Gloria

1. Glory be to God in heaven,
and to all on earth, his peace;
Lord and Father, King in glory,
gifts of praise in us release,
so our worship and thanksgiving
from our hearts will never cease.

2. Christ incarnate, sent by Father to redeem, renew, restore;
risen Lamb, in glory seated,
hear our prayers, Lord, we implore.
Now to Father, Son and Spirit
be all glory evermore.

Words: John Richards (1843-1901) Music: Regent Square, Henry Thomas Smart (1813-1879) (Mission Praise – 175)

Collect

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord:
grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord. Amen.

Additional Collect

God of holiness,
your glory is proclaimed in every age:
as we rejoice in the faith of your saints,
inspire us to follow their example
with boldness and joy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Reading – Daniel 7.1-3,15-18*

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever – for ever and ever.'

Second Reading – Ephesians 1.11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Gospel – Luke 6.20-31

Then Jesus looked up at his disciples and said: 'Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. 'Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. 'Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. 'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. 'But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. 'Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. 'Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. 'Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. 'But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Post Communion Prayer

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things:
may we who have shared at this table
as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The Dismissal

Acclamation

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised:
there is no end of his greatness.

One generation shall praise your works to another and shall declare your power.

All your works praise you, Lord,
and your faithful servants bless you.

They make known the glory of your kingdom and speak of your power.

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord:
let everything bless his holy name for ever and ever.

The Dismissal Gospel – John 17.6-9

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said, 'I have made your name known to those you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

The Blessing

May God,
who kindled the fire of his love in the hearts of the saints,
pour upon you the riches of his grace.

Amen.

May he give you joy in their fellowship and a share in their praises.

Amen.

May he strengthen you to follow them in the way of holiness and to come to the full radiance of glory.

Amen.

And the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.

Amen.

The Dismissal

Following God's saints in the ways of holiness and truth, go in the peace of Christ.

Thanks be to God.

MONDAY 11 NOVEMBER

7:00pm – UNDERSTANDING DIWALI

All Saints Church Hall

Come and learn about this important festival for Hindus, Sikhs and Jains. Over 40 of us gathered in May to talk to two Muslim ladies about how Muslims think, pray and live. Now the St Philip's Centre in Leicester is organising a visit for us to learn about Diwali, which falls this year in late October. Three faith practitioners will join us – one Sikh, one Hindu and one Jain – and will bring food and artefacts, and also clothing as new clothing at Diwali is a big deal. You can even the chance to try your hand at rangoli (pattern) making with stencils and colourful sand. Contact Iain if you have any questions. By the way, Iain promised after the previous event to organise a mosque visit. He hasn't had time to do that, but watch this space for a visit next spring.

Sheep Knitters Needed

Each year the Oakham travelling nativity sets visit around 70 families and leave a sheep behind – if you are able to knit sheep please contact Margaret Tyler (01572 724799).

Oakham Autumn Fayre

Saturday 16 November 9.30am to 12noon – Two weeks to go! Please continue to search at home and to bring in now any good quality, saleable items for our stalls. There will be the usual bric-a-brac, preserves, handicrafts, tombola, and candles. Cakes, mince pies and plants will be very welcome nearer the date. In addition, we will have a separate accessories stall with jewellery, handbags and scarves. We would like to have a really attractive children's stall. Quality toys no longer used would be most welcome. There will be a children's pocket money section, so any good little items would be useful to promote this. Do bring items in before the 16th so that we can sort and present them attractively. We do not want books, cds, dvds or cuddly toys but puzzles would be very useful. Please bring items to the church and leave them safely in the parish office or give them to any of the Steering Group who are again organising the Fayre this year. Large and small posters are now available. Support us by taking some for your house or car window and to deliver to a few near neighbours/friends. Offers of assistance warmly welcomed! Please see Elaine and Graham. Many thanks for offers already received! Stall holders will be able to set up from 2pm on Friday 15 November. Pricing session for the Handicraft Group on Friday 8 November 10am at 8 Peterborough Avenue.

Help Please...

