Opening Hymn

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Thanks to God whose Word was spoken in the deed that made the earth.
His the voice that called a nation;
his the fires that tried her worth.
God has spoken, God has spoken:
praise God for his open word. | 3. Thanks to God whose word was written in the Bible's sacred page, record of the revelation
showing God to every age.
God has spoken, God has spoken:
praise God for his open word. |
| 2. Thanks to God whose Word Incarnate glorified the flesh of man;
deeds and words and death and rising
tell the grace in heaven's plan.
God has spoken, God has spoken:
praise God for his open word. | 4. Thanks to God whose word is published in the tongues of every race.
See its glory undiminished
by the change of time and place.
God has spoken, God has spoken:
praise God for his open word. |
| 5. Thanks to God whose word is answered by the Spirit's voice within.
Here we drink of joy unmeasured,
life redeemed from death and sin.
God is speaking, God is speaking:
praise God for his open word. | |

Collect

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them
that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast
the hope of everlasting life,
which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading – Isaiah 45.22-25*

Turn to me and be saved, all the ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other. By myself I have sworn, from my mouth has gone forth in righteousness a word that shall not return: 'To me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.' Only in the Lord, it shall be said of me, are righteousness and strength; all who were incensed against him shall come to him and be ashamed. In the Lord all the offspring of Israel shall triumph and glory.

Second Reading – Romans 15.1-6

We who are strong ought to put up with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Each of us must please our neighbour for the good purpose of building up the neighbour. For Christ did not please himself; but, as it is written, 'The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.' For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, so that by steadfastness and by the encouragement of the scriptures we might have hope. May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel – Luke 4.16-24

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.' And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.' All spoke well of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They said, 'Is not this Joseph's son?' He said to them, 'Doubtless you will quote to me this proverb, "Doctor, cure yourself!" And you will say, "Do here also in your home town the things that we have heard you did at Capernaum." And he said, 'Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in the prophet's home town.

Second Hymn

1. I cannot tell why he, whom angels worship, should set his love upon the sons of men,
or why, as Shepherd, he should seek the wanderers,
to bring them back, they know not how or when.
But this I know, that he was born of Mary
when Bethl'em's manger was his only home,
and that He lived at Nazareth and laboured,
and so the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is come.
2. I cannot tell how silently he suffered,
as with his peace he graced this place of tears,
or how his heart upon the cross was broken,
the crown of pain to three and thirty years.
But this I know, he heals the broken-hearted,
and stays our sin, and calms our lurking fear,
and lifts the burden from the heavy laden;
For yet the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is here.
3. I cannot tell how he will win the nations,
how He will claim his earthly heritage,
how satisfy the needs and aspirations of east and west, of sinner and of sage.
But this I know, all flesh shall see his glory,
and he shall reap the harvest he has sown,
and some glad day his sun shall shine in splendour
when he the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is known.
4. I cannot tell how all the lands shall worship,
when, at his bidding, every storm is stilled,
or who can say how great the jubilation
when every heart with love and joy is filled.
But this I know, the skies will thrill with rapture,
and myriad, myriad human voices sing,
and earth to heav'n, and heav'n to earth, will answer,
'at last the Saviour, Saviour of the world, is King!'

Words: William Young Fyallerton (1857-1932) Music: Londonderry Air, Air from County Derry from Irish Music as noted by George Petrie 1903, harmonised by John Barnard (b 1948) (Ancient & Modern – 666)

Third Hymn

1. We have a gospel to proclaim,
good news for all throughout the earth;
the gospel of a Saviour's name:
we sing his glory, tell his worth.
2. Tell of his birth at Bethlehem, not in a royal house or hall
but in a stable dark and dim,
the Word made flesh, a light for all.
3. Tell of his death at Calvary, hated by those he came to save,
in lonely suffering on the cross;
for all he loved his life he gave.
4. Tell of that glorious Easter morn:
empty the tomb, for he was free.
He broke the power of death and hell
that we might share his victory.
5. Tell of his reign at God's right hand,
by all creation glorified.
He sends his Spirit on his Church
to live for him, the Lamb who died.
6. Now we rejoice to name him King:
Jesus is Lord of all the earth.
This gospel-message we proclaim:
we sing his glory, tell his worth.

