Gloria

1. Glory in the highest to the God of heaven!
   Peace to all your people through the earth be given!
Mighty God and Father, thanks and praise we bring,
   singing Alleluia to our heavenly king;

2. Jesus Christ is risen, God the Father's Son!
   With the Holy Spirit you are Lord alone!
Lamb once killed for sinners, all our guilt to bear,
   show us now your mercy, now receive our prayer;

3. Christ the world's true Saviour, high and holy one,
   seated now and reigning from your Father's throne:
Lord and God, we praise you! Highest heaven adores:
   in the Father's glory, all the praise be yours!

Words: Christopher Idle (b 1938)
Music: Camberwell, John Micael Brierley (b 1932) – AM 593i
(Ancient & Modern – 415)

Collect

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
increase and multiply upon us your mercy;
that with you as our ruler and guide
we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal;
grant this, heavenly Father,
for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Additional Collect

Gracious Father,
by the obedience of Jesus
you brought salvation to our wayward world:
draw us into harmony with your will,
that we may find all things restored in him,
our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

First Reading – Deuteronomy 30.9-14

Moses spoke to the people, saying, The LORD your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the LORD will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the LORD your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

Second Reading – *Colossians 1.1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father. In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit. For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Gospel – Luke 10.25-37

A lawyer stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.' And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.' But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend." Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

Post Communion Prayer

Eternal God,
comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken,
you have fed us at the table of life and hope:
teach us the ways of gentleness and peace,
that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please pray for – The family and friends of Joan Law, whose thanksgiving service took place at Whissendine on Saturday;

– The family and friends of Russell Sharpe, Denis Proudman, Edward George and David Walker, who have died recently;

– For the victims of environmental disasters and all those still trying to rebuild their lives;

– The victims of terror attacks and who continue to suffer from the effects of violence;

– The people still facing severe famine in Nigeria, Somalia, Southern Sudan and Yemen;

– Dedicated and effective action against climate change and the pollution of our seas;

– Those returning to Iraq and those in Syria as they try to rebuild their lives and for help and a safe place for the refugees;

– Give thanks for the release of some of the Nigerian girls, and pray for those still held captive;

– Victims of religious extremism and persecution especially in Sudan, CAR, Kenya, Syria, Somalia, Eritrea, North Korea, China, India, Northern Nigeria, Iran, Iraq, Egypt, and Pakistan;

– The Brexit negotiations, that they may be conducted with wisdom and fairness;

– The Rutland Foodbank and the Drop-in Centre;

– Justin and John our Archbishops and Donald and John, our Bishops;

– Stephen, Deborah, Iain & Charlotte, our Team Clergy, and all lay members of the Ministry Team;

– Jenni Duffy, as she is ordained, and for future minitry;

– Madeleine McCann and her family and all missing children.

Jenni Duffy

At 4pm today Jenni will be ordained in Peterborough Cathedral. All are welcome to attend this service to support her. Jenni will serve as a curate in the Rutland Water Benefice. Please pray for her as she steps out in faith in God's service. Our best wishes and prayers go with Jenni as she begins a new and exciting phase in her life. She will be much missed by the congregations of All Saints Oakham and St Mary Ashwell and the wider benefice. Over the years Jenni has been an active member of these congregations. She started and ran the successful Monday Pram Service for Pre-school children and their carers, which she ran for 13+ years. She is a Parish Evangelist, she ran Lent courses, organised a support group for young Mums and assisted with School assemblies. One of her greatest achievements was being part of the Easter Experience, held the week before the Easter holidays. Children were invited to come and learn about the Easter Story by participating in various events. Jenni quietly got on with things! Her new parishes are very lucky to have her. Good Luck and God Bless.

Confirmation Service 2019

Confirmation is an important milestone in the Christian journey. It is a wonderful opportunity to acknowledge and celebrate God's call to follow him, and to pray for the Holy Spirit to guide and direct our lives. This year Bishop John Holbrook, the Bishop of Brixworth, will be joining us at our confirmation service on Sunday 17 November at 6pm at All Saints Oakham. Please speak to a member of the clergy or ministry team if you are interested in being confirmed and would like to join a preparation group (from September–November). This is an open invitation to people from all the parishes of our team. There is some useful information on this website https://www.churchofengland.org/life-events/confirmation.

Oakham Church Hall

Have you thought of hiring the Church hall for a 'one-off' party or event? The hall is available for hire for both one-off events and regular weekly/monthly events. Please contact Janine at the Church office to discuss.

Brooke Summer Concert

On the evening of the hottest day of the year, St Peter Brooke was the coolest place to be and where a full church was entertained by the Tudor Choir of Leicester, who performed a varied programme of wonderful music and song, including an amusing monologue entitled 'How To Give the Cat a Pill.' Afterwards we all enjoyed a superb selection of refreshments and drinks and for once were able to sit outside in the cool of the evening. Our grateful thanks must go to everyone who organised, designed, printed, cooked, served, provided facilities for the choir or helped in any way to make this such a successful evening. Not forgetting, of course, a big thank you to the several floral ladies whose magnificent displays adorned the church, and the choir for their great performance.

