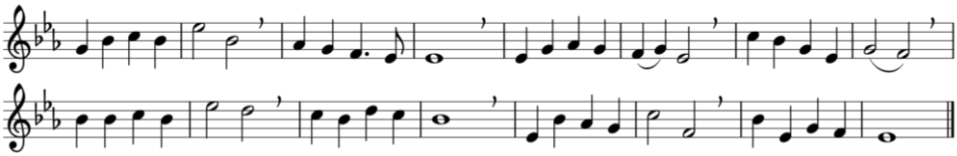
Gloria



1. Glory in the highest to the God of heaven!
   Peace to all your people through the earth be given!
Mighty God and Father, thanks and praise we bring,
   singing Alleluia to our heavenly king;

2. Jesus Christ is risen, God the Father's Son!
   With the Holy Spirit you are Lord alone!
Lamb once killed for sinners, all our guilt to bear,
   show us now your mercy, now receive our prayer;

3. Christ the world's true Saviour, high and holy one,
   seated now and reigning from your Father's throne:
Lord and God, we praise you! Highest heaven adores:
   in the Father's glory, all the praise be yours!

Words: Christopher Idle (b 1938)
Music: Evelyns, William Henry Monk (1823-1889)

Collect

Eternal Father,
who at the baptism of Jesus
revealed him to be your Son,
anointing him with the Holy Spirit:
grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit,
that we may be faithful to our calling as your adopted children;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Additional Collect

Heavenly Father,
at the Jordan you revealed Jesus as your Son:
may we recognize him as our Lord
and know ourselves to be your beloved children;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

First Reading – *Isaiah 43.1-7

Thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you. For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour. I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you. Because you are precious in my sight, and honoured, and I love you, I give people in return for you, nations in exchange for your life. Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you; I will say to the north, 'Give them up', and to the south, 'Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the end of the earth – everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made.'

Second Reading – Acts 8.14-17

When the apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had accepted the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. The two went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit (for as yet the Spirit had not come upon any of them; they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus). Then Peter and John laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

Gospel – Luke 3.15-17,21-22

(In the wilderness John proclaimed a baptism of repentance.) As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, 'I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.' Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.'

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all time and eternity,
you opened the heavens and revealed yourself as Father
in the baptism of Jesus your beloved Son:
by the power of your Spirit
complete the heavenly work of our rebirth through the waters of the new creation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rutland Calendar 2019

Richard Adams has reported that sales of the Rutland Calendar for 2019 have raised approximately £1,250 for the Rutland Historic Churches Preservation Trust, and he would like to thank all of you who purchased a copy. Thanks to Richard also for his splendid work in producing the calendar – you can see the wonderful photos online here – bit.ly/rutcal2019

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=E82zSzUZMqg

Traidcraft Sales

The last three months of 2018 saw a total figure of £1,715.17, an AMAZING amount, and my thanks go to everyone who stepped up to the plate to support Traidcraft at this difficult time for them. Of this figure I can also identify over £1,200.00 as being sales specific to Christmas, not only sales on Sunday mornings but also the Autumn sale and a very successful stall run for me at Whissendine early in December. The next dates for the stall here at Oakham are after the 10.30am service on 20 January and 10 February. Denise.

Healing Ministry

Jesus' healing ministry was a natural part of his everyday ministry, yet the church has developed the habit of treating healing as something out of the ordinary – perhaps because as medical science has increased, our approach to healing tends to over-emphasise the physical and neglect the emotional and spiritual. Wholeness includes mind, spirit, and body, and some would argue that the body is the least important. If you disagree read Eye can write by Jonathan Bryan, an amazing book which I was given for Christmas, and see if your perspective changes.

