Gloria

1. Glory in the highest to the God of heaven!
Peace to all your people through the earth be given!
Mighty God and Father, thanks and praise we bring,
singing Alleluia to our heavenly king;
2. Jesus Christ is risen, God the Father's Son!
With the Holy Spirit you are Lord alone!
Lamb once killed for sinners, all our guilt to bear,
show us now your mercy, now receive our prayer;
3. Christ the world's true Saviour, high and holy one,
seated now and reigning from your Father's throne:
Lord and God, we praise you! Highest heaven adores:
in the Father's glory, all the praise be yours!

Words: Christopher Idle (b 1938)

Music: Evelyngs, William Henry Monk (1823-1889) – AM 593ii (Ancient & Modern – 415)

Collect

Eternal God,
you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season:
grant that we may use them to your glory,
for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Deuteronomy 26.1-11

Moses spoke to the people, saying: When you have come into the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the LORD your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, 'Today I declare to the LORD your God that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our ancestors to give us.' When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the LORD your God, you shall make this response before the LORD your God: 'A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, we cried to the LORD, the God of our ancestors; the LORD heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O LORD, have given me.' You shall set it down before the LORD your God and bow down before the LORD your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the LORD your God has given to you and to your house.

Second Reading – Philippians 4.4-9*

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel – John 6.25-35

When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, ‘Rabbi, when did you come here?’ Jesus answered them, ‘Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.’ Then they said to him, ‘What must we do to perform the works of God?’ Jesus answered them, ‘This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.’ So they said to him, ‘What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, “He gave them bread from heaven to eat.”’ Then Jesus said to them, ‘Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.’ They said to him, ‘Sir, give us this bread always.’ Jesus said to them, ‘I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.’

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of the harvest, with joy we have offered thanksgiving for your love in creation and have shared in the bread and wine of the kingdom:
by your grace plant within us a reverence for all that you give us and make us generous and wise stewards of the good things we enjoy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Come and learn about this important festival for Hindus, Sikhs and Jains. Over 40 of us gathered in May to talk to two Muslim ladies about how Muslims think, pray and live. Now the St Philip's Centre in Leicester is organising a visit for us to learn about Diwali, which falls this year in late October. Three faith practitioners will join us – one Sikh, one Hindu and one Jain – and will bring food and artefacts, and also clothing as new clothing at Diwali is a big deal. You can even the chance to try your hand at rangoli (pattern) making with stencils and colourful sand. Contact Iain if you have any questions. By the way, Iain promised after the previous event to organise a mosque visit. He hasn't had time to do that, but watch this space for a visit next spring.

Please pray for

Oakham PCC – 26 Sep

Generous Giving Project (a new-style Stewardship Campaign) for Sundays 6 & 13 October – an initiative supported enthusiastically by the PCC who continue to receive rather stressed and stretched accounts, restricting our ability to move forward with repairs to the fabric, reordering and our mission ambitions in the wider community. Fund-raising steering group – warmly congratulated for the success of the Summer Fayre (next year's to be 27 June), and for the planning now underway for the Autumn Fayre on 16 November. A new treasurer must step forward soon, as Peter Hill will see current accounts finalised in January, but must be allowed a well-earned retirement. Please speak to Peter or Revd Stephen if you feel called to help with this important role. A new audio system is on the horizon – a phased process but with the promise of greatly enhanced effectiveness. Routine fabric repairs are being overseen by our churchwardens and the Fabric Group, and a removable ramp is to be purchased for the step to the Trinity Chapel (by the organ). Ministry updates: an interview for the House for Duty post to cover Hambleton/Egleton and Braunston/Brooke took place on 3 October; Revd Rachel Thompson (Minister in Secular Appointment) will be licensed by +John on 16 October at 7.30pm (all welcome); the relicensing of Michael Ellard as Reader to the Oakham Team Ministry has been agreed; self-supporting curate in training Simon Aley is to join us in June 2020, and a full time curate to be based at Langham Vicarage will join us in 2021. Full minutes are available on the noticeboard in the north transept and your PCC representatives are always willing to discuss any matters you may have. Marilyn Tomalin PCC Secretary. [6/10/19]

Rutland Farm Park

Apple picking – it's that time of the year and the apples are falling everywhere! If your garden is full of apples please bag them up and bring them to us! The pigs and goats absolutely love a treat and what better way to use those apples up. We are at Uppingham Road, LE15 6JD.

Braunston Church Repairs

Phase 1 of the church repairs was successfully completed on Friday 20 September in just three weeks. This covered repairs to the roof lead, crumbling masonry and failed pointing, and should stop water leaks which have stained the 14th century wall murals. The Bats in Churches Project will advise on how best to remedy the water/bat staining on these. During the work, we found evidence of the original workers who installed the roof leadwork in the 1700s. They scribed outlines of their feet, hands and tools on the lead along with dates. No additional repair work was discovered so we are now slightly under budget and can go ahead and start plans for phase 2 of the repairs to the tower stonework in early 2020.

Lighting up Braunston for Christmas

We had so much success with lighting up our windows last year that we hope it will become a tradition in our village. Please let Karen Allen know if you would like to join in (07961 050077 / 01572 723913).

Dates for the Fayre...

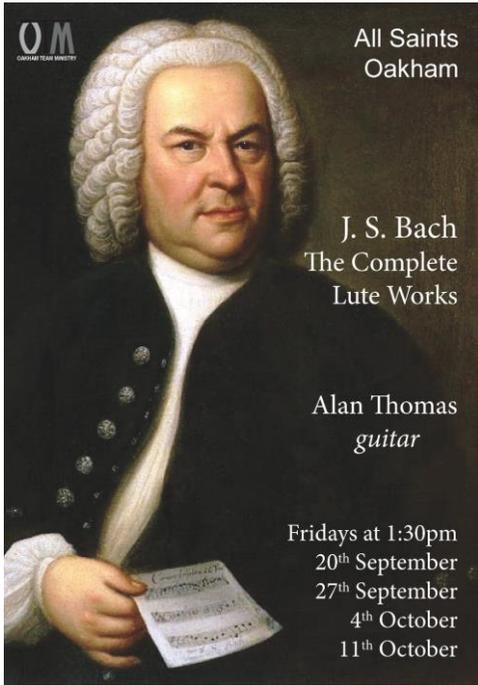

Please put the following dates into your diary. The Summer Fayre 2020 will be held on Saturday 27 June 10:00–12:00. In the meantime, please remember that this year's Autumn Fayre will take place on Saturday 16 November 9:30–12:00.

Youth Work Apprenticeship

From September onwards Rutland Deanery will be benefitting from the Diocese of Peterborough's Youth Work Apprenticeship Scheme. This scheme allows people to train for a qualification in Christian youth work through a mixture of study and practical work. Natalie will be working closely with the parish of Uppingham and Oakham Team Ministry, and forging links across the Deanery to build up ministry and outreach amongst young people. We will formally welcome her at a service in the autumn. Natalie will be able to support the ministry we offer to young people and families through church groups and school activities. It's a small step forward, but God-willing one that will lead to many good things. If you're interested in financially supporting ministry to young people in this area please speak to Stephen.

Oakham Church Hall

Have you thought of hiring the Church hall for a 'one-off' party or event? The hall is available for hire for both one-off events and regular weekly/monthly events. Please contact Janine at the Church office to discuss.
