Gloria

1. Glory be to God in heaven,
and to all on earth, his peace;
Lord and Father, King in glory,
gifts of praise in us release,
so our worship and thanksgiving
from our hearts will never cease.

2. Christ incarnate, sent by Father
to redeem, renew, restore;
risen Lamb, in glory seated,
hear our prayers, Lord, we implore.
Now to Father, Son and Spirit
be all glory evermore.

Words: John Richards (1843-1901) Music: Regent Square, Henry Thomas Smart (1813-1879) (Mission Praise – 175)

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church
is governed and sanctified:
hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people,
that in their vocation and ministry
they may serve you in holiness and truth
to the glory of your name;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Additional Collect

Almighty God,
send down upon your Church
the riches of your Spirit,
and kindle in all who minister the gospel
your countless gifts of grace;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading – Genesis 18.1-10a*

The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre, as he sat at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. He looked up and saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the tent entrance to meet them, and bowed down to the ground. He said, 'My lord, if I find favour with you, do not pass by your servant. Let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree. Let me bring a little bread, that you may refresh yourselves, and after that you may pass on – since you have come to your servant.' So they said, 'Do as you have said.' And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, 'Make ready quickly three measures of choice flour, knead it, and make cakes.' Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf, tender and good, and gave it to the servant, who hastened to prepare it. Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree while they ate. They said to Abraham, 'Where is your wife Sarah?' And he said, 'There, in the tent.' Then one said, 'I will surely return to you in due season, and your wife Sarah shall have a son.'

Second Reading – Colossians 1.15-28

Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers – all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross. And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him – provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel. I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

Gospel – Luke 10.38-42

Now as Jesus and his disciples went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to Jesus and asked, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.' But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.'

Post Communion Prayer

Grant, O Lord, we beseech you, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered
by your governance,
that your Church may joyfully serve you in all godly quietness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Strawberry Tea

The Mothers' Union Strawberry Tea held on 11 July was a successful occasion. We raised £100, and we wish to thank both those who worked to provide the teas, together with those who joined us.

Summer Fayre

We should like to thank everyone who contributed in any way to the All Saints Summer Fayre. There has been a lot of very positive feedback. The event has raised over £1000, with the final figure to be confirmed shortly. Equally important was the opportunity it gave for outreach into our community. Thank you all very much. Elaine and Graham.

Jenni Duffy

Jenni was ordained in Peterborough Cathedral last Sunday, and she has now begun her curacy in the Rutland Water Benefice. Please pray for her as she steps out in faith in God's service.

Confirmation Service 2019

Confirmation is an important milestone in the Christian journey. It is a wonderful opportunity to acknowledge and celebrate God's call to follow him, and to pray for the Holy Spirit to guide and direct our lives. This year Bishop John Holbrook, the Bishop of Brixworth, will be joining us at our confirmation service on Sunday 17 November at 6pm at All Saints Oakham. Please speak to a member of the clergy or ministry team if you are interested in being confirmed and would like to join a preparation group (from September–November). This is an open invitation to people from all the parishes of our team. There is some useful information on this website <https://www.churchofengland.org/life-events/confirmation>.

Oakham Church Hall

Have you thought of hiring the Church hall for a 'one-off' party or event? The hall is available for hire for both one-off events and regular weekly/monthly events. Please contact Janine at the Church office to discuss.

New Wine 2019

New Wine is a Christian organisation whose aim is to support local churches to change nations. Their annual summer conference weeks have been growing since 1989 and this year they are moving to a showground near here! New Wine will be at Peterborough Showground for two weeks – 27 July–10 August and although many go for a whole week it is possible to go for just a day and I would really encourage anyone to go and see what it is all about. See the website www.newwine.org for more details and to find out the amazing New Wine story. It is advised to book tickets and print them off before coming although, if you want to take a chance, available tickets will be for sale on the gate. If it seems too daunting to go by yourself, during Week 1 there will be a group from across Rutland camping in the Blue 5 village and everyone will be given a warm welcome and hospitality. All Saints Youth Group will be there on Thursday 1 August. If you would like to know more, or would like to make contact before coming, please call Deborah (07919 385314), if I'm not there myself at that time I can put you in touch with someone who is.

Team Vicar Appointment Update

At the beginning of the year we advertised the currently vacant Team Vicar post in the national church press, but received no applications. Since then the advert has remained on the Peterborough Diocese website but has not generated any applications. We did get one expression of interest, but this did not lead to an interview. The Team Council has considered various ways forward and has agreed to reconfigure the role as a house for duty (part-time) post covering Braunston, Brooke, Egleton and Hambleton. This post is now being advertised. Given the reduction in parish share that this would generate we may well be in a position to consider one or more paid lay appointment in 2020. This could be in the areas of youth and children's ministry and ministry to retired and older age groups. These are important decisions for later in the year. In the meantime the mission and ministry of the southern parishes continues and I'm very grateful to clergy and lay ministry team and the many volunteers who sustain this work.

Quiet Day

A Day of Quiet Reflection at Launde Abbey on Tuesday 20 August 10am-4pm. Launde Abbey is a wonderful retreat house. We are so blessed to have it nearby. If you would like to share in a day of quiet reflection please sign up on the list by the south door. We will be led by Reader Emeritus Michael Ellard and will be sharing the day with the Lyddington Benefice. It is sure to be a special time of fellowship with God and one another. The cost £28.10 cover lunch and refreshments throughout the day. Please speak to Michael or Stephen if you'd like to know more. For more information about Launde Abbey visit www.laundeabbey.org.uk.

Stewardship Volunteer

All Saints Oakham PCC is looking for someone to join the stewardship team at this critical time as we address our giving and prepare for the changes to the current giving scheme managed by Peterborough Diocese. It is important that all members of the church are able to contribute in a way and to a level that best suits them and All Saints Church. The boring bits (accounting and interface with HMRC) are already well covered. What is required is someone to support and encourage those who already give to All Saints and discuss with new members how they can support All Saints. This role has become vacant as Richard Plummer is taking responsibility for the church accounts. Guidance will be given, and you will be working with the support of the finance team and PCC. Please speak to Richard Plummer or Stephen.

Alpha Course – September 2019

Oakham Baptist Church is running the Alpha Course this autumn, beginning on Monday 23 September 7.15–9.15pm. All the churches in Oakham are being invited to join in. You might like to attend and make a fresh commitment to Jesus Christ. You might like to recommend the course to a friend, and you could attend with them. If you'd like to book a place, please speak to Stephen or Carol Scothern.