As a way forward in making healing ministry more a part of our everyday ministry a new venture is beginning in the Oakham Team Ministry – every 2nd Sunday at 4pm there will be a simple healing communion service with the opportunity for anointing, prayer ministry and the laying on of hands, starting this Sunday 13 January at Whissendine Church. All are welcome, and refreshments will be served prior to the service. If you would like to know more about this then please either contact me, Revd Deborah Marsh, Alan & Gail Rudge, Patrick & Marjorie Wilson, or just come along…

Everyday Faith – New for 2019

Spiritual wisdom for each day. Think… Study… Learn… Discuss… Pray… Live.

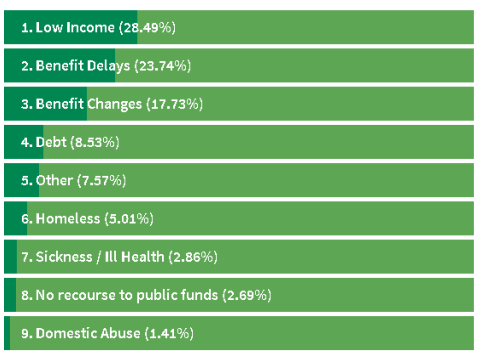
An interactive meeting designed to help Christians think about and apply their faith in the everyday situations of life. Everyday Faith is for anyone at any stage of their Christian journey. It's not aimed at children, although older teenagers are welcome. It takes place at All Saints Oakham on Wednesday evenings at 7.30pm about once a month.

2019 dates are 23 Jan – Where is wisdom to be found?; 13 Feb – Money matters; Mar/Apr – Lent Groups and Easter; 15 May – Rule of life; 19 Jun – Talking about faith; 10 Jul – Prayer; 7 Aug – Poetry and art; 11 Sep – Sacraments; 9 Oct – Sabbath rest; 6 Nov – Bible overview; Dec – Advent groups. For more information see the leaflet available in church, the website or email info@oakhamteam.org.uk.

Rutland Foodbank still needs YOU

This time not for donations but to try and find people we have yet to reach. The Trussell Trust stats show just what categories they may fall into. Are they too proud to ask for help? Don't know how to access us or the referral agencies? Don't know about us? Elderly with the dilemma of choosing between heating and eating? Please help. Emma Revie, Chief Executive, says As a nation we expect no-one should be left hungry or destitute – illness, disability, family breakdown or the loss of a job could happen to any of us, and we owe it to each other to make sure sufficient financial support is in place when we need it most. It's hard to break free from hunger if there isn't enough money coming in to cover the rising cost of absolute essentials like food and housing. For too many people, staying above water is a daily struggle. It's completely unacceptable that anyone is forced to turn to a foodbank as a result.

Primary referral causes in 2017/18 to Trussell Trust Foodbanks (reasons under 1% include delayed wages, child holiday meals and refused STBA):



The Revd John Edward Cooper RIP

Sadly, The Revd John Cooper died early on New Year's Day in hospital in Leicester following a fall. Funeral details will follow in due course.

Mothers' Union December Meeting

Our Monthly Meeting on Thursday 13 December was a celebration of Christmas with communion and readings, with tea and cakes. We were very pleased to have The Revd Stephen Griffiths join us for the first time. Patsy Clifton was admitted as member of the Mothers' Union, and was greeted with a round of applause. It was sad to hear the news that Christine Carlin had passed away suddenly. All members joined in sending their deepest sympathy to her family. She will be missed. The meeting closed with the blessing and happy Christmas to all. The next meeting will be Thursday 10 January at 2.15pm in the Church Hall. This will be the AGM, and all are welcome.

Advent in Braunston

Thank you to everyone who supported the Braunston Church Advent Fayre, where there was a great mix of traditional and interesting new items on sale. The total raised was a fantastic £2,300 which helped to swell the repair fund! And also huge thanks to everyone who participated in Braunston's first Living Advent Windows event. All the displays, phone box included, looked fabulous. Well done everyone. We had 30 households take part.

