8:00am Holy Communion

10:30am Parish Communion

The Order of Service is contained in the separate Service Book.

Processional Hymn

1. O Jesus, I have promised
to serve thee to the end:
be thou ever near me,
my Master and my Friend:
I shall not fear the battle
if thou art by my side,
nor wander from the pathway
if thou wilt be my guide.

2. O let me feel thee near me:
the world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
the tempting sounds I hear;
my foes are ever near me,
around me and within;
but, Jesus, draw thou nearer,
and shield my soul from sin.

5. O let me see thy foot-marks, and in them plant mine own;
my hope to follow duly
is in thy strength alone:
O guide me, call me, draw me,
uphold me to the end;
and then in heaven receive me,
my Saviour and my friend.

3. O let me hear thee speaking in accents clear and still,
above the storms of passion,
the murmurs of self-will;
O speak to reassure me,
to hasten or control;
O speak, and make me listen,
thou guardian of my soul.

4. O Jesus, thou hast promised to all who follow thee,
that where thou art in glory
there shall thy servant be;
and Jesus, I have promised
to serve thee to the end;
O give me grace to follow,
my Master and my Friend.

Words: John Ernest Bode (1816-1874)

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
you are always more ready to hear than we to pray
and to give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation
of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Deuteronomy 30.15-20

See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the LORD your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the LORD your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the LORD swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Second Reading – *Philemon 1-21

Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker, to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith towards the Lord Jesus. I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ. I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother. For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty, yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love – and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment. Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me. I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel; but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced. Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back for ever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a beloved brother – especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self. Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ. Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

Gradual Hymn*

|--|---|
| 1. Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too. 2. We are pilgrims on a journey, and companions on the road;
we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load. 3. I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you,
speak the peace you long to hear. | 4. I will weep when you are weeping;
when you laugh, I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through. 5. When we sing to God in heaven, we shall find such harmony,
born of all we've known together of Christ's love and agony. 6. Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace
to let you be my servant too. |

Gospel – Luke 14.25-33

Large crowds were travelling with Jesus; and he turned and said to them, ‘Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple. For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him, saying, “This fellow began to build and was not able to finish.” Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand? If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace. So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.’

Offertory Hymn*

1. From heaven you came, helpless babe, entered our world, your glory veiled;
not to be served but to serve,
and give your life that we might live.

*This is our God, the Servant King,
he calls us now to follow him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering of worship to the Servant King.*

2. There in the garden of tears,
my heavy load he chose to bear;
his heart with sorrow was torn.
‘Yet not my will but yours,’ he said.

3. Come, see his hands and his feet,
the scars that speak of sacrifice,
hands that flung stars into space,
to cruel nails surrendered.

4. So let us learn how to serve,
and in our lives enthrone him;
each other’s needs to prefer,
for it is Christ we’re serving.

Communion Hymns*

1. My God, accept my heart this day, and make it always thine,
that I from thee no more may stray,
no more from thee decline.

2. Before the cross of him who died,
behold, I prostrate fall;
let every sin be crucified,
and Christ be all in all.

3. Anoint me with thy heavenly grace, and seal me for thine own;
that I may see thy glorious face,
and worship near thy throne.

4. Let every thought and work and word to thee be ever given:
Then life shall be thy service, Lord,
and death the gate of heaven.

5. All glory to the Father be,
all glory to the Son,
all glory, Holy Ghost, to thee,
while endless ages run.

Words: Matthew Bridges (1800-1894)

Music: St Peter, Alexander Robert Reinagle (1799-1877)

(Ancient & Modern – 335)

Communion Hymns*

Take, O take me as I am;
summon out what I shall be;
set your seal upon my heart
and live in me.

Post Communion Prayer

God of all mercy,
in this eucharist you have set aside our sins
and given us your healing:
grant that we who are made whole in Christ
may bring that healing to this broken world,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Final Hymn*

1. Forth in thy Name, O Lord, I go, my daily labour to pursue;
thee, only thee, resolved to know
in all I think or speak or do.

2. The task thy wisdom hath assigned,
O let me cheerfully fulfil;
in all my works thy presence find,
and prove thy good and perfect will.

