8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion*

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Opening Hymn*

1. In Christ there is no east or west, in him no south or north,
but one great fellowship of love
throughout the whole wide earth.
2. In him shall true hearts everywhere their high communion find;
his service is the golden cord,
close binding humankind.
3. Join hands, then, children of the faith, whate' er your race may be;
who serves my Father as his child is surely kin to me.
4. In Christ now meet both east and west, in him meet south and north;
all Christlike souls are one in him,
throughout the whole wide earth.

Words: John Oxenham (William Arthur Dunkerley) (1852-1941)

Music: Kilmarnock, melody, and most of the harmony, by Neill Dougall (1776-1862)

Collect

O God,
the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – *Isaiah 65.1-9

The word of the Lord through the prophet: I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask, to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, 'Here I am, here I am', to a nation that did not call on my name. I held out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices; a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and offering incense on bricks; who sit inside tombs, and spend the night in secret places; who eat swine's flesh, with broth of abominable things in their vessels; who say, 'Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you.' These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire that burns all day long. See, it is written before me: I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their laps their iniquities and their ancestors' iniquities together, says the LORD; because they offered incense on the mountains and reviled me on the hills, I will measure into their laps full payment for their actions. Thus says the LORD: As the wine is found in the cluster, and they say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it', so I will do for my servants' sake, and not destroy them all. I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah inheritors of my mountains; my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall settle there.

Second Reading – Galatians 3.23-29

Before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ; There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus. And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Gradual Hymn*

1. Dear Lord and Father of mankind, forgive our foolish ways;
re-clothe us in our rightful mind,
in purer lives thy service find,
in deeper reverence praise.

2. In simple trust like theirs who heard, beside the Syrian sea,
the gracious calling of the Lord,
let us, like them, without a word, rise up and follow thee.

3. O Sabbath rest by Galilee!
O calm of hills above,
where Jesus knelt to share with thee
the silence of eternity, interpreted by love!

4. Drop thy still dews of quietness, till all our strivings cease;
take from our souls the strain and stress, and let our ordered lives confess
the beauty of thy peace.

5. Breathe through the heats of our desire thy coolness and thy balm;
let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
speak through the earthquake, wind and fire,
O still small voice of calm.

*Words: John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-1892)
Music: Repton, from Judith, Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918) (Ancient & Modern – 621)*

Gospel – Luke 8.26-39

Jesus and his disciples arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me' – for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Offertory Hymn*

1. The church's one foundation is Jesus Christ her Lord;
she is his new creation
by water and the word:
from heaven he came and sought her
to be his holy Bride;
with his own blood he bought her,
and for her life he died.

2. Elect from every nation, yet one o'er all the earth,
her charter of salvation
one Lord, one faith, one birth;
one holy name she blesses,
partakes one holy food,
and to one hope she presses with every grace endued.

5. Yet she on earth hath union with God the Three in One, and mystic sweet communion with those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we,
like them, the meek and lowly,
on high may dwell with thee:

3. Though with a scornful wonder men see her sore oppress,
by schisms rent asunder,
by heresies distress;
yet saints their watch are keeping,
their cry goes up, 'How long?'
And soon the night of weeping shall be the morn of song.

4. 'Mid toil and tribulation, and tumult of her war,
she waits the consummation of peace forevermore;
till with the vision glorious her longing eyes are blest, and the great church victorious shall be the church at rest.

Words: Samuel John Stone (1832-1900) Music: Aurelia, Samuel Wesley (1766-1837) (Ancient & Modern – 506)

Communion Anthem*

In the hour of my distress, when temptations me oppress, and when I my sins confess, sweet Spirit, comfort me!

When I lie within my bed, sick in heart and sick in head, and with doubts discomfited, sweet Spirit, comfort me!

When the house doth sigh and weep, and the world is drown'd in sleep, yet mine eyes the watch do keep, sweet Spirit, comfort me!

Words: Robert Herrick (1591-1674) Music: Peter Hurford (1930-2019)

Communion Hymns*

1. As water to the thirsty, as beauty to the eyes, as strength that follows weakness, as truth instead of lies,
as songtime and springtime and summertime to be,
so is my Lord, my living Lord, so is my Lord to me.