Traidcraft Sales

Are truly amazing for the first 6 months of the year, the total being £1359.77. This averages out at just over £226 per month which is fantastic, so a HUGE thank you to all of you who have carried on or joined in to help Traidcraft in their ongoing commitment to Fairtrade. The stall will be in Oakham Church after the 10.30 service on Sunday 21 July. If you haven't had chance to see what Traidcraft fairly traded goods are on offer please do have a look. Many thanks for everyone's ongoing support. Denise.

New Wine 2019

New Wine is a Christian organisation whose aim is to support local churches to change nations. Their annual summer conference weeks have been growing since 1989 and this year they are moving to a showground near here! New Wine will be at Peterborough Showground for two weeks – 27 July–10 August and although many go for a whole week it is possible to go for just a day and I would really encourage anyone to go and see what it is all about. See the website www.newwine.org for more details and to find out the amazing New Wine story. It is advised to book tickets and print them off before coming although, if you want to take a chance, available tickets will be for sale on the gate. If it seems too daunting to go by yourself, during Week 1 there will be a group from across Rutland camping in the Blue 5 village and everyone will be given a warm welcome and hospitality. All Saints Youth Group will be there on Thursday 1 August. If you would like to know more, or would like to make contact before coming, please call Deborah (07919 385314), if I'm not there myself at that time I can put you in touch with someone who is.

Mothers' Union Diocesan President Prayer Pilgrimage

Jill Cannings, our new MU Diocesan President, has committed to walk around as much of the Diocese as she can this month. She is coming to our area this Tuesday (9 July), and all are welcome to join us for all/part of the walk and/or to pray at the different churches en route. Jill would love to meet as many people as possible to hear about the challenges and joys of Christian life and to pray for how God through the MU can help to respond to some of those challenges. The programme is as follows – 10.45am Meet at J&A for coffee; 11am Prayer service in chapel, then walk to Langham; 12.30pm Prayer in Langham Church followed by lunch, then walk to Ashwell; 2.30pm Prayer in Ashwell Church, then walk to Market Overton; 4pm Prayer in Market Overton Church, then drive to Teigh; 4.30pm Prayer in Teigh Church, then drive to Whissendine; 5.30pm Evening Prayer in Whissendine Church. Please do join us if you can, for more details contact Deborah (07919 385314).

Team Vicar Appointment Update

At the beginning of the year we advertised the currently vacant Team Vicar post in the national church press, but received no applications. Since then the advert has remained on the Peterborough Diocese website but has not generated any applications. We did get one expression of interest, but this did not lead to an interview. The Team Council has considered various ways forward and has agreed to reconfigure the role as a house for duty (part-time) post covering Braunston, Brooke, Egleton and Hambleton. This post will be advertised in July. Given the reduction in parish share that this would generate we may well be in a position to consider one or more paid lay appointment in 2020. This could be in the areas of youth and children's ministry and ministry to retired and older age groups. These are important decisions for later in the year. In the meantime the mission and ministry of the southern parishes continues and I'm very grateful to clergy and lay ministry team and the many volunteers who sustain this work.

Quiet Day

A Day of Quiet Reflection at Launde Abbey on Tuesday 20 August 10am-4pm. Launde Abbey is a wonderful retreat house. We are so blessed to have it nearby. If you would like to share in a day of quiet reflection please sign up on the list by the south door. We will be led by Reader Emeritus Michael Ellard and will be sharing the day with the Lyddington Benefice. It is sure to be a special time of fellowship with God and one another. The cost £28.10 cover lunch and refreshments throughout the day. Please speak to Michael or Stephen if you'd like to know more. For more information about Launde Abbey visit www.laundeabbey.org.uk.

Stewardship Volunteer

All Saints Oakham PCC is looking for someone to join the stewardship team at this critical time as we address our giving and prepare for the changes to the current giving scheme managed by Peterborough Diocese. It is important that all members of the church are able to contribute in a way and to a level that best suits them and All Saints Church. The boring bits (accounting and interface with HMRC) are already well covered. What is required is someone to support and encourage those who already give to All Saints and discuss with new members how they can support All Saints. This role has become vacant as Richard Plummer is taking responsibility for the church accounts. Guidance will be given, and you will be working with the support of the finance team and PCC. Please speak to Richard Plummer or Stephen.

Alpha Course – September 2019

Oakham Baptist Church is running the Alpha Course this autumn, beginning on Monday 23 September 7.15–9.15pm. All the churches in Oakham are being invited to join in. You might like to attend and make a fresh commitment to Jesus Christ. You might like to recommend the course to a friend, and you could attend with them. If you'd like to book a place, please speak to Stephen or Carol Scothern.

Please pray for all those being ordained this Petertide and among them

Jennifer-Anne Lesley Duffy

To be ordained Deacon by Donald, Bishop of Peterborough

At Peterborough Cathedral, Sunday 14th July 2019 at 4pm

Please also pray for Gerry, Toni and Bradley; for Revd. Pippa Madgwick, and the Rutland Water Benefice, including Edith Weston, Empingham, Lyndon, Manton, North Luffenham, Pilton, Preston, Ridlington, Whitwell & Wing, with whom Jenni will serve.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart; and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.
Proverbs 3:5-6