3. Thee may I set at my right hand, whose eyes mine inmost substance see,
and labour on at thy command,
and offer all my works to thee.

4. Give me to bear thy easy yoke, and every moment watch and pray,
and still to things eternal look,
and hasten to thy glorious day;

5. For thee delightfully employ whate'er thy bounteous grace hath given;
and run my course with even joy,
and closely walk with thee to heaven.

Words: Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

RIDE & STRIDE

Run by Rutland Historic Churches, half of the money raised comes directly to the church of your choice, and the rest goes to Rutland Historic Churches. It's not just a money raiser though; it's great fun and of course helps you to keep fit. So, if you're a cyclist, walker, have a blue badge for your car or are a horse rider, it's the day to set aside to visit as many places of worship as you can. We also need volunteers to sit in the churches to sign-in the participants. See the separate notice for individual church contact details for sponsorship forms and more info.

10:00am-12:30pm – THE LAST TABOO
Oakham Methodist Church Hall

A safe and welcoming space for anyone of any faith or none, to listen/talk/question/find information about issues relating to the end of life. See separate notice for details.

2:30–5:00pm – LIFT UP YOUR VOICE
St Mark, St Marks Crescent,
Whitehills, Northampton, NN2 8EG

An afternoon of singing and playing for members of choirs, instrumentalists, congregation and clergy. Miles Quick, Head of RSCM Congregational and Instrumental Worship, will be looking at how music can enhance your worship, bringing resources which can be used in churches with or without traditional choirs. There will be opportunities for instrumentalists to participate and the afternoon will end with a short act of worship. New publications will be available to browse during the afternoon. Entry Fee: £5 including refreshments. To book your place please contact Andrew Moodie (01604 780507 / amoodie@rscm.com).

SUNDAY 15 SEPTEMBER

All Saints Oakham

Alan Thomas guitar.

J S Bach – The Complete Lute

Works. Bach's four suites for lute represent the pinnacle of the Baroque plucked-string repertoire, and indeed are amongst the greatest instrumental works of their era. In this series of four lunchtime concerts, guitarist Alan Thomas performs all of the works that Bach conceived for the lute spanning his entire career. Taken as a whole, they form an epic journey guided by Bach's superhuman powers of invention and elaboration. For more information, please visit www.alanthomas-guitar.com. First of four concerts.

Lute Suite BWV 996 (Prelude, Allemande, Courante, Sarabande, Bourée, Gigue); Prelude, Fugue and Allegro BWV 998.

THE SONG OF CREATION

All Saints Braunston

Harvest Festival Weekend – Art and Photographic Exhibition.

Saturday 2-6pm; Sunday 1-6pm, with 11am Songs of Praise. More information from Gail Rudge.

SATURDAY 21 SEPTEMBER

3:00pm & 7:00pm – NOT JUST FISH AND SHIPS – Peterborough Cathedral

The stunning setting of the choir stalls at Peterborough Cathedral will be transformed into a 7th century Synod on with two special performances of Pat Ashworth's unique and immersive play, Not Just Fish and Ships.

It's the year 664 and Whitby Abbey is hosting a Synod by royal request. Two opposing currents meet as the delegates arrive, with the date of Easter and monks' haircuts dominating the agenda. It's about the power of Rome and the pull of the saints, but most of all, it's about conformity. And who can argue with that?

Colman for one, the impetuous Abbot of Lindisfarne. He's pitted against the ambitious Wilfrid, Abbot of Ripon, impatient to become a bishop. King Oswy has a lot on his mind, with a north-south divide in the country and the Mercians always at his back. Meanwhile, Caedmon the poet is in a world of his own. It falls to Abbess Hilda to navigate these choppy waters – and to fulfil her own destiny.

A portrait of monastic life in Anglo-Saxon England, Not Just Fish and Ships is a courtroom drama with a light touch, with more than a little resonance for our own quarrelsome times. Tickets for the matinée performance are £12 per person (£10 concessions). For the evening, tickets are £15 (£12 concessions). To book, visit <https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/headland-theatre> or call Peterborough Visitor Information Centre on 01733 452336.

