Gloria

1. Glory be to God in heaven,
and to all on earth, his peace;
Lord and Father, King in glory,
gifts of praise in us release,
so our worship and thanksgiving
from our hearts will never cease.

2. Christ incarnate, sent by Father
to redeem, renew, restore;
risen Lamb, in glory seated,
hear our prayers, Lord, we implore.
Now to Father, Son and Spirit
be all glory evermore.

Words: John Richards (1843-1901) Music: Regent Square, Henry Thomas Smart (1813-1879) (Mission Praise – 175)

Collect

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect
in one communion and fellowship
in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord:
grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord. Amen.

Additional Collect

God of holiness,
your glory is proclaimed in every age:
as we rejoice in the faith of your saints,
inspire us to follow their example
with boldness and joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading – Isaiah 25.6-9***

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death for ever. Then the Lord GOD will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the LORD has spoken. It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the LORD for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Second Reading – Revelation 21.1-6a

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, 'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away.' And the one who was seated on the throne said, 'See, I am making all things new.' Also he said, 'Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.' Then he said to me, 'It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life.'

Gospel – John 11.32-44

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?' Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

Post Communion Prayer

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things:
may we who have shared at this table
as strangers and pilgrims here on earth
be welcomed with all your saints
to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn

*Fling wide the gates, unbar the ancient doors;
salute your king in his triumphant cause!*

1. Now all the world belongs to Christ our Lord:
let all creation greet the living Word!
2. Who has the right to worship him today?
All those who gladly serve him and obey.
3. He comes to save all those who trust his name,
and will declare them free from guilt and shame.
4. Who is the victor glorious from the fight?
He is our king, our life, our Lord, our right!

Words: Michael Perry (1942-1996)
Music: Crucifer, Sydney Hugo Nicholson (1875-1947)

Traidcraft Needs Your Help Even More

I'm sure many of you will have heard the very sad news from Gateshead regarding Traidcraft ceasing to trade in its current format. If you would like to read the full articles please have a look at their main website www.traidcraft.co.uk – there is also information on www.traidcraft.org.uk from Traidcraft exchange, Traidcraft's sister charity. To this end I am reiterating the words of Robin Roth, CEO: We ask you to keep *purchasing from us to invest in this bright future. Our autumn/winter collection is the biggest and most impactful range we've ever had. Shop with us, and make a difference. Please do get in touch I will be taking orders from the catalogue into December as well as holding the regular Sunday stalls. Thank you to everyone who has already placed an order, as I always say every purchase really makes a difference. Finally, to quote the words of Traidcraft exchange Thank you for your commitment to making the world a fairer and more just place, you are part of a movement of people dedicated to changing the world and we can't thank you enough for all you have done and continue to do. Denise.*

Autumn Sale Update

It is now just two weeks to the Oakham Autumn Sale on Saturday 17 November, 9:30am to 12noon. This is your opportunity to take stock at home and to bring in any good, saleable items for our stalls. There will be the usual bric-a-brac, preserves, handicrafts, tombola, candles, cake stalls, and a separate jewellery and cosmetics stall.

There is also a plant/gardening/environmental stall, so any plants you could donate, especially bee-friendly, alpines or ground cover, would be welcome – Araminta (01572 757827) is running this, and would also welcome terracotta pots that she could upcycle and any old canes. We would like to have a really attractive children's stall to tempt the youngsters. Quality toys no longer used would be most welcome. There will be a children's bran tub so any good little items would be useful to promote this as a fun activity. Have a clear out before the Christmas presents appear! We do not want books, CDs or DVDs this year, but puzzles would be very useful. Please bring items to the church and leave them safely in the parish office or give them to any of the small Steering Group named below who are organising the Sale this year. There are still a few publicity leaflets on the table by the South Door. Please take a packet or two to distribute if you can. Thank you to the many who have helped with this so far. Patsy Clifton, Sally and Dennis Corton, Elaine and Graham Peel, Liz and Richard Plummer.

Oakham Coffee Rota

We need a few more people to join the team who make the coffee and tea after the service at Oakham on Sunday mornings. If you can offer your services to do this, even occasionally, please let Jill Welsh know, either directly or through the office.

New Organ Pistons

The work on upgrading the piston system on the organ at Oakham has now been completed. I was asked before the upgrade what difference there would be in what we heard, and I answered 'None', because the extra pistons and extra memory channels increase the flexibility of the instrument considerably, but not the actual sound. However, that was not entirely true last Sunday, as the Trumpet stop turned itself on permanently for the final hymn in the morning, and Evensong had to be accompanied using only the Swell manual! This has now been fixed, so we should be back to normal today! We are planning a recital in the Spring when we will demonstrate the work that has been done – watch this space!

New Choir Robes for Langham

The choir at Langham have been working hard to raise money for new robes, and these have now arrived and were blessed and dedicated at the service last Sunday morning.

Revd Helen Rayment

It is with much sadness that we note the death of the Revd Helen Rayment on Friday 19 October. Helen was licensed as Associate Priest at Ketton and Tinwell in the Rutland Deanery, where she ministered with her husband Andrew. Prior to this Helen served as Vicar of Weedon Bec with Everdon and Dodford and has held permission to officiate in the diocese for a number of years. Please hold Andrew and their family in your prayers. The funeral will be held at 2:00pm on Wednesday 7

November in Ketton St Mary Parish Church (PE9 3RD) followed by internment at the Ketton Parish Cemetery in Empingham Road. The funeral will be on Wednesday 7 November at 2:00pm at St Mary Ketton.

Winter Service Times

On the second Sunday of the month, the Holy Communion service at Teigh will now be at 9:00am rather than 9:15am, and also, as from now, Evensong on the third Sunday will be at the Winter time of 4:00pm. Brooke Evensong on the first and third Sundays also moves to its Winter time of 3:00pm.

Sermon Discussion Group

After a summer break, we are re-starting the All Saints Oakham sermon discussion group, after the 10:30 service. It will take place in the Trinity Chapel, for 20-30 minutes after the service; some brief notes on the sermon will be available, and some possible questions for discussion. Any questions or comments to Revd Iain Osborne or Carol Scothern.

Vote at Oakham Tesco during Nov & Dec!

Next time you are in Tesco Oakham remember to vote for All Saints' Church, Braunston Bats in Churches project for funding of up to £4,000 by Tesco's Bags of Success scheme. The final funding depends on voting in the Oakham Tesco store between 1st November and 31st December. The funding will help improve coexistence of humans and bats in our ancient church. Please look out for the voting opportunity as you enter and exit the store and please vote for our project as many times as possible! Contact Rob Anderson or Sue Willetts (rob.anderson / sue.willetts@oakhamteam.org.uk) if you would like more information.

Remembrance Day

We are expecting that we will have 600+ people at this year's service, and Peter Kinal asks for help please after the 10:30 service on the 11th to set up chairs & move pews. If you can help it will take about 10/15 minutes.

Travelling Nativity

Denise McDonald is starting to compile the list of overnight stays for the Oakham travelling nativity – please have a word with her if you would like to host it.

Oakham Mission Giving

As we approach the end of the year, the time has come to determine how this year's Mission Giving from All Saints Oakham will be allocated, and you are invited to let us know if you have a charity that you would like to be considered. Please speak to Peter Hill or Michael Wilson (01572 720853 or michael.wilson@oakhamteam.org.uk). We aim to achieve a balance between local, national and international charities.