Braunston Bat Boxes

Our Heritage Lottery funding for 2019 has been confirmed and this allows us to make the blocking work inside the church permanent. The bats can continue to roost in the south aisle roof, but this work prevents them getting into the interior of the church and will stop the fouling of the pews, walls and floors, so everyone – bats and humans alike – is happy! Additionally, the funding covers the installation of a bat box on a pole in the churchyard extension paddock, which we hope will provide an additional roost for the bats outside the church. The blocking work, and hopefully the bat box installation as well, is planned for early April.

Braunston Repairs Update

A big thank you to the many people across the village who have made generous donations towards the urgent repairs required to keep our village Church watertight. So far, £38,000 has been raised, which means that there are just £13,000 in gift-aided donations needed. If you would like to make a donation to take us to the £54,000 total, please make a cheque payable to "Braunston PCC" and send it with your name and address and a note confirming Gift Aid may be claimed (if applicable) to Pat Anderson, PCC Treasurer, 52 Church Street, Braunston. Donation forms are also available inside the Church or contact Pat Anderson on 774388 for more details.

Oakham PCC – 22 Nov

A comprehensive report on safeguarding issues was given by our Safeguarding Officer, Ruth Bray, and a copy of Promoting a Safer Church is in the Church Office. Finance: Drafting of the 2019 budget awaited insurance costs (likely to be down after the installation of roof alarm system) and Parish Share costs for 2019 and salaries updates. Current giving is still down and the PCC is discussing a possible future stewardship campaign. Details of our mission giving for 2018 and a proposal for cashless giving are in hand. Fabric: proposals to replace external floodlighting are in hand (current system stems back to early 1990s); regulating the clock has been a problem as a result of installation of the roof alarm system (both sharing the same radio signal), but this has now been resolved; our hard-working fabric group's advised priority scheduling for work to be done was agreed, and the decaying louvres (1940s?) will be dealt with as soon as quotes have been approved and subject to available funding (grants?); it was also agreed that the amount for unexpected problems be increased to £1000 without reference to the PCC, provided funding is available; future plans will include the introduction of a moveable handrail/ramp at the step to the Trinity Chapel, and the current audio system (23 years old) replacement is being urgently investigated (two quotes now received). Our next PCC meeting is on Thursday 24 January 2019 and a Team Council drawn from the whole benefice has been established, meeting quarterly. The full draft minutes are available on the noticeboard at the North Door. Marilyn Tomalin, PCC Secretary.

Bereavement Support in All Saints & The Oakham Team

Losing a loved one by death is painful. The grief may feel unbearable, last longer than you expect, or reappear later, perhaps in response to an anniversary or another source of stress.

Visiting Service

All Saints has a team of trained and commissioned volunteers who offer home visits to the bereaved. This service is open to those of all faiths or none living in the Oakham Team Ministry. The loss may have been recent or years ago. If a confidential and kindly listening ear might help, then please fill in self-referral form and give it to a member of the Ministry Team or one of the Bereavement Support Team. This form will ensure we get details correct and we can match you to a suitable visitor, and that you consent to being visited.

Bereavement Support Group

We are also responding to requests for a Bereavement Support Group. Watch this space!

Supporters' Team Meeting

The team of bereavement supporters meet on the second Tuesday of the month at 7pm in the Parish Hall (though there will be no meeting in January). We meet to support each other, share expertise, and discuss difficult issues that might arise. If you would like to join the team, please contact one of us – Sian Cheverton (01572 755286), Susan Osborne (07926 833684), Madeleine Morris (07754 414437).

Referral Form for the Lay Bereavement Support Service

The All Saints Bereavement Support Team offers visits to those recently bereaved, and would like to extend this to those whose loss was further back in time. This will be in the form of home visits by an experienced and trained member of the church.

If you would like to consider being visited, please fill in the form opposite, and return it to The Parish Office, All Saints Church, Church Street, Oakham LE15 6AA.

We are happy to contact you by telephone or email, and perhaps you could indicate on the form the method by which you would prefer us to contact you.

This information will be shared with members of our Bereavement Support Team to enable us to provide the most appropriate help. We will not use it for any other purpose.
