Collect

God our redeemer,
you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
grant, that as by his death he has recalled us to life,
so by his continual presence in us he may raise us to eternal joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord. Amen.

Additional Collect

Risen Christ,
by the lakeside you renewed your call to your disciples:
help your Church to obey your command and draw the nations to the fire of your love,
to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading – Acts 16.9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, 'Come over to Macedonia and help us.' When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them. We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshipper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, 'If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home.' And she prevailed upon us.

Second Reading – *Revelation 21.10,22–22.5

In the spirit the angel carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day – and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honour of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practises abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life. Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign for ever and ever.

Gospel – John 5.1-9

After this there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate there is a pool, called in Hebrew Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. In these lay many invalids - blind, lame, and paralysed. One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years. When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been there a long time, he said to him, 'Do you want to be made well?' The sick man answered him, 'Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; and while I am making my way, someone else steps down ahead of me.' Jesus said to him, 'Stand up, take your mat and walk.' At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath.

Alternative Gospel – John 14.23-29

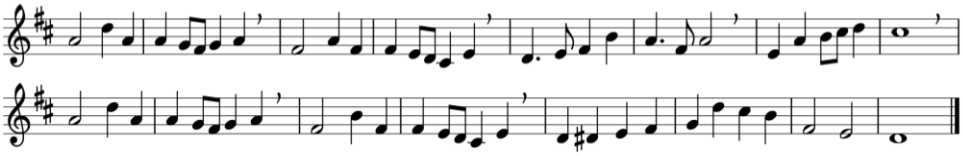
Jesus said to his disciples: 'Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me. 'I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, "I am going away, and I am coming to you." If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe.'

Final Hymn



1. God is our strength and refuge,
our present help in trouble,
and we therefore will not fear,
though the earth should change!
Though mountains shake and tremble,
though swirling waters are raging,
God the Lord of hosts is with us evermore!

2. There is a flowing river,
within God's holy city;
God is in the midst of her,
she shall not be moved!
God's help is swiftly given,
thrones vanish at his presence,
God the Lord of hosts is with us evermore!

3. Come, see the works of our maker,
learn of his deeds all-pow'rful;
wars will cease across the world
when he shatters the spear!
Be still and know your creator,
uplift him in the nations,
God the Lord of hosts is with us evermore!.

Deputy Churchwarden

Mark Nicholls has kindly agreed to be a deputy churchwarden for the 8am service at Oakham. He will be speaking for the 8am congregation at PCC and coordinating the volunteers for that service.

Braunston Bellringers

At the annual Bellringing Striking Competition on Saturday 18 May, held this year at Great Casterton, Braunston Church bellringing team won the Beadman Shield. Well done!

Volunteer Roles

As part of our commitment to faithful stewardship and promoting generous giving All Saints Oakham PCC is looking for two volunteers to help support the congregation in this area. If either role is of interest please speak to Stephen or Richard Plummer.

Legacy Giving Coordinator – this role is about helping people to think about leaving a financial gift to All Saints Oakham (or any church in the Oakham Team Ministry) through their will. Over the years we have benefited from the generosity of people who have made provision for our churches in their will. We are looking for someone who can promote this idea, create suitable information, and be a point of contact for those who would like to consider this and talk about it with someone in confidence. This role comes under the oversight of the PCC's finance sub-committee.

Grant Application Coordinator – grants are widely available to churches for a variety of purposes, ranging from the repair of the building to supporting staff costs and buying new equipment. The grant application coordinator will work alongside the PCC, fabric committee and ministry team to identify projects which would qualify for grant funding. We are looking for someone who can prepare and submit grant application forms, build good relationships with local charities, and research other streams of funding. This role comes under the oversight of the PCC's finance sub-committee.

Alan & Gail Rudge

From May to August, Alan and Gail Rudge will be taking a well-earned rest from their duties in the Oakham Team Ministry. Both of them give of themselves so willingly in the Lord's service and their ministry is greatly appreciated across the whole team. They will be taking time for spiritual and physical refreshment over the coming weeks. Although we will still see them during their period of rest please resist the urge to ask them to do things. Instead perhaps ask them, 'What can we do for you!?' This is not a retirement, so we look forward to their fellowship and the benefit of their ministry later in the year.

French Exchange Visit

Iain has been asked if he knows anyone who might want to do an exchange visit with a 13 year old French girl? She lives in the Loire valley (near Angers), in a nice Christian family. If you know anyone this might suit, Iain would be happy to put the two sides in touch.

Peter Townsend

Jerry Swift, Peter Townsend's nephew who organised his funeral would like to pass on his thanks: Please express our gratitude to all those in the parish who visited Peter, supported him and ultimately showed their affection for him by attending his funeral: we all appreciated their prayers.