Help Please...

Can I please ask for volunteers after the 10.30am service on Remembrance Sunday to help set up chairs and move pews in readiness for the afternoon service. Many thanks in advance, Peter Kinal.

New Home Group

I have been both challenged and blessed by exploring The Beatitudes with a group of Catmose students this last term. They wanted to explore faith and, rather than just talk about what we believe, we tried looking at it from the perspective of practising the way of Jesus, using Jesus' simple yet profound teaching – his 'nine statement manifesto'. It feels only right that I now share this with those of us who truly seek to follow him and put into practice his life-giving words, and therefore I have drawn up a plan for us to explore these words together over the next year, looking at one beatitude a month, excluding April (Lent & Easter) and August (summer holidays). There will be an introductory evening on Monday 4 November, 7–9pm, at 3 Paddock Close, Whissendine, LE15 7HW – 7pm for drinks, puddings and chat, then 7.30-9pm Introduction to the Beatitudes.

Following this there will be the opportunity to meet monthly on Mondays at the same time: 2 Dec – Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven; 6 Jan – Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted; 3 Feb – Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth; 2 Mar – Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for justice, for they will be satisfied; 4 May – Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy; 1 Jun – Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God; 6 Jul – Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God; 7 Sep – Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven; 5 Oct – Blessed are you when people treat you badly for my sake, rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven; 2 Nov – Review practising the way of Jesus using his 'nine statement manifesto' does it live up to its promises...?; If there is demand, there could be a monthly Wednesday morning group as well. Ideally, please just come on 4 November to find out more, but if you can't make it and would like to express an interest, or you just have some questions, then please contact me. God bless, Revd Deborah Marsh.

Bell Ringers Needed

We would like to recruit some more volunteers to join the Braunston bellringing team. We practice every Wednesday evening 7.30–9.00pm, and ring for Sunday services 10.30–11.00am. If you would be interested in learning this ancient skill please just come along on a Wednesday or contact Richard Beadman on 07976 622130.

Revd Christopher Rattenberry

We are delighted to announce that, following interview and with the agreement of representatives of the parishes, Bishop Donald and the Team Rector, The Revd Stephen Griffiths, have invited The Revd Christopher Rattenberry to become Team Vicar within the Oakham Team, with particular responsibility for the parishes of Braunston, Brooke, Hambleton and Egleton, on a House for Duty basis. Christopher has accepted this post, and subject to the normal Church of England legal and administrative procedures, he will be licensed by Bishop Donald in All Saints Oakham on Saturday 23 November 2019 at 2.30pm. He is married to Heather and has two grown up sons and now two small grandsons all living in the East Midlands. After many years serving in the diocese of Southwell & Nottingham and then short interim posts in South Africa and in North Yorkshire he is looking forward to the challenges and opportunities that he will find in Oakham and the southern villages. Bishop Donald and Archdeacon Gordon are very grateful to all who helped with the preparation of the profile for this post, all the arrangements for the interview day and for all who have been sustaining the life of these parishes. We ask for your prayers for Chris and Heather as they prepare for their move. The Ven Gordon Steele, Archdeacon of Oakham.

Revd Rachel Thompson

We are pleased to welcome Rachel as Associate Minister in the Oakham Team Ministry. She was licensed at All Saints Oakham on Wednesday by the Bishop of Brixworth, and serves as a Minister in Secular Employment, with her main focus being her employment at the Air Ambulance Shop.