Can I please ask for volunteers after the 10.30am service on Remembrance Sunday to help set up chairs and move pews in readiness for the afternoon service. Many thanks in advance, Peter Kindl.

New Home Group

I have been both challenged and blessed by exploring The Beatitudes with a group of Catmose students this last term. They wanted to explore faith and, rather than just talk about what we believe, we tried looking at it from the perspective of practising the way of Jesus, using Jesus' simple yet profound teaching – his 'nine statement manifesto'. It feels only right that I now share this with those of us who truly seek to follow him and put into practice his life-giving words, and therefore I have drawn up a plan for us to explore these words together over the next year, looking at one beatitude a month, excluding April (Lent & Easter) and August (summer holidays). There will be an introductory evening on Monday 4 November, 7–9pm, at 3 Paddock Close, Whissendine, LE15 7HW – 7pm for drinks, puddings and chat, then 7.30–9pm Introduction to the Beatitudes.

Following this there will be the opportunity to meet monthly on Mondays at the same time: 2 Dec – Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven; 6 Jan – Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted; 3 Feb – Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth; 2 Mar – Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for justice, for they will be satisfied; 4 May – Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy; 1 Jun – Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God; 6 Jul – Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God; 7 Sep – Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven; 5 Oct – Blessed are you when people treat you badly for my sake, rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven; 2 Nov – Review practising the way of Jesus using his 'nine statement manifesto' does it live up to its promises...?; If there is demand, there could be a monthly Wednesday morning group as well. Ideally, please just come on 4 November to find out more, but if you can't make it and would like to express an interest, or you just have some questions, then please contact me. God bless, Revd Deborah Marsh.

Bell Ringers Needed

We would like to recruit some more volunteers to join the Braunston bellringing team. We practice every Wednesday evening 7.30–9.00pm, and ring for Sunday services 10.30–11.00am. If you would be interested in learning this ancient skill please just come along on a Wednesday or contact Richard Beadman on 07976 622130.

Revd Christopher Rattenberry

We are delighted to announce that, following interview and with the agreement of representatives of the parishes, Bishop Donald and the Team Rector, The Revd Stephen Griffiths, have invited The Revd Christopher Rattenberry to become Team Vicar within the Oakham Team, with particular responsibility for the parishes of Braunston, Brooke, Hambleton and Egleton, on a House for Duty basis.

Christopher has accepted this post, and subject to the normal Church of England legal and administrative procedures, he will be licensed by Bishop Donald in All Saints Oakham on Saturday 23 November 2019 at 2.30pm. He is married to Heather and has two grown up sons and now two small grandsons all living in the East Midlands. After many years serving in the diocese of Southwell & Nottingham and then short interim posts in South Africa and in North Yorkshire he is looking forward to the challenges and opportunities that he will find in Oakham and the southern villages. Bishop Donald and Archdeacon Gordon are very grateful to all who helped with the preparation of the profile for this post, all the arrangements for the interview day and for all who have been sustaining the life of these parishes. We ask for your prayers for Chris and Heather as they prepare for their move. The Ven Gordon Steele, Archdeacon of Oakham.

Project Sukkot Update

Churches Together is working to establish a house in Oakham where we can give a home to homeless people. We are doing this in partnership with the Peterborough charity Hope into Action who run around 70 such projects around the country. Our aim is not only to provide a roof and a bed, but also to share the joy of the Gospel and help our residents rebuild the confidence and skills they need to move into an ordinary tenancy. We, the churches, bring an extra ingredient to the project, which is the love of God. We now have sufficient investment pledges, and the Steering Group is now taking forward a series of parallel work-streams – firstly, to answer any final questions and confirm investor intentions. We are inviting investors to a meeting on 5 November where we will ask for a definite commitment. The investors will work together through a legal trust, and we will invite three or four of them to act as trustees; then we can look for the right house, working with the nominee-trustees. Once we have had an offer accepted, we formally constitute the trust, gather the money, and complete the purchase. There will then be some hard work to organise any refurbishment work that is needed, and to furnish the house. We believe strongly that the house should have high-quality fittings – this is a practical way to show to the residents that we care for and respect them. At this stage we will be asking the churches for support – gifts of money, skills, time and high-quality household equipment. Meanwhile, we will be gathering befrienders and supporters. Hope into Action can provide training to help us be the best support we can to our residents. We are working on who would be the best people to live in the house. From the beginning, we have felt that God has called us into this project. ‘May Your Kingdom come, on earth as in heaven’, as we pray each day. Please continue to pray for the project: for the Steering Group, who are busy; for investors, supporters and everyone involved, that we might allow the Holy Spirit in our hearts to draw us into an effective team; for our future residents – we don't know them yet, but God does! – that they might find healing and the love of God through our work.