Alpha Course – September 2019

Oakham Baptist Church is running the Alpha Course this autumn, and all the churches in Oakham are welcome to participate. This is another way that we can express our unity as Churches Together in Oakham. The Alpha Course is a tried and tested way of introducing people to Jesus Christ in a friendly and non-judgemental way. Please look out for more information in the coming months or see alpha.org for more information. There are three things you could think about: (1) Would you like to attend the course and make a fresh commitment to Jesus Christ?; (2) Is there someone you could invite to attend? You could attend with them or simply recommend the course to them; (3) Could you be the 'host' at a table of 8 guests? There will be a training session to help you prepare for this. Please speak to the clergy team if you would like to attend or help.

Thank You from St Peter Brooke

Thank you to all who organised and helped with the stall at the Braunston May Fayre and all who helped with the recent Spring Cleaning, it was completed in record time.

Housing the Homeless

Churches Together is raising money to establish supported housing for people who have experienced homelessness. The aim is not just to put a roof over a person's head, but also to offer the personal support and Christian love they need, so as to re-establish the confidence and good habits they need to move back into independent tenancy. The project is not mainly seeking donations, but rather money that people would be willing to invest over 5 years, for a return, in residential property. Over £100k has been pledged on that basis, and we need another £75k plus. Iain will be speaking about the project at the 8.00am and 10.30am services in Oakham on 23 June. If you have investment money you might be able to put into the project please speak to Iain now or after those services (07935 549947 / iain@oakhamteam.org.uk).

Staff Appointment Update

The meeting on 12 May took a different turn following the late withdrawal of the application by Revd Dr Andrew Hartropp for the Team Vicar post, but was a very positive meeting in which Stephen, together with the Archdeacon and Rural Dean, outlined other possible ways forward in the future ministry of the Team, including the possibilities of appointing a 'house for duty' priest and/or a lay member of staff such a youth worked or parish nurse. The discussions will be taken back to individual PCCs before the Team Council meets again to plan the way forward, so do talk to your churchwardens or other representatives for more information.

Mosque Visit

Would you like to visit a mosque?

On 2 May nearly 40 people met in All Saints with speakers from the St Philip's Centre in Leicester, for a 'Taste of Faith' about Islam: two Muslims answered a wide range of questions about their faith and lives. Given the lively response, Iain wonders if there would be interest in going to Leicester to visit a mosque. If this might interest you, please let him know (07935 549947 / iain@oakhamteam.org.uk).

The LINK

The Link is the new magazine for the Oakham Team Ministry, and the pilot edition is now available in all Team churches. The Link does not aim to replicate the content of the pewsheet or the website, which already keep you up-to-date with news and events, but instead aims to provide articles on a range of subjects including local church events, the Christian faith, special places and people, interviews, contemporary issues, charities and mission agencies, the life of the Deanery, Diocese and wider church, prayers and poetry, book reviews etc. We plan to publish it three times a year – please take a copy, and indeed copies to give to your friends as well. We look forward to hearing your feedback!

Brooke Treasurer

At the end of this financial year, (April 2020) Terry Greer will have been treasurer of Brooke Church for 20 years and has decided to retire. Currently there is no-one lined up to take over – it is possible there may be someone who is used to book keeping and simple accounting and may be interested in joining the PCC and becoming involved in the running in this Grade 1 listed Church's finances. Terry is very happy to help an interested person understand the accounts and records and hand over in an orderly manner. Contact him if you are interested on 01572 770574 of terry.greer@oakhamteam.org.uk.

Churches Together Update

The Drop-in Centre has had a former chef and another couple volunteer to cook, which is an answer to prayer. There will be a celebration of 10 years from opening on 5 June. Thy Kingdom Come, the global wave of prayer between Ascension and Penetcost will be marked in all the churches – more details to follow. The Sukkot Project is progressing – more details elsewhere. A New Day Dawns, the Festival of Faith 2019/20, programme will be available shortly (including Songs of Praise on Sunday 1 September) – volunteers from each are being sought to join the organising group as events come to fruition – speak to Patrick Wilson or Revd Iain Osborne if you are interested.

Foodbank Project Manager

A Project Manager is needed for Rutland Foodbank for 25-30 hours per month, to support the smooth running of the Foodbank, overseeing the operation and dealing with day-to-day issues, including liaising with the Trussell Trust, local agencies and volunteers. David Clark, who has been acting as Chairman and Project Manager, will continue in the former role, and the new role will initially be a voluntary one. If you are interested please contact Helen Baggott (01572 771082 / hrbaggott@gmail.com) or talk to Revd Charlotte Osborn who has the full job description..

Come and Chat

The next Come and Chat Bereavement Support Group will meet 10.30am–12noon at the Church Hall on Friday 31 May. All are welcome from the recently bereaved to those who feel they might benefit from this support no matter how long ago they experienced a significant loss. People are welcome to turn up on the day with no pre-booking required. For further information and contact details please look at the website
