with all the heavenly host we glorify.

Words: Edwin Le Grice (1911-1992)
Music: Woodlands, Walter Greatorex (1877-1949)

Collect

Grant, we beseech you, merciful Lord,
to your faithful people pardon and peace,
that they may be cleansed from all their sins
and serve you with a quiet mind;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Additional Collect

Almighty God,
in whose service lies perfect freedom:
teach us to obey you
with loving hearts and steadfast wills;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading – Isaiah 53.4-12

Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the LORD shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Second Reading – Hebrews 5.1-10*

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honour, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, ‘You are my Son, today I have begotten you’; as he says also in another place, ‘You are a priest for ever, according to the order of Melchizedek.’ In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

Gospel – Mark 10.35-45

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, ‘Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.’ And he said to them, ‘What is it you want me to do for you?’ And they said to him, ‘Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.’ But Jesus said to them, ‘You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?’ They replied, ‘We are able.’ Then Jesus said to them, ‘The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.’ When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, ‘You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.’

Post Communion Prayer

Father of light, in whom is no change or shadow of turning,
you give us every good and perfect gift
and have brought us to birth by your word of truth:
may we be a living sign of that kingdom
where your whole creation will be made perfect in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

7:30pm – RUTLAND THEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Oakham Methodist Church

Dissent, conscience and the Church: the growth of religious dissent after 1689. Speaker – Dr David Wykes. It was a surprise to the bishops that nonconformity did not die out with the ministers ejected in 1662, but they failed to understand the continuing long-term demands for a godly religion from a significant part of society. By 1690 more than half those actively preaching had entered the ministry since 1662. Though they had not faced the same difficulties as the ejected ministers, many found on close enquiry that they could not accept episcopal ordination or the oaths and subscriptions required. This paper will look at the reasons why dissent continued and why the period after 1689 was one of considerable evangelical growth. Dr David Wykes is Director of Dr Williams's Library, London. He is the author of many essays and articles on late seventeenth- and early eighteenth-century dissent, and late eighteenth and early nineteenth-century rational dissent and Unitarianism. He is currently working on a study of religious dissent during the twenty-five year period after the Glorious Revolution.

Langham War Memorial

It has been pointed out that the inscriptions on the war memorial are becoming obscured by the growth of moss and lichen. Is there anyone who would like to take on the job of cleaning it – advice on how to do this is available?

Oakham Travelling Nativity

Denise McDonald is starting to compile the list of overnight stays for the travelling nativity – please have a word with her if you would like to host it.

Appointment of Readers Emeriti

Congratulations to Robin Robson, who has recently retired from the position of Reader in the Oakham Team, and Michael Ellard (member of the Oakham 8:00am congregation) who have both been appointed to the status of Reader Emeritus.

You're running out of time

You only have until 5th November to visit Peterborough Cathedral and see Tim Peake's Soyuz spacecraft and his space suit. So far over 80,000 people have made that journey. Our Laudamus choir were at the Cathedral on Saturday 13th October, and were astounded to see the number of people there. The Cathedral was closed to the public from 2:30pm until 6:30pm to allow the Peterborough Diocesan Choral Festival choir to rehearse and for the actual service – when the doors re-opened hundreds of people streamed in. There is no charge to visit the Cathedral or see the spacecraft, but be warned, the spacecraft is only on display until Monday 5th November. Derek Cullen.

Oakham Mission Giving

As we approach the end of the year, the time has come to determine how this year's Mission Giving from All Saints Oakham will be allocated, and you are invited to let us know if you have a charity that you would like to be considered. Please speak to Peter Hill or Michael Wilson (01572 720853 or michael.wilson@oakhamteam.org.uk). We aim to achieve a balance between local, national and international charities.

In memory of Margaret Dehqani-Tafti

Many in the congregation will remember with affection Margaret Dehqani-Tafti, who died two years ago this month. The Holy Communion service on Friday 26th October at 10:00am in the Trinity Chapel at Oakham will be a service to commemorate Margaret, and give thanks for the bountiful fruit her life and Christian witness have borne. All are welcome.

Lost stole

'There is greater rejoicing in heaven over the one that was lost...' Iain would like to thank all who helped him look for his mislaid ordination stole, which has turned up. Like a squirrel with his nut, he had put it away in a 'safe place', and forgotten where! Apologies to all whose time was wasted.

Traidcraft at Langham

A big thank you to everyone who supported the stall at the recent Team Service at Langham, the sales on the morning amounted to £64.30. The next stall is at Oakham after the 10:30am service today. Denise.

Sheep Knitters Needed

More sheep are required for the Oakham Advent Travelling Crib – if you can help, please contact Margaret Tyler 01572 724799 (pattern available).

Oakham Autumn Sale

It is now officially Autumn and so it's time to make the annual request for any useful items for the Autumn Sale on Saturday 17 November, 9:30am to 12noon. We had a splendid response last year and we are trying very hard to match and even better our provision this year. This is your opportunity to take stock at home and to bring in any good, saleable items for our stalls. There will be the usual bric-a-brac, preserves, handicrafts, tombola, candles and cake stalls. In addition, we will have a plant stall and a separate jewellery and cosmetics stall. We would like to have a really attractive children's stall to tempt the youngsters. Quality toys no longer used would be most welcome. There will be a children's bran tub so any good little items would be useful to promote this as a fun activity. Have a clear out before the Christmas presents appear! We do not want books, CDs or DVDs this year, but puzzles would be very useful. Please bring items to the church and leave them safely in the parish office or give them to any of the small Steering Group named below who are organising the Sale this year. We are looking for the loan of small tables to be used in the refreshments area on the day. If you could help us with this we would be very pleased to hear from you. Patsy Clifton, Sally and Dennis Corton, Elaine and Graham Peel, Liz and Richard Plummer.

Langham Christmas Festival

The Christmas Festival at Langham usually takes place every other year, so you may have been expecting one this year – however, for various reasons, it has been decided to postpone it on this occasion, but we look forward to its return in 2019 in an even better and improved format! There will, however, still be a concert on the Friday evening – An Opera Gala Evening with Miranda Heldt.