Christmas Late Night Shopping

As members of Churches Together in Oakham, we are taking part in a Nativity Trail at the Late Night Shopping event on Monday 9 December (4–8pm). We plan to have a tableau of the Nativity and are looking for two volunteers (children or adults) who could dress as Mary and Joseph, welcoming families into the church to visit the crib. We are also looking for volunteers to help with refreshments and make some mince pies please. Please could you speak to Carol Scothern or Sally Blythin if you feel you could help. We look forward to bringing the good news of the birth of Jesus to the people of our town at this event.

Treasurer Role at All Saints Oakham

We are looking for someone to take on the role of honorary treasurer for All Saints Oakham PCC. The role of treasurer is changing – our new cloud based accounting system means that our Finance Administrator, Sue Willetts, will be managing most of the day to day accounting, online banking, writing cheques and the input of data into the system. The monthly reports are generated through the new accounting package. We are looking for an honorary treasurer who can work alongside Sue, helping to monitor our income, spending and budgets; join the PCC and present reports at our meetings; support the vision of the church through the wise use of money; help with some practical jobs like counting and banking money; be part of a finance sub-committee which oversees stewardship, HMRC gift-aid, and payroll. Please speak to Stephen if this is of interest to you.

Lighting up Braunston for Christmas

We had so much success with lighting up our windows last year that we hope it will become a tradition in our village. Please let Karen Allen know if you would like to join in (07961 050077 / 01572 723913).

Oakham Church Hall

Have you thought of hiring the Church hall for a 'one-off' party or event? The hall is available for hire for both one-off events and regular weekly/monthly events. Please contact Janine at the Church office to discuss

Friends Visit to Rockingham Castle

Please join us for a private tour of the Castle on Wednesday 4 December, decorated for a Victorian Christmas, with a costumed guide and followed by a festive two-course lunch with tea or coffee. The cost will be £28 and we will travel in shared cars, arriving at the castle at 11am ready to start our tour at 11.30am. We will then have lunch at 1pm which will allow time to browse in the Castle gift shop before returning home. The choices for the lunch are as follows: Roast English Turkey with pigs in a blanket & Stuffing or Winter Vegetable Roast, both served with roast potatoes and seasonal vegetables; Christmas Pudding with Brandy Sauce or Sherry Fruit Trifle. Please could you also indicate whether you are willing to drive and offer a lift or whether you will need a lift. The deadline for numbers and the money is 20 November as the information is needed by the Castle. Cash or cheques, payable to 'Friends of All Saints Church Oakham' can be given to either Liz Plummer or Brenda Blandford, left in the pigeon hole in the Mayhew Room or sent to Mrs E Plummer, 5 Suthern Close, Oakham, LE15 6FX. Hello everyone !

It's getting to that time of the year again, when Christmas gifts and decorations are already in our stores.

So, with that in mind and due to the overwhelming response from villagers's last year, we are going to once again ask for households to volunteer to decorate one of their windows and light up Braunston for the Christmas period.

We will start off on the 1st December, lighting up a new window every day until the 25th December. Last year we had 32 volunteers, which enabled us to light up more windows early on in the month.

Please let me know if you would like to take part or have any questions. The easiest way to manage the windows is to set a timer to ensure that everyone has their lights coming on at the same time. 5:00pm - 11:00pm or thereabouts! And REMEMBER it can be an upstairs or a downstairs window.
