Gloria

1. Glory in the highest to the God of heaven!
Peace to all your people through the earth be given!
Mighty God and Father, thanks and praise we bring,
singing Alleluia to our heavenly king;
2. Jesus Christ is risen, God the Father's Son!
With the Holy Spirit you are Lord alone!
Lamb once killed for sinners, all our guilt to bear,
show us now your mercy, now receive our prayer;
3. Christ the world's true Saviour, high and holy one,
seated now and reigning from your Father's throne:
Lord and God, we praise you! Highest heaven adores:
in the Father's glory, all the praise be yours!

Words: Christopher Idle (b 1938) Music: Evelyns, William Henry Monk (1823-1889) – AM 593ii (Ancient & Modern – 415)

Collect

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us with all goodness,
and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Additional Collect

Generous God,
you give us gifts and make them grow:
though our faith is small as mustard seed,
make it grow to your glory
and the flourishing of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading – Ecclesiastes 1.2, 12-14; 2.18-23

Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity. I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem, applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with. I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me – and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labours under the sun, because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.

Second Reading – Colossians 3.1-11*

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things – anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

Gospel – Luke 12.13-21

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.' But he said to him, 'Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?' And he said to the crowd, 'Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.' Then he told them a parable: 'The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, "What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?" Then he said, "I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'" But God said to him, "You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?" So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.'

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life,
ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves
the power of his death and passion
that, in his saving cup,
we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

If the

So, if you're a cyclist, walker, have a blue badge for your car or are a horse rider, it's the day to set aside to visit as many places of worship as you can. We also need volunteers to sit in the churches to sign-in the participants. See the separate notice for individual church contact details for sponsorship forms and more info.

Summer Fayre Final Total

We are delighted to announce that the recent Summer Fayre raised £1,236.96 in total. Many thanks to everyone who supported us in any way, volunteers and visitors alike. It fulfilled our dual aims of being a wonderful fundraiser and of giving us a chance to offer a really enjoyable morning for all at the church, within and without! Elaine and Graham.

Friends Visit to Tolethorpe

Every year the Friends of All Saints visit Tolethorpe Hall to watch one of the Stamford Shakespeare Company's productions. This year around twenty of us saw Noel Coward's Blithe Spirit. The play is a send-up of the sort of belief in spiritualism that was popular between the world wars, when people understandably wished that they could get in contact with relatives who had died in battle. The play's plot sees a writer called Charles and his second wife Ruth, together with two friends, bring in a medium called Madame Arcarthy to see whom she might conjure up. They treat it rather as a game, but Charles' first wife Elvira (who had died in an accident) materialises. Much is made of the fact that only he can see her, hence the conversations which exclude Ruth and threaten to lead to a serious rift between Ruth and Charles. Ruth, and then Charles, want Elvira to be sent back to 'the other side'. Elvira wants Charles to die so that he will be with her in the afterlife, but he survives accidents. Elvira tampers with Charles' car, but it is Ruth who uses it first, has an accident and joins Elvira in the spirit world. All the main characters want the wives to leave, but Madame Arcarthy only succeeds in making them both invisible to Charles, who declares that he will travel over water, which they cannot do, to get away from them. So the play ends with Elvira and Ruth wrecking the house. The set was c1930 Art Deco with 'modern art' on the walls and the production was slick. Next year, will we go to see a Shakespeare comedy or 'The Importance of being Ernest'? Michael Hinman.

Braunston Church Repairs

Thanks to everyone's kind support we expect to start work on roof and masonry repairs to the church in early September and complete the first phase of work by the end of October. The church will be open for use throughout the period. There will be some external scaffolding in place and we will be enhancing our alarm systems to include the scaffolding. During this period we ask everyone to be vigilant in case of attempted roof metal theft. If you see or hear anything suspicious please call the police immediately! Rob Anderson.

Lottie McAvoy RIP

We are very sorry to record the sad news of the death of Lottie McAvoy (wife of Brian). Her funeral will be on Friday 9 August at 11am at Cottesmore Parish Church.

Thank You

Thank you to all who contributed, donated, volunteered, and helped from All Saints Oakham and Langham. A big thank you to Bishop's Lodge in Leicester for their donation. We collected £120 for MSF, which includes cakes, raffle, and collection tins. Some years are better than others.

Traidcraft Update

I have recently received this from the CEO of Traidcraft: Great to be able to share with you some good news. Many of you will remember that in our original plan we were eventually going to have to move from our home here in Gateshead. Well, I am delighted to say that we are now able to stay, meaning that we have been able to offer permanent roles to many of our colleagues in both customer services and the warehouse. This is fantastic news and just shows how many of you have stepped up to the plate to support Traidcraft in its continuing mission, thank you and do please keep supporting. Denise (01572 722729 / 07981 639649 / denise.mcdonald@oakhamteam.org.uk)

Thank You

A huge thank you to everyone in the Oakham Team for all your kind thoughts and prayers leading up to my ordination, and also for the delicious cake and the beautiful gift of a portable home communion set – I will remember you all whenever I use this (which will be regularly in the Rutland Water Benefice). I would also like to say thank you to all of you who travelled to Peterborough Cathedral to attend the ordination service – it was amazing and humbling to have so many people there to support me and I am very grateful for all of you, and for the many cards and messages I received. Jenni Duffy.