2. Like calm in place of clamour, like peace that follows pain, like meeting after parting, like sunshine after rain,
like moonlight and starlight and sunlight on the sea,
so is my Lord, my living Lord, so is my Lord to me.

3. As sleep that follows fever, as gold instead of grey, as freedom after bondage, as sunrise to the day, as home to the traveller and all we long to see,
so is my Lord, my living Lord, so is my Lord to me.

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b 1926) Music: Oasis, Thomas Brian Coleman (b 1920)
© Timothy Dudley-Smith (Ancient & Modern - 534)

1. Give us the wings of faith to rise within the veil, and see the saints above, how great their joys, how bright their glories be.

2. Once they were mourning here below, their couch was wet with tears;
they wrestled hard, as we do now,
with sins and doubts and fears.

3. We ask them whence their victory came:
they, with united breath,
ascribe their conquest to the Lamb, their triumph to his death.

4. They marked the footsteps that he trod, his zeal inspired their breast,
and, following their incarnate God, possess the promised rest.

5. Our glorious Leader claims our praise for his own pattern given;
while the long cloud of witnesses show the same path to heaven.

Words: Isaac Watts (1674-1748)
Music: Song 67, melody & bass by Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625), from E Prys's Llyfr y Psalmau (Ancient & Modern - 299)

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal Father,
we thank you for nourishing us
with these heavenly gifts:
may our communion strengthen us in faith,
build us up in hope,
and make us grow in love;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Father, Lord of all creation, ground of being, life and love:
height and depth beyond description only life in you can prove:
you are mortal life's dependence thought, speech, sight are ours by grace;
yours is every hour's existence,
sovereign Lord of time and space.

2. Jesus Christ, the Man for others, we, your people, make our prayer:
help us love – as sisters, brothers – all whose burdens we can share.
Where your name binds us together you, Lord Christ, will surely be;
where no selfishness can sever there your love may others see.

3. Holy Spirit, rushing, burning wind and flame of Pentecost, fire our hearts afresh with yearning to regain what we have lost.
May your love unite our action,
never more to speak alone:
God, in us abolish faction,
God, through us your love make known.

First Lesson – Judges 13.2-7,24-25

Office Hymn

168 – On this high feast day honour we the Baptist (tune 190 – Coelites Plaudant)

Magnificat & Nunc Dimittis – Set 6

Second Lesson – Luke 1.5-25

Hymn after the Prayers

1. Last of the great prophetic line, by desert ways he trod,
a voice to call by word and sign a nation home to God.
2. 'Repent!' – that summons heard of John our hearts shall not forget;
his voice is stilled, his day is gone,
his call is with us yet.
3. A watchman's cry to end the night,
a herald of the day,
he points to Christ, the Light of light,
'Prepare, prepare his way!'
4. He points to Christ, the coming one, of whom the Scriptures told,
baptising God's beloved Son:
'The Lamb of God behold!'
5. He points to Christ, the living Word, before whose feet we fall,
the Light, the Lamb, the Son and Lord, to Christ the all in all..

Words: Timothy Dudley-Smith (b 1926) Music: Song 67, melody & bass by Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625), from E Prys's Llyfr y Psalmau © Timothy Dudley-Smith (Hymns of Prayer and Praise - 419)

Hymn after the Sermon

1. When John baptized by Jordan's river in faith and hope the people came, that John and Jordan might deliver their troubled souls from sin and shame.
2. They came to seek a new beginning, the human spirit's ageless quest, repentance, and an erid of sinning, renouncing every wrong confessed.
3. There as the Lord, baptized and praying, rose from the stream, the sinless one,
a voice was heard from heaven saying,
'This is my own beloved Son.'
4. There as the Father's word was spoken, not in the power of wind and flame,
but of his love and peace the token, seen as a dove, the Spirit came.
5. O Son of Man, our nature sharing, in whose obedience all are blest, Saviour, our sins and sorrows bearing,
hear us and grant us this request:
6. Daily to grow, by grace defended, filled with the Spirit from above;
in Christ baptized, beloved, befriended,
children of God in peace and love.