Starting with the next session on 11 September, Everyday Faith will now run two alternative groups, one at 11am and the other at the original time of 7.30pm.

Youth Work Apprenticeship

From September onwards Rutland Deanery will be benefitting from the Diocese of Peterborough's Youth Work Apprenticeship Scheme. This scheme allows people to train for a qualification in Christian youth work through a mixture of study and practical work.

Natalie will be working closely with the parish of Uppingham and Oakham Team Ministry, and forging links across the Deanery to build up ministry and outreach amongst young people. We will formally welcome her at a service in the autumn. Natalie will be able to support the ministry we offer to young people and families through church groups and school activities. It's a small step forward, but God-willing one that will lead to many good things. If you're interested in financially supporting ministry to young people in this area please speak to Stephen.

Francis-Dehqani Confirmation

Eleanor and Simeon Francis-Dehqani will be confirmed at Syston Parish Church on Sunday 22 September at 4pm. All Oakham friends are welcome to the service followed by tea. Bishop Guli will be confirming.

Braunston Church Repairs

Just a reminder that work to the church roof and masonry repairs will start in early September. The church will be open for use throughout the period but there will be some external scaffolding in place and we will be enhancing our alarm systems to include the scaffolding. During this period we ask everyone to be vigilant in case of attempted roof metal theft. If you see or hear anything suspicious please call the police immediately! Rob Anderson.

Michael Hinman RIP

By now many of you will know that Michael Hinman died during the night of Tuesday 20 August. It has come as a shock to us all, especially as Michael was still so active. We don't yet know for certain the reason for his sudden decline in health. On Sunday 18 August he led intercessions at the 10.30am service and led and preached at evensong at All Saints Oakham. He was faithful in Christian ministry to the very end. Michael served with distinction as a Reader across the parishes of the Oakham Team Ministry and further afield in the Rutland Deanery. He had strong links with Holy Trinity Coventry where he had been part of Bishop Graham Dow's ministry team in the 1980s. Michael was highly regarded as an archivist and historian, and was deeply rooted in the county he loved. His funeral is likely to be on Tuesday 10 September 11.30am at All Saints Oakham. Please come and celebrate Michael's life at this service as we thank God for all that he shared with us. Michael has completed his earthly journey and is now called home to be with the Lord he loved.

Join the Choir?

If you enjoy singing, come and join our Choir! There's no cost or audition: just a little of your time, as much as you're prepared to give. We practice for on Tuesdays in Whissendine Church (6.45–8.15pm). Then we sing at various services, weddings & other events around the area. There'll be two 'taster sessions' on 3 and 10 September, then at Harvest Evensong in Brooke Church on Sunday 15 September at 6pm. For more details, contact Kevin Slingsby (kevin@oakhamteam.org.uk / 07973 215444).

Traidcraft Sales & Dates

I'm am very pleased to report that the total sales just for July where a wonderful £307.40. Thank you to everyone who contributed to it. £130.45 of this was from our Summer Fayre – a very good morning and something to build on. The stall will be in Church after the 10.30 service next week, 15 September. Denise.

Oakham Church Hall

Have you thought of hiring the Church hall for a 'one-off' party or event? The hall is available for hire for both one-off events and regular weekly/monthly events. Please contact Janine at the Church office to discuss.

Confirmation Service 2019

Confirmation is an important milestone in the Christian journey. It is a wonderful opportunity to acknowledge and celebrate God's call to follow him, and to pray for the Holy Spirit to guide and direct our lives. This year Bishop John Holbrook, the Bishop of Brixworth, will be joining us at our confirmation service on Sunday 17 November at 6pm at All Saints Oakham. Please speak to a member of the clergy or ministry team if you are interested in being confirmed and would like to join a preparation group (from September–November). This is an open invitation to people from all the parishes of our team.

There is some useful information on this website

Alpha Course – September 2019

Oakham Baptist Church is running the Alpha Course this autumn, beginning on Monday 23 September 7.15–9.15pm. All the churches in Oakham are being invited to join in. You might like to attend and make a fresh commitment to Jesus Christ. You might like to recommend the course to a friend, and you could attend with them. If you'd like to book a place, please speak to Stephen or Carol Scothern