Project Sukkot Update

Churches Together is working to establish a house in Oakham where we can give a home to homeless people. We are doing this in partnership with the Peterborough charity Hope into Action who run around 70 such projects around the country. Our aim is not only to provide a roof and a bed, but also to share the joy of the Gospel and help our residents rebuild the confidence and skills they need to move into an ordinary tenancy. We, the churches, bring an extra ingredient to the project, which is the love of God. We now have sufficient investment pledges, and the Steering Group is now taking forward a series of parallel work-streams – firstly, to answer any final questions and confirm investor intentions. We are inviting investors to a meeting on 5 November where we will ask for a definite commitment. The investors will work together through a legal trust, and we will invite three or four of them to act as trustees; then we can look for the right house, working with the nominee-trustees. Once we have had an offer accepted, we formally constitute the trust, gather the money, and complete the purchase. There will then be some hard work to organise any refurbishment work that is needed, and to furnish the house. We believe strongly that the house should have high-quality fittings – this is a practical way to show to the residents that we care for and respect them. At this stage we will be asking the churches for support – gifts of money, skills, time and high-quality household equipment. Meanwhile, we will be gathering befrienders and supporters. Hope into Action can provide training to help us be the best support we can to our residents. We are working on who would be the best people to live in the house. From the beginning, we have felt that God has called us into this project. ‘May Your Kingdom come, on earth as in heaven’, as we pray each day. Please continue to pray for the project: for the Steering Group, who are busy; for investors, supporters and everyone involved, that we might allow the Holy Spirit in our hearts to draw us into an effective team; for our future residents – we don’t know them yet, but God does! – that they might find healing and the love of God through our work.

Christmas Late Night Shopping

As members of Churches Together in Oakham, we are taking part in a Nativity Trail at the Late Night Shopping event on Monday 9 December (4–8pm). We plan to have a tableau of the Nativity and are looking for two volunteers (children or adults) who could dress as Mary and Joseph, welcoming families into the church to visit the crib. We are also looking for volunteers to help with refreshments and make some mince pies please. Please could you speak to Carol Scothern or Sally Blythin if you feel you could help. We look forward to bringing the good news of the birth of Jesus to the people of our town at this event.

Treasurer Role at All Saints Oakham

We are looking for someone to take on the role of honorary treasurer for All Saints Oakham PCC. The role of treasurer is changing – our new cloud based accounting system means that our Finance Administrator, Sue Willests, will be managing most of the day to day accounting, online banking, writing cheques and the input of data into the system. The monthly reports are generated through the new accounting package. We are looking for an honorary treasurer who can work alongside Sue, helping to monitor our income, spending and budgets; join the PCC and present reports at our meetings; support the vision of the church through the wise use of money; help with some practical jobs like counting and banking money; be part of a finance sub-committee which oversees stewardship, HMRC gift-aid, and payroll. Please speak to Stephen if this is of interest to you.

Lighting up Braunston for Christmas

We had so much success with lighting up our windows last year that we hope it will become a tradition in our village. Please let Karen Allen know if you would like to join in (07961 050077 / 01572 723913).

Oakham Church Hall

Have you thought of hiring the Church hall for a 'one-off' party or event? The hall is available for hire for both one-off events and regular weekly/monthly events. Please contact Janine at the Church office to discuss

Friends Visit to Rockingham Castle

Please join us for a private tour of the Castle on Wednesday 4 December, decorated for a Victorian Christmas, with a costumed guide and followed by a festive two-course lunch with tea or coffee. The cost will be £28 and we will travel in shared cars, arriving at the castle at 11am ready to start our tour at 11.30am. We will then have lunch at 1pm which will allow time to browse in the Castle gift shop before returning home. The choices for the lunch are as follows: Roast English Turkey with pigs in a blanket & Stuffing or Winter Vegetable Roast, both served with roast potatoes and seasonal vegetables; Christmas Pudding with Brandy Sauce or Sherry Fruit Trifle. Please could you also indicate whether you are willing to drive and offer a lift or whether you will need a lift. The deadline for numbers and the money is 20 November as the information is needed by the Castle. Cash or cheques, payable to 'Friends of All Saints Church Oakham' can be given to either Liz Plummer or Brenda Blandford, left in the pigeon hole in the Mayhew Room or sent to Mrs E Plummer, 5 Suthern Close, Oakham, LE15 6FX. Braunston Advent Windows 2019

Hello everyone !

It's getting to that time of the year again, when Christmas gifts and decorations are already in our stores.

So, with that in mind and due to the overwhelming response from villager's last year, we are going to once again ask for households to volunteer to decorate one of their windows and light up Braunston for the Christmas period.

We will start off on the 1st December, lighting up a new window every day until the 25th December. Last year we had 32 volunteers, which enabled us to light up more windows early on in the month.

Please let me know if you would like to take part or have any questions. The easiest way to manage the windows is to set a timer to ensure that everyone has their lights coming on at the same time. 5:00pm - 11:00pm or thereabouts! And REMEMBER it can be an upstairs or a downstairs window.