Team Vicar Appointment Update

At the beginning of the year we advertised the currently vacant Team Vicar post in the national church press, but received no applications. Since then the advert has remained on the Peterborough Diocese website but has not generated any applications. We did get one expression of interest, but this did not lead to an interview. The Team Council has considered various ways forward and has agreed to reconfigure the role as a house for duty (part-time) post covering Braunston, Brooke, Egleton and Hambleton. This post will be advertised in July. Given the reduction in parish share that this would generate we may well be in a position to consider one or more paid lay appointments in 2020. This could be in the areas of youth and children's ministry and ministry to retired and older age groups. These are important decisions for later in the year. In the meantime the mission and ministry of the southern parishes continues and I'm very grateful to clergy and lay ministry team and the many volunteers who sustain this work.

Ordination of Jenni Duffy

On 7 July at 10.30am at All Saints Oakham we will be praying for Jenni Duffy as she prepares for her ordination. We will be presenting a gift to Jenni at that service. If you would like to contribute to that gift please put cash or a cheque payable to All Saints Oakham PCC in an envelope marked 'Jenni Duffy ordination' and place it in the collection plate or hand it in at the All Saints Office. On 14 July at 4pm Jenni will be ordained in Peterborough Cathedral. All are welcome to attend this service to support her. Jenni will serve as a curate in the Rutland Water Benefice. Please pray for her as she steps out in faith in God's service.

Quiet Day

A Day of Quiet Reflection at Launde Abbey on Tuesday 20 August 10am-4pm. Launde Abbey is a wonderful retreat house. We are so blessed to have it nearby. If you would like to share in a day of quiet reflection please sign up on the list by the south door. We will be led by Reader Emeritus Michael Ellard and will be sharing the day with the Lyddington Benefice. It is sure to be a special time of fellowship with God and one another. The cost £28.10 cover lunch and refreshments throughout the day. Please speak to Michael or Stephen if you'd like to know more. For more information about Launde Abbey visit www.laundeabbey.org.uk.

Christian Aid

Thank you to everyone involved in the collection for Christian Aid this year. We raised a total of £487.50.

Stewardship Volunteer

All Saints Oakham PCC is looking for someone to join the stewardship team at this critical time as we address our giving and prepare for the changes to the current giving scheme managed by Peterborough Diocese. It is important that all members of the church are able to contribute in a way and to a level that best suits them and All Saints Church. The boring bits (accounting and interface with HMRC) are already well covered. What is required is someone to support and encourage those who already give to All Saints and discuss with new members how they can support All Saints. This role has become vacant as Richard Plummer is taking responsibility for the church accounts. Guidance will be given, and you will be working with the support of the finance team and PCC. Please speak to Richard Plummer or Stephen.

Introduction to Christian Counselling

The Manna House Counselling Service in Northampton will be running this accredited course on 12 Thursday evenings or 6 Saturdays during the Autumn. Please see separate notice or the website for more details.

Alpha Course – September 2019

Oakham Baptist Church is running the Alpha Course this autumn, beginning on Monday 23 September 7.15–9.15pm. All the churches in Oakham are being invited to join in. You might like to attend and make a fresh commitment to Jesus Christ. You might like to recommend the course to a friend, and you could attend with them. If you'd like to book a place, please speak to Stephen or Carol Scothern.

Housing the Homeless

Churches Together is raising money to establish supported housing for people who have experienced homelessness. The aim is not just to put a roof over a person's head, but also to offer the personal support and Christian love they need, so as to re-establish the confidence and good habits they need to move back into independent tenancy. The project is not mainly seeking donations, but rather money that people would be willing to invest over 5 years, for a return, in residential property. Over £100k has been pledged on that basis, and we need another £75k plus. Iain will be speaking about the project at the 8.00am and 10.30am services in Oakham today. If you have investment money you might be able to put into the project please speak to Iain now or after those services (07935 549947 / iain@oakhamteam.org.uk).

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;

Thy Kingdom come;

Thy will be done;

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the Kingdom,

the power and the glory

for ever and ever.

Amen.

Please pray for all those being ordained this Petertide and among them
